History of Multicultural Education: Foundations and Stratifications Carl A. Grant, Thandeka K. Chapman, 2008 This benchmark 6 volume set documents analyzes and critiques a comprehensive body of research on the history of multicultural education in the U S The volumes reflect the tenets of multicultural education its history its present and individuals whose work has contributed significantly to equity and social justice for all citizens By collecting and providing a framework for key publications spanning the last 30 40 years this set provides a means of understanding and visualizing the development implementation and interpretation of multicultural education in American society The volumes do not promote any one scholar s or group s vision of multicultural education but include conflicting ideals that inform multiple interpretations Each volume contains archival documents organized around a specific theme Conceptual Frameworks and Curricular Content Foundations and Stratifications Instruction and Assessment Policy and Governance Students and Student Achievement Teachers and Teacher Education The historical time line within each volume illustrates the progression of research and theory on its theme and encourages readers to reflect on the changes in language and thinking concerning educational scholarship in that area Transformative Ethnic Studies in Schools Christine E. Sleeter, Miguel Zavala, 2020 This timely and compelling book conceptualizes Ethnic Studies not only as a vehicle to transform and revitalize the school curriculum but also as a way to reinvent teaching Drawing on Sleeter s research review on the impact of Ethnic Studies commissioned by the National Education Association NEA the authors show how the traditional curriculum s Eurocentric view of the world affects diverse student populations The text highlights several contemporary exemplars of curricula from classroom level to district or state wide illustrating core concepts in Ethnic Studies across a variety of disciplines and grade levels A final chapter considers how research on P 12 ethnic studies can be conceptualized and conducted in ways that further both advocacy and program sustainability Transformative Ethnic Studies in Schools is essential reading for educators working to transform schools by rehumanizing learning spaces for all students Book Features Explores how the traditional curriculum is not ideologically neutral and the effect that has on both students of color and White students Situates Ethnic Studies within anti racist movements to decolonize schooling Illustrates the transformative potential of contemporary Ethnic

Studies projects Draws on the insights of Ethnic Studies teachers researchers and activists from across the United States Updates and expands on NEA s synthesis of the research on the academic and social value of Ethnic Studies Christine Sleeter and Miguel Zavala pull no punches in their approach to ethnic studies in education Despite the negative critiques of ethnic studies rooted in White supremacy and the politics of fear their contribution to critical thought and praxis is necessary and commendable Like many of our comrades in this struggle I rejoice in the fact that they remain undeterred and unafraid David Stovall University of Illinois at Chicago Improving Intergroup Relations Walter G. Stephan, Cookie White Stephan, 2001-07-27 This book is intended both as supplementary reading for courses and as a practical guidebook for individuals and programs interested in reducing prejudice and improving intergroup relations It provides the only comprehensive review and compilation of techniques of improving intergroup relations There s a huge amount of literature on the causes and nature of prejudice reflecting great interest in the topic but the literature on prejudice reduction is more scattered spread across a range of theoretical and applied sources This book brings these literatures together with an emphasis on helping to elucidate what works and why A Guide to Assessing Minority and Sex Role Stereotyping in Elementary and Secondary Schools Gordon P. Hanson, 1977 The Desegregation Literature National Institute of Education (U.S.). Desegregation Studies Staff, 1976 Qualitative Methods in Africana Studies James L. Conyers Jr., 2016-07-20 This survey of methodology provides a framework for understanding Africana Studies Correlating this book to research and writing in Africana Studies helps to extend the perplexity paradox and parley of social science and humanistic research This book attempts to answer what is Africana Studies with reference to an interdisciplinary body of knowledge Africana Studies is the global Pan Africanist study of African phenomena interpreted from an Afrocentric perspective Among those scholars who contribute to this interdisciplinary body of knowledge perspective signals the commonality in the school of thought This book offers general definitions and descriptions of the qualitative and quantitative research

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusive Education: A Voice from the Margins C.P. Gause, 2011-07-23 The United States is more ideologically philosophically culturally linguistically racially and ethnically diverse than she has been in any given point in her history however many of her citizens are currently living in a state of fear What stands out the most is how we allow this fear to take over our lives in multiple ways We fear our neighbors therefore we do not engage them We fear young people and the way they look therefore we do not have conversations with them We fear the possibility of terrorists attacks therefore we utilize eavesdropping and surveillance devices on our citizens There are some of us who fear the lost of gun rights therefore we stockpile weapons We fear anything that is different from who we are and what we believe This nation has at many points within our history become more united because of our fear however as our borders physical and virtual become less protective and the opportunities to connect more via the digital world expand we must educate our citizenry to not live in fear but in hope To teach learn and lead democratically requires the individual to engage in problem posing and in critiquing taken for granted narratives of power and privilege Critical change occurs with significant self sacrifice potential alienation rejection and costly consequences Educators must do justice to the larger social public and institutional responsibility of our positions and we must exercise courage in creating opportunities for change Diversity Equity and Inclusive Education A Voice from the Margins provides the space and opportunity to move beyond a state of fear into a state of organic transformation a place where fear creates the energy to speak those things that are not as though they were

On the Nature of Prejudice John F. Dovidio, Peter Glick, Laurie A. Rudman, 2008-04-15 On the Nature of Prejudice commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the publication of Gordon Allport's classic work on prejudice and discrimination by examining the current state of knowledge in the field A distinguished collection of international scholars considers Allport's impact on the field reviews recent developments and identifies promising directions for future investigation Organized around Allport's central themes this book provides a state of the art comprehensive view of where the field has been where it is now and where it is going Developing the Multicultural Process in Classroom Instruction Prentice H.
