Skills In Religious Studies:

Skills in religious studies S. C. Mercier, 1997      Skills in Religious Studies, 1988      The Religious Studies Skills Book Eugene V. Gallagher, Joanne Maguire, 2018-12-13 Studying religion in college or university This book shows you how to perform well on your course tests and examinations write successful papers and participate meaningfully in class discussions You ll learn new skills and also enhance existing ones which you can put into practice with in text exercises and assignments Written by two award winning instructors this book identifies the close reading of texts material culture and religious actions as the fundamental skill for the study of religion at undergraduate level It shows how critical analytical thinking about religious actions and ideas is founded on careful patient yet creative reading of religious stories rituals objects and spaces The book leads you through the description analysis and interpretation of examples from multiple historical periods cultures and religious traditions including primary source material such as Matthew 6 9 13 the Lord s Prayer the gohonzon scroll of the Japanese new religion Soka Gakkai and the pilgrimage to Mecca hajj It provides you with typical assignments you will encounter in your studies showing you how you might approach tasks such as reflective interpretive or summary essays Further resources found on the book s website include bibliographies and links to useful podcasts      Religious Meaning-making Skills John Boyers, 2000      Improving Religious Education Through Teacher Training Friedrich Schweitzer, Rob Freathy, Stephen G. Parker, Henrik Simojoki, 2023 This book brings together two topics which have both been of increasing interest in different countries The first refers to the quality of Religious Education as a school subject RE in general the second is about the education of teachers of RE and its possible contribution to better quality RE There have been many public and often controversial debates concerning both of these topics The chapters contained in this volume however are not meant to continue such debates even if it is inevitable that they will contribute to these debates as well but to make use of research especially research on teacher education in the field of RE in order to provide insights based not just on political or personal opinions but on rigorous academic scholarship      Debates in Religious Education L. Philip Barnes, 2011-07-07 What are the key debates in Religious Education teaching today Debates in Religious Education explores the major issues all RE teachers encounter in their daily professional lives It encourages critical reflection and aims to stimulate both novice and experienced teachers to think more deeply about their practice and link research and evidence to what they have observed in schools This accessible book tackles established and contemporary issues enabling you to reach informed judgements and argue your point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding Taking account of recent controversy and challenging assumptions about the place of religion in education expert contributors cover key topics such as Effective pedagogy in RE teaching Exploring thinking skills and truth claims The relationship of science and religion in the classroom The place of school worship in contemporary society The role of RE in spiritual and moral development Diversity in the RE classroom With its combination of expert opinion and fresh insight Debates in Religious Education is the ideal companion for any student or practising teacher engaged in initial training continuing professional development and Masters level study      Theology and Religious Studies in Higher Education Darlene L. Bird, Simon G. Smith, 2009-03-22

A collection of essays by some of today's leading academics on the sometimes contentious relationship between religious studies and theology      Teaching Religious Education Elaine McCreery, Sandra Palmer, Veronica Voies, 2008-05-21 Many trainee primary teachers are uncertain as to the place and purpose of RE in primary schools This book is designed to alleviate such fears and give trainees the security and confidence to teach RE effectively Trainees are encouraged to recognise their own religious position and understand how they handle their own beliefs and commitments in the classroom In addition they will learn how to be sensitive to children's religious viewpoints allowing children to share their beliefs in a secure and supportive environment A range of strategies help readers to provide engaging and appropriate RE across the primary age phase      Teaching Critical Religious Studies Jenna Gray-Hildenbrand, Beverley McGuire, Hussein Rashid, 2022-08-11 Are you teaching religious studies in the best way possible Do you inadvertently offer simplistic understandings of religion to undergraduate students only to then unpick them at advanced levels This book presents case studies of teaching methods that integrate student learning classroom experiences and disciplinary critiques It shows how critiques of the scholarship of religious studies including but not limited to the World Religions paradigm Christian normativity Orientalism colonialism race gender sexuality and class can be effectively integrated into all courses especially at an introductory level Integrating advanced critiques from religious studies into actual pedagogical practices this book offers ways for scholars to rethink their courses to be more reflective of the state of the field This is essential reading for all scholars in religious studies      The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education Liam Francis Gearon, Arniika Kuusisto, 2025-04-29 The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Education offers a multi disciplinary work of scholarship and research highlighting the global significance of a critical interface of cultural and social political and theological importance Drawing on historical perspective and contemporary reflection the collection provides a uniquely transformative analysis of why the interface of religion and education is of such critical significance With contributions from some of the leading thinkers in the field this Handbook presents a cumulatively powerful argument to reassess the complexities of the intersection of religion and education With ambitious and yet accessible intellectual engagements the Handbook here furthers a central thesis that the interface of religion and education is not merely a matter of arcane disputation about a domain of ancient origin or a rudimentary matter of formal educational process but a vibrant domain of critical contestation fundamental to knowing understanding and living in the modern world      Proceedings of the 2nd Annual Conference of Islamic Education 2023 (ACIE 2023) Depict Pristine Adi, Setya Chendra Wibawa, Mashudi, Taha Romadhan Zaghloul, Fiqru Mafar, Muhammad Ardy Zaini, Moh. Rofid Fikroni, 2023-12-29 This is an open access book This is the second annual conference of Islamic education organized by Faculty of Tarbiyah and Teacher Training UIN Kiai Haji Achmad Siddiq Jember

Inspiring Faith in Schools Marius Felderhof,2016-05-23 Inspiring Faith in Schools addresses the privileging of secularism that appears to affect RE in countries influenced by modern western thought The authors argue that a more engaging form of RE would emerge if religious life were to inhabit centre stage Currently religious faith is made to hover in the wings awaiting the call to face the inquisitorial challenge of the modern day enquirer The consequent relationship between pupil and the Divine as the purpose of study is then already intrinsically irreligious as indicated in the Book of Job by putting God in the dock whereas it is the pupil who should be cross examining his or her life What are the ways of exciting and engaging the young so that they begin to entertain the possibility of religious life as a genuine option for themselves Leading scholars in philosophy and theology from the UK Australia Canada and the USA come together to address these questions together with RE experts Marius Felderhof writes an Afterword summing up the challenges faced by such a re visioning of RE

Religion Today Ross Aden,2012-10-18 Introduces students to key concepts in religious studies through a compelling problem solving framework This new textbook features the following dynamic case studies opening each chapter that teach critical thinking skills and engage students in contemporary religious issues such as the intersection of science and religion a wide range of examples from world religions throughout the text clear introductions to classic and contemporary theories of religion both Eastern and Western and chapter summaries that include essential concepts a list of key terms and questions for individual reflection or class discussion Religion today guides students in understanding the complex role that religion plays in the world while also building a solid foundation in both religious studies and problem solving skills

Issues in Religious Education Lynne Broadbent,Alan Brown,2004-11-23 This book is designed to give students and newly qualified teachers a contextual and theoretical background to this subject by exploring and challenging assumptions about the place of religion in education The book is divided into the following sections section one sets out the context for religious education in the curriculum It looks at political social and religious influences on legislation particularly in faith schools and raises questions about assessment section two focuses on Religious Education in the classroom exploring our understanding of religion and the concept of development in Religious Education section three examines Religious Education as a whole school issue considering its relationship to literacy citizenship collective worship and spiritual ethical and moral development

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matamba,Bruce A. Collet,2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education RE across the Global South Including 23

chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections The first three sections deal with provision response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE The next four sections explore young people and RE perspectives on teachers RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North but the concept is also examined in historical geographical political social and cultural terms including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions Exploring RE from local cross national as well as regional and sub regional perspectives the handbook examines RE from its diverse past present realities and envisioned future revealing not only tensions contestations injustices and inequalities of power but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems

International Journal of Nusantara Islam Hadrianus Tedjoworo, 2025-06-14 International Journal of Nusantara Islam is peer reviewed journal of Islamic studies This journal constitutes a collaborative publication between Postgraduate Program at State Islamic University Sunan Gunung Djati Bandung and Postgraduate Program at Academy for Islamic Studies University of Malaya under the MoU article 2 paragraph 1 point ii dated on January 24 2011

International Handbook of Inter-religious Education Kath Engebretson, Marian de Souza, Gloria Durka, Liam Gearon, 2010-08-17 This Handbook is based on the conviction of its editors and contributing authors that understanding and acceptance of as well as collaboration between religions has essential educational value The development of this Handbook rests on the further assumption that interreligious education has an important role in elucidating the global demand for human rights justice and peace Interreligious education reveals that the creeds and holy books of the world's religions teach about spiritual systems that reject violence and the individualistic pursuit of economic and political gain and call their followers to compassion for every human being It also seeks to lead students to an awareness that the followers of religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity
