Education, Engagement, and Youth Crime Cassandra Thoars, David Moltow, 2024-06-17 This book presents insights into how affective educational experiences may be associated with youth criminal behaviour and the pathway to recidivism It explores the perspectives and lived school experiences of five young adult male prison inmates including while they were incarcerated as youths Through these case studies the book explores the relationship between affective engagement in education and recidivism This book shows that participants were affectively disengaged from education prior to their initial incarceration in a youth detention facility and that their disaffection before during and after youth incarceration both generated and impacted on their cognitive and behavioural disengagement from education Moreover a range of additional factors not directly causally related to their schooling were shown to have had a significant effect on their engagement in education The book considers a number of key findings First the foundational role that a sense of belonging plays in how young people experience education and its relation to crime Second the importance of individualized transition plans for youth at risk and youth offenders before during and after incarceration Third the extent to which successful transition from youth offending and recidivism hinges on interagency collaboration This book will be beneficial to teacher educators education researchers criminologists and sociologists

Drug Problems Richard Isralowitz, Richard Rawson, Mohamed Afifi, 2002-01-30 Substance abuse and its social consequences are a major public concern for communities throughout the world The motivations and consequences are deeply imbedded within the social and political structures of all countries whether they be well established democracies or developing nations Every culture shapes the meaning of and responses to substances such as marijuana and heroin over time and across locations but the broader drug issue has become universal As the sphere of the problem expands the experiences and solutions of each nation become more relevant to other countries International concern over substance abuse has intensified as a result of the rise in production use and trafficking of illicit drugs all over the world Therefore the practical knowledge of policy development and abuse prevention and treatment strategies in the Middle East have increasing relevance for the rest of the world
