Teaching Church Moving Christian Education To Center Stage:

The Teaching Church Eugene C. Roehlkepartain, 1993 Basics of Christian Education Karen Tye, 2000-01-01 Congregations are always struggling with what quality Christian education is and how to build and maintain it In this concise and easy to use guide Karen Tye offers practical help addressing the vital areas that need attention when planning for and building a Christian education program Questions and exercises at the end of each chapter help pastors Christian educators seminary students and laity apply the information to their own unique setting building on the basics to renew and transform Christian Education and the Emerging Church Rev. Dr. Wendi Sargeant, 2015-07-24 All signs Christian education point to Christian education having lost its theological location and prominence in the life of the Western Protestant church The Emerging Church movement as an intentionally postmodern approach to ministry in the contemporary context may however offer insights to reinterpret Christian education This significant movement in today s church gives Christian education a new interpretive framework that is theologically located at an intersection of doxology and doctrine In her examination of postmodern faith formation Wendi Sargeant explores the importance of the Christian worshipping community as the most appropriate setting for Christian education Practitioners and students will benefit from the ready to use teaching and learning matrix and all those with interest in the formation of faith in themselves and others will draw much from the way Sargeant situates worship as the basis for enhancing Christian formation and ethos Foundations for Christian Education Eleanor Ann Daniel, John William Wade, 1999 Here is an excellent resource for your Christian Education program Daniel and Wade discuss the foundations of an effective Christian Education program and tackle organizational and administrative issues involved with such a program You will also find age specific information for all ages of learners If you are a Christian Ed Director or a teacher who wants to better understand the elements of a C E program that will make a difference in the lives of the teachers and the students this is the book for you Creative Bible Teaching Lawrence O. Richards, Gary J. Bredfeldt, 2020-08-04 Bring the Bible to Your Students like Never Before Communicating the Scriptures is much like building a bridge However instead of ravines or rivers the teacher must span both cultural boundaries and great gulfs of time between the present and the pasts of Moses David Jesus and Paul Though God's Word is always relevant the teacher must help students see Scripture's vast treasures The effective engaging Bible teacher must therefore become creative Together Lawrence Richards and Gary Bredfeldt have created the ultimate guide to building bridges for those seeking to learn about God's Word Creative Bible Teaching offers a five step process by which Christian educators can construct a bridge across time geography and culture to help students of all ages connect with God's Word This newly revised edition makes learning about God's Word more accessible for both teachers and students today Simple clear and memorable the method laid out in Creative Bible Teaching provides a sure fire way of communicating God's Word in a way that sticks Learning in the Way Jeff Astley, 2000 Adult Christian learning is central to the life of the Christian church and is essential for its health outreach and very survival Leading Christian educators here apply the principles of Christian education to adult learning in the churches and present the results and methods of empirical research relevant to the church s ministry of adult Christian education This book will be of interest to all who are concerned for the ways in which adults learn to be Christian The editor Jeff Astley is Director of the North of England Institute for Christian Education and Honorary Professorial Fellow in Practical Theology and Christian Education in the University of Durham
