Situation In Asia The:

Narcotics Situation in Southeast Asia: the Asian Connection, Report of a Special Study Mission to Southeast Asia, December 27, 1974- January 12, 1975, Apr. 3., 1975 United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations, 1975 Rice-maize systems in Asia: current situation and potential ,2011 Rice maize R M cropping systems have emerged in recent years on 3 5 million hectares in Asia in response to the increasing demand from a rapidly expanding human population for rice and livestock products They are rapidly spreading in southern and northeastern India and Bangladesh driven by the rising demand for maize by the poultry and fish sectors and the tightening world export import markets The recent development of short duration rice varieties and maize hybrids with improved drought tolerance is also providing opportunities for the expansion of R M systems into areas of South Asia with insufficient irrigation or rain for continuous rice cultivation Agroecologically R M systems have the potential to expand into broad climatic zones across Asia Because strong economic multipliers exist between food production and feed and livestock production more diversified cropping systems are also likely to become a key engine for economic growth in rural areas of Asia This will contribute to more diversified diets improved human nutrition reduced poverty and greater investment in other aspects of quality of life such as education and health care R M systems will also provide new business opportunities for the local agribusiness sector including hybrid seed production and marketing the fertilizer sector the agricultural machinery sector and the grain marketing and livestock feed processing sector Recognizing the importance of diversifying cropping systems in Asia and the need for system level research to support new opportunities for agricultural development IRRI and CIMMYT scientists in collaboration with NARES partners have recently begun work on R M systems in many countries of Asia This report contains information on a strategic assessment of R M systems for 29 selected sites representing diverse soils climate and agroecosystems across nine countries in Asia Bangladesh China India Indonesia Nepal Pakistan the Philippines Thailand and Vietnam Conducted jointly by IRRI and CIMMYT the process involves regional and site level biophysical assessment supported by socioeconomic evaluation using economic data at the regional level and some microeconomic data Biophysical assessment includes agroecosystem characterization of R M systems analysis of historical daily climatic data and regional level prediction of yield potential for the 29 sites The study then provides a detailed analysis of 10 selected sites to understand existing cropping systems identify alternative potential systems and explore measures to optimize these The Cereal Systems Initiative for South Asia CSISA a project funded by the Gates Foundation and USAID in Bangladesh India Nepal and Pakistan was launched in early 2009 It now provides an overall strategy and a new umbrella for contributing new science and technologies to accelerate short and long term cereal production growth in South Asia s most important grain baskets It builds on technologies developed and lessons learned from the Rice Wheat Consortium RWC and many other investments in agricultural R D by both the public and private sector Through creating and facilitating innovative and effective public private sector partnerships in key hubs in South Asia CSISA will boost the deployment of existing varieties hybrids crop and aquaculture related management technologies and market information The results from the strategic assessment of R M systems are already being used in several CSISA hubs

The Approaching Storm: Conflict in Asia, 1945-1965 Edward J. Marolda, 2015-05-01 America's participation in the Vietnam conflict dates to the waning days of World War II when certain victory over Japan prompted the Allies and Asian peoples of many ideological persuasions to change the political landscape France Great Britain the Netherlands and other European countries planned to reestablish control over their colonies in China India and Southeast Asia Anticolonial resistance movements in many cases led by Communists prepared for military and political action to seize control of Korea China and Indochina This book focuses on events in the region between 1945 and 1965 and the growing U S concern over Communist inroads into the region From the Chinese civil war to the French Indochina war and the rise of Ho Chi Minh this book describes U S response to the Communist movements in Asia and how the U S Navy's role evolved from an advisory one to actual combat after the Tonkin Gulf attack of August 1964

Security and Conflict in East Asia Andrew T. H. Tan, 2015-04-24 Security and Conflict in East Asia provides a timely and comprehensive analysis of the sources and implications of conflict on the Korean peninsula and in the People's Republic of China and Japan the three biggest economies in the world This analysis provides the building blocks for effective solutions to manage these tensions more effectively and is a vital resource to those seeking a clearer understanding of conflict in the most pivotal region in the world In the context of increasingly tense China US strategic rivalry the ever present potential for conflict on the Korean peninsula and over Taiwan the absence of effective regional institutions and regimes the emerging arms race in the region the rise in nationalism and the absence of crisis management mechanisms there are many good reasons why the high potential exists for miscalculation and misperception sparking a regional conflict Given the presence of nuclear armed powers in East Asia namely China North Korea and the USA it is also possible that any regional conflict could escalate into a nuclear conflict involving the world's three largest economies the USA China and Japan The security of and any conflict in East Asia thus has tremendous implications for global security The Handbook is divided into four parts The introductory section includes chapters which set the context explain the history of international relations in East Asia and examine the phenomenon of regional arms race The second section is made up of a series of chapters focusing on China examining China's military modernization its relationship with the USA and the various territorial disputes in which it has been involved The third section focuses on Japan and North and South Korea looking at the security challenges facing Japan and the Korean peninsula A concluding section examines the future role of China and the USA in East Asia as well as the prospects for managing security in the region The contributing authors are all experts in their respective fields and all share an abiding concern over developments in East Asia Their contributions aim to assist in a better understanding of the issues to suggest possible solutions and draw attention to the need for diplomacy confidence building measures crisis management mechanisms and other measures to prevent conflict This volume will be of use to government institutions involved in foreign policy intelligence and defence reference libraries universities research institutes and non governmental organisations It will also appeal to analysts researchers journalists policy advisers students academics and the general reader Scholarly analysis is yet to catch up and currently there are no other comprehensive works examining conflict in East Asia in the context of the current tensions Race, Ethnicity and Religion in Conflict Across Asia Kunal Mukherjee, 2021-02-27 This book looks at conflict zones in the Asia Pacific with a special focus on secessionist groups movements in the Indian Northeast Tibet Chinese Xinjiang the Burmese borderlands Kashmir in South Asia CHT in Bangladesh South Thailand and Aceh in Indonesia These conflict zones are predominantly ethnic minority provinces which by and large do not share a sense of oneness with the country that they are currently a part of most of these insurgencies have had strong linkages with separatist nationalist groups in the region Methodologically the author uses extensive fieldwork interview data and participant observation from these conflict zones to take a bottom up approach giving importance to the voices of ordinary people and or the residents of these conflict zones whose voices have generally been ignored Although the book looks at both the historical background and contemporary dimensions of these conflicts the author focuses on exploring how the role of race ethnicity and religion in these conflicts can be both direct and indirect This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conflict and security in contemporary Asia with a background in politics history IR security studies religion and sociology

Agricultural Situation, Asia, 1978 Conflict Management, Security and Intervention in East Asia Jacob Bercovitch, Kwei-Bo Huang, Chung-Chian Teng, 2008-05-07 This edited volume examines the sources manifestations and management of conflict in East Asia which contains many of the worlds conflict flashpoints such as the Korean Peninsula and the China Taiwan Strait In particular the book will elaborate on the following themes general and NGO approaches to third party mediation in conflict situations r Contemporary Issues in The Balkans, Middle East, Asia & Africa Nesrin Kenar, 2022-08-22 This book entitled Contemporary Issues in The Balkans Middle East Asia Africa consists of various topics and intends to focus on contemporary issues in The Balkans Middle East Asia Africa The content of this book was created on a regional basis because the crises and conflicts in the international arena are mostly experienced between the states in the same region and emerge as a result of the regional balance of power and regional dynamics in the region which is also called the geographical subsystem Conflict and Commerce in Maritime East Asia Xing Hang, 2015 A major new interpretation of the Zheng family of merchants and militarists who dominated the seventeenth century China Seas Humanitarian Problems of Southeast Asia, 1977-78 United States.
