Son Vacas Somos Puercos:

Son vacas, somos puercos, 1991 Son vacas, somos puercos Carmen Boullosa, 1991 América, n° 34 Centre de recherches interuniversitaire sur les champs culturels en Amérique latine. Colloque international, 2005 Reflexiones: Prefacio Priscilla Gac-Artigas, 2002 Son vacas, somos puercos Carmen Boullosa, 1991 The emerging societies of the Caribbean in the 17th century were a riotous assembly of pirates aristocrats revolutionaries and rogues outcasts and fortune seekers all In this work acclaimed Mexican novelist Boullosa animates this world of bloody chaos through the eyes of young Jean Smeeks kidnapped in Flanders at age 13 and sold into indentured servitude on Tortuga the mythical Treasure Island

The Other Mirror Kristine Ibsen, 1997-02-25 During the last decade women s narrative has become a recognized force in Mexican letters The essays in this collection explore the recent work of nine contemporary Mexican women writers Many of the works have been translated into English some like Laura Esquivel s Like Water for Chocolate have become international best sellers The unprecedented commercial success of these novels has generated mixed reactions at the same time that the secondary status afforded women s narrative has come to be questioned in many academic circles some authors are dissociating themselves from women s writing The essays in this volume address these issues providing a much needed contribution to the study of women s narrative A Twice-told Tale Santiago Juan-Navarro, Theodore Robert Young, 2001 Essays on Iberian views of the age of conquest through literature and cinema Cooptation, Complicity, and Representation Shigeko Mato, 2010 Is the affiliation between intellectuals and hegemony unbreakable When intellectuals attempt to retell history from its bottom side or when writers try to represent the so called marginalized subject are they not simply reinforcing the perspective and agenda of society s hegemonic currents Cooptation Complicity and Representation engages in a discussion of the problem of this potentially unbreakable affiliation between intellectuals and hegemony Through five twentieth century Mexican literary works Pedro P ramo 1955 Juan Rulfo Hasta no verte Jes s m o 1969 Elena Poniatowska three short stories from Ciudad Real 1960 Rosario Castellanos Llanto Novelas imposibles 1992 Carmen Boullosa and Muertos inc modos falta lo que falta 2005 Subcomandante Marcos and Paco Ignacio Taibo II this book attempts to examine the contradictory phenomenon that emerges when intellectuals desire to represent a marginalized subject or history clashes with their own limited ability to fully know the marginalized No critics have compiled these five seemingly unrelated Mexican texts in order to scrutinize such a contradictory tendency Cooptation Complicity and Representation provides an innovative way to connect the five texts by delineating within specific Mexican historical and geopolitical contexts how and why intellectuals have difficulty moving away from the reproduction of otherness when they attempt to represent a marginalized subject or history This book can be useful for those who are interested in the Spanish American boom literature twentieth century Mexican literature women writing testimonial writing subaltern studies postcolonial studies historical novels and cultural studies Utopian Dreams, Apocalyptic Nightmares Miguel López-Lozano, 2008 Utopian Dreams

Apocalyptic Nightmares traces the history of utopian representations of the Americas first on the part of the colonizers who idealized the New World as an earthly paradise and later by Latin American modernizing elites who imagined Western industrialization cosmopolitanism and consumption as a utopian dream for their independent societies Carlos Fuentes Homero Aridjis Carmen Boullosa and Alejandro Morales utilize the literary genre of dystopian science fiction to elaborate on how globalization has resulted in the alienation of indigenous peoples and the deterioration of the ecology This book concludes that Mexican and Chicano perspectives on the past and the future of their societies constitute a key site for the analysis of the problems of underdevelopment social injustice and ecological decay that plague today s world Whereas utopian discourse was once used to justify colonization Mexican and Chicano writers now deploy dystopian rhetoric to interrogate projects of modernization contributing to the current debate on the global expansion of capitalism The narratives coincide in expressing confidence in the ability of Latin American and U S Latino popular sectors to claim a decisive role in the implementation of enhanced measures to guarantee an ecologically sound ethnically diverse and just society for the future of the Americas

Worlding Latin America Marco Ramírez Rojas, José Carlos Díaz Zanelli, 2025-03-03 This book offers a contribution to contemporary discussions in the field of Latin American critical theory and literary dialogues by incorporating understudied archives and opening new lines of inquiry from a global perspective Organized around the central themes of transatlantic and transpacific connections the construction of world literary canons that include the Latin American continent and the cultural tensions between local and global intellectual practices this volume provides a comprehensive examination of several key theoretical and literary interventions Essays in this volume discuss issues of translatability geographical imaginaries local iterations of orientalist discourses the construction of editorial networks and the global circulation of cultural commodities
