Something From Space Gazelles:

The Poet as Phenomenologist Luke Fischer, 2015-02-26 The Poet as Phenomenologist Rilke and the New Poems opens up new perspectives on the relation between Rilke's poetry and phenomenological philosophy illustrating the ways in which poetry can offer an exceptional response to the philosophical problem of dualism Drawing on the work of Husserl Heidegger and Merleau Ponty Luke Fischer makes a new contribution to the tradition of phenomenological poetics and expands the debate among Germanists concerning the phenomenological status of Rilke's poetry which has been severely limited to comparisons of Rilke and Husserl Fischer explicates an implicit phenomenology of perception in Rilke's writings from his middle period 1902-1910 He argues that Rilke cultivated an artistic perception that in a philosophically significant manner overcomes the opposition between the sensuous and the intelligible while simultaneously transcending the boundaries of philosophy Fischer offers novel interpretations of central poems from Rilke's Neue Gedichte 1907 and Der neuen Gedichte anderer Teil 1908 and frames them as the ultimate articulation of Rilke's non dualistic vision He thus demonstrates the continuity between Rilke and phenomenology while arguing that poetry in this case provides the most adequate response to a philosophical problem

The Look of Things Carsten Strathausen, 2020-05-01 Examining the relationship between German poetry philosophy and visual media around 1900 Carsten Strathausen argues that the poetic works of Rainer Maria Rilke Hugo von Hofmannsthal and Stefan George focused on the visible gestalt of language as a means of competing aesthetically with the increasing popularity and reality effect of photography and film Poetry around 1900 self reflectively celebrated its own words as both transparent signs and material objects Strathausen says In Aestheticism this means that language harbors the potential to literally present the things it signifies Rather than simply describing or picturing the physical experience of looking as critics have commonly maintained modernist poetry claims to enable a more profound kind of perception that grants intuitive insights into the very texture of the natural world

The Gazelle's Dream Alison Betts, W. Paul van Pelt, 2021-12-01 Once the world's prairies grasslands steppes and tundra teemed with massive herds of game gazelle wild ass bison caribou and antelope Humans seeking to hunt these large fast moving herds devised a range of specialised traps that share many characteristics across all continents Typically consisting of guiding walls or lines of stones leading to an enclosure or trap game drives were designed for a mass killing Construction of the game drive organisation of the hunt and processing of the carcass often required group co operation and in many cases game drives have been linked to seasonal gatherings of otherwise scattered groups who may have used these occasions not only to hunt but also for social ritual and economic activities The Gazelle s Dream Game Drives of the Old and New Worlds is the first comparative study of game drives examining this mode of hunting across three continents and a broad range of periods The book describes the hunting of bison in North America reindeer in Scandinavia antelope in Tibet and an extensive array of examples from the greater Middle East from Egypt to Armenia The Gazelle s Dream will be of value to anyone with an interest in the history of hunting and wildlife management Wild Things
