Approaches to Drawing in Architectural and Urban Design Fabio Colonnese, Nuno Grancho, Robin Schaeffer, 2024-04-04 Architects draw for a variety of purposes they draw to assimilate places and precedents to generate ideas to develop a concept into a consistent project in a team to communicate ideas and solutions to patrons and clients and to guide building contractors during the construction stages as well as to produce further elaborations in order to publish their project in a treatise a journal or their own portfolio Most importantly architects draw to think and to manage complexity in a visual way By taking into account innovative and interdisciplinary uses of architectural drawing in the design process both historical and current the collection of chapters and interviews in this book frames a new critical perspective and a uniquely contextual appreciation of drawing as a way to encourage spatial thinking and practice in architecture and urbanism The authors take the discussion to a new level of philosophical sophistication while also considering drawing in relation to a series of specific engagements with urban development planning and architecture

Architect's Drawings Kendra Schank Smith, 2006-08-11 The sketch is a window into the architect's mind As creative designers architects are interested in how other architects particularly successful ones think through the use of drawings to approach their work Historically designers have sought inspiration for their own work through an insight into the minds and workings of people they often regard as geniuses This collection of sketches aims to provide this insight Here for the first time a wide range of world famous architects sketches from the Renaissance to the present day can be seen in a single volume The sketches have been selected to represent the concepts or philosophies of the key movements in architecture in order to develop an overall picture of the role of the sketch in the development of architecture The book illustrates the work of designers as diverse as Andrea Palladio Erich Mendelsohn Sir Edwin Lutyens Gianlorenzo Bernini Le Corbusier Michelangelo Alvar Aalto Sir John Soane Francesco Borromini Walter Gropius and contemporary architects Tadao Ando Zaha Hadid and Frank Gehry to name but a few Each chronologically placed sketch is accompanied by text providing details about the architect's life a look at the sketch in context and the connection to specific buildings where appropriate Style media and meaning are also discussed developing an explanation of the architect's thinking and intentions As creative designers themselves architects are interested in how other architects particularly successful ones think and draw and approach their work Historically designers have sought inspiration for their own work through an insight into the minds and workings of people they often regard as geniuses This collection of sketches aims to provide this insight Listed chronologically each sketch will be accompanied by a text which provides A short synopsis history of the architect's life a look at the sketch in this context the connection to a specific building where appropriate techniques of the sketch style and media meaning what the sketch shows about the architect's thinking and intentions followed by a select bibliography for each section
