Some Other Horizon:

Dream, Death, and the Self J. J. Valberg, 2007-04-23 Publisher description Lesbians and Lesbianisms Claudette Kulkarni, 2012-11-12 Claudette Kulkarni explores lesbian experience from a Jungian and feminist perspective through interviews with women who see themselves as lesbians or who are in a lesbian relationship Although a feminist treatment of the subject challenges the heterosexism of Jungian theory the author presents a link between theory and experience that is consistent with both approaches She concludes that when a woman finds herself loving another woman she is often responding to a profound psychological instinct to act in spite of internal conflict or external opposition and that this is a significant move in the service of personal and collective individuation and a movement toward achieving self understanding History, Ethics, and the Recognition of the Other Anton Froeyman, 2015-09-25 This book introduces a new way of looking at the writing of history Rather than as the production of knowledge or the telling of stories it sees writing history as an ethical existential and emotional engagement with the people from the past The conceptual and philosophical basis for this view is provided by the philosophy of Emmanuel Levinas In the first part the view is presented and contrasted with other competing views such as those of Hans Georg Gadamer and Michel Foucault In the second part the view is argued for most importantly by an in depth discussion of one specific tradition of history writing microhistory and a series of close readings of several classical works from the history of historiography The third part finally explores some of the methodological consequences of this view and applies it to a non academic way of dealing with the past namely historical performance practice in music The book features a foreword by Frank Ankersmit The Lonergan Reader Bernard J. F.

Lonergan, 1997-01-01 In order to make Lonergan's unique contribution to philosophy and theology accessible to students and teachers the editors of The Lonergan Reader have brought together in a single volume selections that represent the depth and breadth of his thought Unthinking Epistemicide Lucas Van Milders, 2024-11-05 How can the supremacy of the Western worldview be undone This book argues that the cause of social and political inequalities is above all the inequality of non Western worldviews when compared to that of the West Developing a critical theory and praxis for undoing epistemicide or in other words the murder of knowledge this book challenges the approach of the West and the rest Epistemicide refers specifically to the destruction of non Western forms of knowledge production that has facilitated the hegemony of Western centric epistemology or one that takes the West as a universalized perspective Rather than rehashing well known critiques of Western centrism this book develops the claim that alternative to the West vs Rest hierarchy worldviews are necessarily plural as each way of looking at the world reflects a particular perspective on the world Bringing this plurality of perspectives into a dialogue that celebrates difference and equality this book presents both a theoretical understanding of the world as hosting multiple worldviews and a practical conception of these worldviews as always already enacted within the world Undoing the dominance of the Western centric worldview entails looking at the different ways of being in the world that exist today and that reflect the prospect of a world in which many worlds are possible Religion, Truth, and Social Transformation Lambert Zuidervart, 2016-03-29 A lucid introduction to a living philosophical tradition and a creative contribution to change oriented scholarship Soil Survey of Hampton County, South Carolina Robert T. Eppinette, 1995 This soil survey contains information that can be used in land planning programs in Hampton County It contains predications of soil behavior for selected land uses The survey also highlights limitations and hazards inherent in the soil improvements needed to overcome the limitations and the impact of selected land uses on the environment Gadamer and Ricoeur Francis J. Mootz III, George H. Taylor, 2011-06-16 Listening to the Neighbor Byungohk Lee, 2015-05-12 The Trinity can be understood as a social community with members speaking and listening to one another in love or as Luther understood the Trinity as conversation then God s mission essentially involves in mission in dialogue Byungohk Lee contends the church has to embrace the dialogical dimension in missional terms because the triune God is the subject of mission The missional church conversation has taken it for granted that local churches should speak and listen to their neighbors In contrast for many churches in Asia including Korea mission has generally tended to be practiced in a monological rather than dialogical manner The neighbor has not been regarded as a conversational partner of the church but only as the object for its mission In Listening to the Neighbor Lee shows that some local churches have participated in God s mission by listening to their neighbors He argues that listening is not a technique but a multifaceted learning process in missional terms The church must nurture its hearts eyes and ears in order to listen to the sigh of its neighbors Agriculture Handbook , 1975 Set includes revised editions of some issues
