How Can Education Better Support the Mental Health & Wellbeing of Young People? Contributions From Developmental Psychopathology & Educational Effectiveness Research James Elliot Hall, Jana Marinka Kreppner, 2019-11-27 How can education better support the mental health wellbeing of young people Research in the 1970s that addressed this question has since proven seminal to the development of two co existing fields of research that continue to offer mutually informative insights Developmental Psychopathology DP and Educational Effectiveness Research EER DP and EER share the common agenda of understanding factors that relate to individuals learning and development DP focuses on the individual learning and developing in context EER investigates the educational systems structures and processes that shape how individuals learn and develop Given the complementarity of DP and EER it is somewhat surprising that they have rarely joined forces and synthesised knowledge to develop a fuller understanding of the roles educational contexts play in the mental health and wellbeing of students This Research Topic aims to stimulate such collaboration The Trauma-Sensitive Classroom Patricia A. Jennings, 2018-11-13 Selected as a Favorite Book for Educators in 2018 by Greater Good From the author of Mindfulness for Teachers a guide to supporting trauma exposed students Fully half the students in U S schools have experienced trauma violence or chronic stress In the face of this epidemic it falls increasingly to teachers to provide the adult support these students need to function in school But most educators have received little training to prepare them for this role In her new book Tish Jennings an internationally recognized leader in the field of social and emotional learning shares research and experiential knowledge about the practices that support students healing build their resilience and foster compassion in the classroom In Part I Jennings describes the effects of trauma on body and mind and how to recognize them in students behavior In Part II she introduces the trauma sensitive practices she has implemented in her work with schools And in Part III she connects the dots between mindfulness compassion and resilience Each chapter contains easy to use practical activities to hone the skills needed to create a compassionate learning environment Advancing research on inclusion and engagement in early childhood education and care (ECEC) with a special focus on children at risk and children with disabilities Eva Bjorck,Susana Castro-Kemp,Vera Coelho,2023-07-26 Discussions on Sensitive Issues

John Sutterby,2015-10-07 This volume contains chapters that invite conversations about sensitive issues to help educators children and families use real life experiences to construct knowledge about their world and other people Raising and Teaching Children for Their Tomorrows Albert H. Yee,2011-02 Why are mental developments during childhood so important to children s futures The leading premise of this book is that children s early life experiences forever shape their ability to learn think and conduct their adult lives International tests consistently disgrace the schooling and achievement of U S students The public is either unaware of the disaster or hasn t taken it seriously even though it s equivalent to the catastrophes of Pearl Harbor and 9 11 According to Wayne H Holtzman PhD Dean College of Education retired President Hogg Foundation for Mental Health retired The University of Texas at Austin Al s keen insight into the emotional socialization learning and creative thinking of a developing child in our ever more complex world is indeed impressive Any parent or teacher could profit from a careful reading of this thought provoking book Albert Yee EdD 1965 Stanford has served as a distinguished classroom teacher for seven years in California and 30 years as professor of psychology and education and academic dean in America and East Asia For his outstanding service and original research and publications he has been elected a Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science American Psychological Association American Psychological Society and Society for the Psychological Study of Social Issues Al is proud of his children s success and having raised them His daughter is a surgery professor specializing in breast cancer and his son is a State Dept Foreign Service Officer whose recent posts have been consul general in Greece and Director Provisional Reconstruction Teams in Afghanistan Trauma-Sensitive Literacy Instruction Rachelle S.
