Some Jazz A While Collected Poems:

Some Jazz a While Miller Williams, 1998 Here one of our best loved poets gathers his most representative work from twelve collections and adds some new pieces as well An American original Miller Williams involves the readers emotions and imagination with an effective illusion of plain talk continually rediscovering what is vital and musical in the language we speak and imagine by

Poetry from Sojourner Ruth Lepson, 2004 Collection of poems from 25 years of Sojourner For much of its history Sojourner was the most widely circulated feminist literary journal in America and more than 1 200 poems have appeared in its pages since it began publication in 1975 Nearly 150 of those poems are collected in this volume where together they form a powerful testament to the vibrancy wit and diversity of feminist poetry In addition to works by such well known poets as Molly Peacock Nikki Giovanni Betsy Sholl and Adrienne Rich this collection includes poems by women from a host of different backgrounds including many whose work appeared in print for the first time in Sojourner Some of these poems explode with energy others speak with a haiku like softness some discuss love lust and sexuality while others deal with loss divorce and revenge The voices collected here are old and young rural and urban straight and gay from mothers and daughters to wives lovers and countless others all contributing to this anthology s wide ranging conversation about feminism and feminist poetics

The House of Song David Wagoner, 2002 As a recipient of Poetry s Levinson Prize and the Ruth Lilly Prize and a nominee for the American Book Award and National Book Award David Wagoner is one of this country s most celebrated poets In The House of Song he offers a hundred new poems in six parts At turns elegiac comic and nostalgic these poems venture to the seemingly infinitesimal points where people legends and culture collide with nature memory and action With characteristic wit and brevity Wagoner chronicles the material invasions of the natural world reconsidering Thoreau amid ruminations on voyeurs and destroyers slug watchers and moth collectors The House of Song asserts Wagoner s place among the finest of American poets past and present

Asian American Poetry Victoria Chang, 2004 This exciting anthology of work by up and coming writers is the first to profile a new generation of Asian American poets Building on the legacy of now canonized poets such as Li Young Lee Cathy Song and Garrett Hongo who were the first to achieve widespread recognition in the American literary community this new generation also strikes off in bold new directions Asian American Poetry The Next Generation gathers for the first time a broad cross section of the very best work of these young poets all under the age of forty including Timothy Liu Adrienne Su Sue Kwock Kim Rick Barot Brenda Shaughnessy Mong Lan as well as less familiar names A foreword by Marilyn Chin puts the book in context of both Asian American national identity and history and makes the important distinctions between generations clear Asian American Poetry The Next Generation opens the door on a dynamic developing part of the poetic world making it finally accessible to students scholars and poetry fans alike

The Oxford Companion to Modern Poetry in English Jeremy Noel-Tod, Ian Hamilton, 2013-05-23 This impressive volume provides over 1 700 biographical entries on poets writing in English from 1910 to the present day including T S Eliot Dylan Thomas and Carol Ann Duffy Authoritative and accessible it is a must have for students of English and creative writing as well as for anyone with an interest in poetry In the Black Window Michael Van Walleghen,2004-05-12 The title of Michael Van Walleghen s new collection evokes thematic preoccupations that have shadowed him throughout his long career Appearing as a phrase in the poems themselves In the Black Window more generally points to Van Walleghen s enduring interest in the intersection between inner and outer worlds of experience those liminal moments in other worlds where we become aware of ourselves We live at once in a strictly personal material dimension but also in a distinctly spiritual one Yet when looking from a lighted kitchen into a night black window on a winter evening we might perhaps become suddenly aware not only of our own reflection but also of our complicity in some deeper mystery altogether A Map of the Night David Wagoner,2010-10-01 David Wagoner s wide ranging poetry buzzes and swells with life Woods streams and fields fascinate him he happily admits his devotion to Thoreau but so do people and their habits dear friends and family the odd poet and strangers who become even stranger when looked at closely In this new collection Wagoner catches the mixed feelings of a long drive the sensations of walking against a current the difficulty of writing poetry with noisily amorous neighbors and many more uniquely familiar experiences The Hollow Log Lounge R. T. Smith,2010-10-01 This is no fairy tale It s all fantastic and bizarre and true It s my life a raspy song that sounds better if you sing along The men and women who live and work near Opelika Alabama gather at the Hollow Log Lounge There under the watchful eye of the stuffed fox behind the bar they unload their gripes and worries tell their stories argue joke commune complain and confess In this collection of poems R T Smith paints a vividly imagined portrait of the community in this small town bar capturing the chorus of the patrons voices echoing off the knotted wood paneled walls Smith s stand in Sam Buckhannon scribbles stories heard and overheard as tongues loosened by liquor spin out monologues in which southern idiom and vernacular seem perfectly at home within the constraints of measured verse Shadow Patterns Jeff Shannon,2017-04-15 Winner 2017 Ned Shank Award for Outstanding Preservation Publication from Preserve Arkansas Shadow Patterns Reflections on Fay Jones and His Architecture is a collection of critical essays and personal accounts of the man the American Institute of Architects honored with its highest award the Gold Medal in 1990 The essays range from the academic with appreciations and observations by Juhanni Palaasma and Robert McCarter and Ethel Goodstein Murphree to personal reflections by clients and friends Two of Arkansas s most accomplished writers Roy Reed and Ellen Gilchrist who each live in Fay Jones houses have provided intimate portrayals of what it s like to live in and manage the quirks of a house built by a genius where light is everywhere Everything is quiet and everything is a surprise as Gilchrist says Through this compendium of perspectives readers will learn about Jones s personal qualities including his strong will his ability to convince other people of the rightness of his ideas and yet his willingness at times to change his mind We also enter into the work powerful architecture like Stoneflower and Thorncrown Chapel and Pinecote Pavilion along with private residences ranging from the modest to the monumental And we learn about his relationship with his mentor Frank Lloyd Wright Shadow Patterns broadens and enriches our understanding of this major figure in American architecture of the twentieth century

Pursuit of a Wound Sydney Lea, 2000 Co winner of the prestigious Poets Prize for his collection To the Bone Sydney Lea is known for his mastery of the narrative style and his clear and unwavering vision of the natural world and humanity's place in it His latest work Pursuit of a Wound is marked by this acuity and by his uncanny ear for language as well as his willingness to speak for the unlucky and the dispossessed Delving in equal measure into the flinty northern New England landscape and the exiled souls of ordinary people Pursuit of a Wound moves beyond Lea's previous work to explore new poetic strategies including some that approach prose poetry Combining a free ranging sensibility akin to Whitman's with a keen attention to verse's formal possibilities this collection of twenty eight new poems evokes a beautiful and threatened place and ratifies Lea's status as heir apparent to Robert Frost
