Something Borrowed Something Learned The Transatlantic Market In Education And Training Reform:

Something Borrowed, Something Learned? David Finegold, William Richardson, 1993 Examines how the British government borrowed ideas from the US for education and training reforms during the last years of the Thatcher government Describes the transplanting of magnet schools school choice experiments business education compacts and the federal student loan program Also considers the problems of grafting such innovations onto a different education structure and predicts further interchange in the future The 11 papers are from a July 1990 conference location not noted No index Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR Reforming Education Benjamin Levin, 2004-06-02 Ambitious programs of education reform have been introduced by many governments around the world Reforming Education is an important study of large scale education reform in five different settings England New Zealand the Canadian provinces of Alberta and Manitoba and the US state of Minnesota The book looks at a variety of reforms covering school choice charter schools increased testing of students stricter curriculum guidelines and local school management Drawing from theoretical and empirical work in education political theory organizational theory and public administration Reforming Education provides a clearly developed conceptual framework of analyzing reform programs The author reviews the political origins of the reforms the process of adoption into law the implementation processes used to support the reforms and the results of the reforms for students schools and communities Encyclopedia of the Social and Cultural Foundations of Education: A-H ; 2, I-Z ; 3, Biographies, visual history, index Eugene F. Provenzo, John P. Renaud, Asterie Baker Provenzo, 2009 The Encyclopedia provides an introduction to the social and cultural foundations of education The first two volumes consist of A Z entries featuring essays representing the major disciplines including philosophy history and sociology and a third volume is made up of documentary photographic and visual resources Resources in Education, 1995 Policy Learning from Canada Trygve Ugland, 2018-03-01 Focusing on the three Scandinavian countries Denmark Norway and Sweden Policy Learning from Canada is a systematic study of the international relevance of the Canadian immigration and integration policy model To reveal how the Canadian immigration model has shaped the reform process in Scandinavia Trygve Ugland critically examines public documents including government proposals documents from parliamentary debates and reports by ad hoc expert commissions as well as letters from consulted agencies Ugland s intensive studies on Canada s immigration and integration policies depict Canada not only as a model and inspiration to Scandinavian policy makers but in particular as an intellectual stimulus for the rediscovery of labour immigration in Scandinavia during the 2000s The study demonstrates that the Canadian model often perceived as a product of unique circumstances can be relevant in other countries Discourse Formation in Comparative Education Jürgen Schriewer, 2009 New theories and theory based methodological approaches have found their way into Comparative Education just as into Comparative Social Science more generally in increasing number in the recent past The essays of this volume express and critically discuss quite a range of these positions such as inter alia the theory of self organizing social systems and the morphogenetic approach the theory of long waves in economic development and world systems analysis historical sociology and the sociology of knowledge as well as critical hermeneutics and post modernist theorizing With reference to such theories and approaches the chapters written by scholars from Europe the USA and Australia outline alternative research agendas for the comparative study of the social and educational fabric of the modern world In so doing they also expound frames of reference for re considering the intellectual shaping or Discourse Formation of Comparative Education as a field of study International Handbook on Globalisation, Education and Policy Research Joseph Zajda,2005-03-17 The aim of this Handbook is to present a global overview of developments in education and policy change during the last decade It has the objective of providing both a strategic education policy statement on recent shifts in education and policy research globally and offers new approaches to further exploration development and improvement of education and policy making The Handbook attempts to address some of the above issues and problems confronting educators and policy makers globally Different articles seek to conceptualize the on going problems of education policy formulation and implementation and provide a useful synthesis of the education policy research conducted in different countries and practical implications The Handbook by focusing on such issues as the OECD 2001 model of the knowledge society and associated strategic challenge and deliverable goals OECD 2001 139 UNESCO driven lifelong learning paradigm and its relevance to education policy makers globally different models of policy planning and equity questions that are raised by centralization decentralization diversity uniformity and curriculum standardization issues the crises of educational quality the debate of standards and excellence and good and effective teaching will contribute to a better and more holistic understanding of the education policy and research nexus offering possible strategies for the effective and pragmatic policy planning and implementation at the local regional and national levels Educational Policy and the Politics of Change Miriam Henry,Bob Lingard,Fazal Rizvi,Sandra Taylor,2013-01-11 Governments around the world are trying to come to terms with new technologies new social movements and a changing global economy As a result educational policy finds itself at the centre of a major political struggle between those who see it only for its instrumental outcomes and those who see its potential for human emancipation This book is a successor to the best selling Understanding Schooling 1988 It provides a readable account of how educational policies are developed by the state in response to broader social cultural economic and political changes which are taking place It examines the way in which schools live and work with these changes and the policies which result from them The book examines policy making at each level from perspectives both inside and outside the state bureaucracy It has a particular focus on social justice Both undergraduate and postgraduate students will find that this book enables them to understand the reasoning behind the changes they are expected to implement It will help to prepare them to confront an uncertain educational world whilst still retaining their enthusiasm for education The Global Politics of Educational Borrowing and Lending Gita Steiner-Khamisi,2004 Steiner Khamisi and her colleagues provide an in depth empirical and critical examination of the practice of global educational policy Contributors question the value of importing and exporting educational policies analyze who benefits from these arrangements and test the effectiveness of adapting one country's policies in other often quite culturally distinct countries An important contribution to comparative studies of education and educational politics From the Foreword by Thomas S Popkewitz Steiner Khamsi has established one of the major centers where cutting edge work is being done on educational borrowing and lending This book provides the richest textual evidence of this work in the context of globalization and I give it my strongest endorsement Val Rust UCLA An illuminating study that provides innovative theoretical insights on the impact of globalization in education Nelly Stromquist University of Southern California Contributors Charles Tilly Jürgen Schriewer Carlos Martinez David Phillips Iveta Silova Tali Yariv Mashal Carol Anne Spreen Bernhard T Streitwieser William deJong Lambert Frances Vavrus Thomas F Luschei Dana Burde Phillip W Jones Gita Steiner Khamsi Entrepreneurial Education Kristiina Erkkilä, 2000 The study finds that arguments supporting or opposing entrepreneurial education are highly contextual According to the literature studied entrepreneurship education is more directly focused upon small business and entrepreneurship whereas enterprise education is aimed at the development of enterprising behavior skills and attributes not only for business use Furthermore debates on entrepreneurial education are more complex than shown in previous studies The debate in the United States is more diverse and practice driven than those are in the United Kingdom and Finland In addition the discourse of each country has unique categories The book includes suggestions for future research and gives recommendations particularly for Finnish practice which could also benefit other societies just starting their path in entrepreneurial education The study serves as a comprehensive literature source for future interests and research BOOK JACKET
