Someone Else's Country:

Someone Else's Country Peter Docker, 2010-10-19 Large Print In Someone Else's Country Trenita Brookshire Childers, 2020-08-12 In this groundbreaking work Trenita Childers explores the enduring system of racial profiling in the Dominican Republic where Dominicans of Haitian descent are denied full citizenship in the only country they have ever known As birthright citizens they now wonder why they are treated like they are in someone else's country Childers describes how nations like the Dominican Republic create stateless second class citizens through targeted documentation policies She also carefully discusses the critical gaps between policy and practice while excavating the complex connections between racism and labor systems Her vivid ethnography profiles dozens of Haitian immigrants and Dominicans of Haitian descent and connects their compelling individual experiences with broader global and contemporary discussions about race immigration citizenship and statelessness while highlighting examples of collective resistance How to Work in
