Song Meiling Yu Zhongguo:

Soong Mayling and Wartime China, 1937-1945 Esther T. Hu, 2024-12-15 Soong Mayling and Wartime China 1937 1945 Deploying Words as Weapons focuses on the First Lady of China's timely and critical contributions in the areas of war women's work and diplomacy during China's War of Resistance as inflected through gender This book explores Soong Mayling through her own words by examining her speeches essays letters telegrams and news reports during the war period How did Madame Chiang Kai shek's gender identity shape her interactions with other Chinese women the male military and political leadership in the Republic of China and the broader global public How did Confucianism's cardinal virtues and Chinese Christianity converge in Soong Mayling's work and worldview What were her main contributions as Secretary General of the Chinese Air Force Drawing on Chinese archival materials such as Chiang Kai shek's diaries and other records around the world Esther Hu provides a historically informed perspective of the First Lady's legacy within the context of World War II history international cultural and military affairs and transnational geopolitics The Chinese People at War Diana Lary, 2010-07-26 Diana Lary one of the foremost historians of the period tells the tragic history of China's War of Resistance and its consequences from the perspective of those who went through it Using archival evidence only recently made available interviews with survivors and extracts from literature she creates a vivid and highly disturbing picture of the havoc created by the war the destruction of towns and villages the displacement of peoples and the accompanying economic and social disintegration As the author suggests in a new interpretation of modern Chinese history far from stemming the spread of communism from the USSR which was the Japanese pretext for invasion the horrors of the war and the damage it created nurtured the Chinese Communist Party and helped it to win power in 1949 New Narratives of Urban Space in Republican Chinese Cities, 2013-03-27 The nine empirical studies in New Narratives of Urban Space in Republican Chinese Cities organized under the general framework of urban space examine three critical dimensions of the great urban transformation in Republican China social legal and governance orders Together these narratives suggest a new perception of this historical urbanism While modern economic development was a major drive for Chinese urban transformation this volume highlights the dimension of the multilayered forces that shape urban space by looking into that less quantifiable but equally important cultural realm and by exposing the ways in which these forces created new urban narratives which became themselves shapers of urban space and of our perception of the Republican urbanity Echoes of Chongqing Danke Li, 2010 The voices of ordinary women in China's War of Resistance against Japan Keeping the Nation's House Helen M. Schneider, 2011-03-01 For many the term home economics conjures images of sterile classrooms where young girls and women learn to cook dinner and swaddle dolls far removed from the seats of power Keeping the Nation's House unsettles this assumption by revealing how elite Chinese women helped to build modern China one family at a time Trained between the 1920s and the early 1950s home economists believed that their discipline would transform the most fundamental of political spaces the home by teaching women to nurture ideal families and manage projects of social reform Although their discipline came undone after 1949 it created a legacy of gendered professionalism and reinforced the idea that leaders should shape domestic rituals of the people By focusing on an overlooked group of Chinese women this book genders the past by showing how these women helped make the present and it reveals how a group of intellectuals made the transition to the Communist era

Women and Their Warlords Kate Merkel-Hess, 2024-08-19 Explores the complex history and legacy of elite wives concubines and daughters of warlords in twentieth century China In Women and Their Warlords historian Kate Merkel Hess examines the lives and personalities of the female relatives of the military rulers who governed regions of China from 1916 to 1949 Posing for candid photographs and sitting for interviews these women did not merely advance male rulers agendas They advocated for social and political changes gave voice to feminist ideas and shaped how the public perceived them As the first publicly political partners in modern China the wives and concubines of Republican era warlords changed how people viewed elite women s engagement in politics Drawing on popular media sources including magazine profiles and gossip column items Merkel Hess draws unexpected connections between militarism domestic life and state power in this insightful new account of gender and authority in twentieth century China

Intimate Communities Nicole Elizabeth Barnes, 2018-10-23 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more When China s War of Resistance against Japan began in July 1937 it sparked an immediate health crisis throughout China In the end China not only survived the war but emerged from the trauma with a more cohesive population Intimate Communities argues that women who worked as military and civilian nurses doctors and midwives during this turbulent period built the national community one relationship at a time In a country with a majority illiterate agricultural population that could not relate to urban elites conceptualization of nationalism these women used their work of healing to create emotional bonds with soldiers and civilians from across the country These bonds transcended the divides of social class region gender and language

Women and Politics in Wartime China Vivienne Xiangwei Guo, 2018-12-07 Focusing on Chinese elite women as a special socio political group this book places the sophisticated networks they formed in the shifting geographical social cultural and political spaces of wartime China where their political engagement knowledge making and network building in support of national resistance and reconstruction kangzhan jianguo unfolded By examining the emergence development integration and transformation of these networks as an unsettled fragmented process a process that lasted through the extended wars and upheavals in China from the 1930s to the 1950s and that moves beyond party ideologies and geopolitical borders the book seeks to explore the dynamics of war politics and gender in the broader context of the Second World War
