Song Of Hiawatha:

The Song of Hiawatha Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 1898 The Song of Hiawatha: An Epic Poem Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 2022-09-16 Henry Wadsworth Longfellow's The Song of Hiawatha An Epic Poem holds a distinguished place in the pantheon of American literature. Written in trochaic tetrameter, the poem echoes the cadences found in the Finnish epic the Kalevala, embodying an ambitious attempt to capture the essence of Native American mythology. Rich in allegory and symbolism, Longfellow's narrative weaves together the adventures of the Ojibwe warrior Hiawatha with the natural world of the American landscape, thus exploring the interplay between human experience and the environment at a critical period of national self-definition. The literary style is marked by its vivid imagery and an engaging rhythm that creates an almost hypnotic effect, inviting readers into the lore and legends of a time gone by. Longfellow, one of the most celebrated poets of the 19th century, drew upon his fascination with indigenous cultures and his scholarly background in European literatures to craft this masterpiece. This work reflects a period of romantic nationalism where there was a burgeoning interest in creating distinctly American narratives couched in the grandeur and expansiveness characteristic of the era. Longfellow, through his vast reading and intuitive understanding of verse, aimed to construct a unifying myth for the young nation, crystallizing his legacy as both a poet and a cultural architect. This edition by DigiCat Publishing is an invitation to contemporary readers to revisit and appreciate Longfellow's epic in a format that bridges the past and present. Scholars and novices alike will find The Song of Hiawatha an enriching read that offers insight into the crafting of national identity through literature. It is a poignant reminder of the power of epic poetry to stir the imagination, prompt reflection on human character, and underscore the enduring beauty of storytelling traditions.

The Song of Hiawatha Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, 2014-01-24 The Song of Hiawatha is an 1855 epic poem in trochaic tetrameter by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, featuring an Indian hero. Longfellow's sources for the legends and ethnography found in his poem were the Ojibwe Chief Kahge-gah-gah-bowh during their visits at Longfellow's home, Black Hawk, and other Sac and Fox Indians Longfellow encountered on Boston Commons. Algic Researches and additional writings by Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, an ethnographer and United States Indian agent, and Heckewelder's Narratives. In sentiment, scope, overall conception, and many particulars, Longfellow's poem is very much a work of American Romantic literature, not a representation of Native American oral tradition. Longfellow insisted, "I can give chapter and verse for these legends. Their chief value is that they are Indian legends."
