A Song of Muhammad M. R. Bawa Muhaiyaddeen, 1995      The Female Voice in Sufi Ritual Shemeem Burney Abbas, 2010-06-04 The female voice plays a more central role in Sufi ritual especially in the singing of devotional poetry than in almost any other area of Muslim culture Female singers perform sufiana kalam or mystical poetry at Sufi shrines and in concerts folk festivals and domestic life while male singers assume the female voice when singing the myths of heroines in qawwali and sufiana kalam Yet despite the centrality of the female voice in Sufi practice throughout South Asia and the Middle East it has received little scholarly attention and is largely unknown in the West This book presents the first in depth study of the female voice in Sufi practice in the subcontinent of Pakistan and India Shemeem Burney Abbas investigates the rituals at the Sufi shrines and looks at women s participation in them as well as male performers use of the female voice The strengths of the book are her use of interviews with both prominent and grassroots female and male musicians and her transliteration of audio and videotaped performances Through them she draws vital connections between oral culture and the written Sufi poetry that the musicians sing for their audiences This research clarifies why the female voice is so important in Sufi practice and underscores the many contributions of women to Sufism and its rituals      Amar Aiyaar King of Tricksters Sulaiman ahmad, 2013-02-10 AND THE TRICKSTERS OF THE WORLD WILL CALL HIM THEIR KING There s never a dull moment with Amar Aiyaar master of mischief perpetrator of pranks con artist with a conscience trickster beyond compare As the loyal companion of Ameer Hamza the illustrious warrior from Arabia Amar bravely and brazenly defeats every trap and overcomes every challenge standing up to king sorcerer and commoner alike Right from childhood it s clear that Amar the son of a camel driver is born to humble even emperors with his audacity and sharp wit As Hamza s army is magicked away into prison in Tilism e Hoshruha the land of sorcery that stuns the senses it falls upon Amar to rescue them Using his cunning and his blessed bag of tricks Amar Aiyaar blazes his way through the most extraordinary adventures with aplomb Of course he never ignores a chance to add to his fortunes with a greedy eye on every purse of gold At once roguish and honourable superhero and villain Amar Aiyaar is one of the most colourful characters in traditional storytelling in India In the age old great dastan of Tilism e Hoshruha his is one of the most exciting and unforgettable stories of all time      Sacred Spaces and Transnational Networks in American Sufism Merin Shobhana Xavier, 2018-03-22 This book sheds light on the Bawa Muhaiyaddeen Fellowship BMF one of North America s major Sufi movements and one of the first to establish a Sufi shrine in the region It provides the first comprehensive overview of the BMF offering new insight into its historical development and practices and charting its establishment in both the United States and Sri Lanka Through ethnographic research Sacred Spaces and Transnational Networks in American Sufism shows that the followers of Bawa in the United States and Sri Lanka share far more similarities in the relationships they formed with spaces Bawa and Sufism than differences This challenges the accepted conceptualization of Sufism in North America as having a distinct Americanness and prompts scholars to re consider how Sufism is developing in the modern American landscape as well as globally The book focuses on the transnational spaces and ritual activities of Bawa s communities mapping parallel shrines and pilgrimages It examines the roles of culture religion and gender and their impact on ritual embodiment drawing attention to the global range of a Sufi community through engagement with its distinct Muslim Hindu Jewish and Christian followers
