Salomone, 2010-03-30

How can schools meet the needs of an increasingly diverse population of newcomers Do bilingual programs help children transition into American life or do they keep them in a linguistic ghetto Are immigrants who maintain their native language uninterested in being American or are they committed to changing what it means to be American In this ambitious book Rosemary Salomone uses the heated debate over how best to educate immigrant children as a way to explore what national identity means in an age of globalization transnationalism and dual citizenship She demolishes popular myths that bilingualism impedes academic success that English is under threat in contemporary America that immigrants are reluctant to learn English or that the ancestors of today's assimilated Americans had all to gain and nothing to lose in abandoning their family language She lucidly reveals the little known legislative history of bilingual education its dizzying range of meanings in different schools districts and states and the difficulty in proving or disproving whether it works or defining it as a legal right In eye opening comparisons Salomone suggests that the simultaneous spread of English and the push toward multilingualism in western Europe offer economic and political advantages from which the U S could learn She argues eloquently that multilingualism can and should be part of a meaningful education and responsible national citizenship in a globalized world

The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World Martin J. Ball, Rajend Mesthrie, Chiara Meluzzi, 2023-07-28 Drawing on examples from a wide range of languages and social settings The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World was originally the first single volume collection surveying the current research trends in international sociolinguistics This new edition has been comprehensively updated and significantly expanded and now includes more than 50 chapters written by leading authorities and a brand new substantial introduction by John Edwards Coverage has been expanded regionally and there is a critical focus on Indigenous languages This handbook remains a key tool to help widen the perspective on sociolinguistics to readers interested in the field Divided into sections covering the Americas Asia Australasia Africa and Europe the book provides readers with a solid up to date appreciation of the interdisciplinary nature of the field of sociolinguistics in each area It clearly explains the patterns and systematicity that underlie language variation in use along with the ways in which alternations between different language varieties mark personal style social power and national identity The Routledge Handbook of Sociolinguistics Around the World is the ideal resource for all students in undergraduate sociolinguistics courses and for researchers involved in the study of language society and power

Globalisation, Ideology and Politics of Education Reforms Joseph Zajda, 2015-10-09 This 14th volume in the 24 volume book series sets out to explore the interrelationship between ideology the state and education reforms placing it in a global context It examines some of the major education reforms and policy issues in a global culture particularly in the light of recent shifts in accountability quality and standards driven education and policy research By doing so it provides a comprehensive picture of the intersecting and diverse discourses of globalisation and policy driven reforms in education The book draws upon recent studies in the areas of globalisation equality and the role of the state It explores conceptual frameworks and methodological approaches applicable in the research covering the state globalisation and education reforms It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that shifts in the relationship between the state and education policy affect current trends in education reforms and schooling globally Individual chapters critically assess the dominant discourses and debates on education and policy reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and democracy and examine both the reasons and outcomes of education reforms and policy change They provide an informed critique of models of accountability quality and standards driven education reforms that are informed by Western dominant ideologies and social values The book also draws upon recent studies in the areas of equity cultural capital and dominant ideologies in education

Teaching and Learning Third Languages Francesca D'Angelo, 2023-03-21 This book contributes to emerging research on third language acquisition TLA and pinpoints the main factors characterising TLA as a different process and area of study from second language acquisition Moving beyond the dichotomous conception of monolingualism and bilingualism it proposes a holistic and interdisciplinary approach to studying acquisition of a third or additional language It presents readers with a practical guide to understanding how these languages are processed learned and taught and addresses the cognitive linguistic and affective factors which make multilingual learning and teaching a complex and unique phenomenon It also emphasises the important role of teachers as knowledge generators Through various examples of multilingual education practices it highlights how fundamental teachers are as bridges between education and research on multilingualism This book will appeal to postgraduate students teacher trainers and researchers in the fields of multilingual education and cognitive linguistics

Multilingualism in European Language Education Cecilio Lapresta-Rey, Ángel Huguet, 2019-05-09 This book explores how different European education systems manage multilingualism Each chapter focuses on one of ten diverse settings Andorra Asturias the Basque Country Catalonia England Finland France Latvia the Netherlands and Romania and considers how its education system is influenced by historical sociolinguistic and legislative and political processes and how languages are handled within the system stressing the challenges and opportunities in each area of study The chapters provide the reader with insights around three key aspects the management of the guarantee of the rights of regional language minorities the incorporation of the language background inherited by immigrants living in Europe whether they are European citizens or not and the need to promote the learning of international languages Individually the chapters offer deep insights into a specific education system and together the studies allow for a comparison and holistic understanding of multilingualism in European education

Foreign Language Education in Multilingual Classrooms Andreas Bonnet, Peter Siemund, 2018-10-15 This volume challenges traditional approaches to foreign language education and proposes to redefine them in our age of international migration and globalization Foreign language classrooms are no longer populated by monolingual students but increasingly by multilingual students with highly diverse language backgrounds This necessitates a new understanding of foreign language learning and teaching The volume brings together an international group of researchers of high caliber who specialize in third language acquisition teaching English as an additional language and multilingual education In addition to topical overview articles on the multilingual policies pursued in Europe Africa North America and Asia as well as several contributions dealing with theoretical issues regarding multilingualism and plurilingualism the volume also offers cutting edge case studies from multilingual acquisition research and foreign language classroom practice Throughout the volume multilingualism is interpreted as a valuable resource that can facilitate language education provided it is harnessed in appropriate conditions

International Handbook of Virtual Learning Environments Joel Weiss, Jason Nolan, Jeremy Hunsinger, Peter Trifonas, 2007-11-24 Three issues are explored and used as organizers for The International Handbook of Virtual Learning Environments First a distinction is made between virtual learning and learning virtually Second since the focus is on learning an educational framework is developed as a means of bringing coherence to the available literature Third learning is defined broadly as a process of knowledge creation for transforming experience to reflect different facets of the curriculum of life The Handbook is divided into four sections Foundations of Virtual Learning Environments Schooling Professional Learning and Knowledge Management Out of School Learning Environments and Challenges for Virtual Learning Environments A variety of chapters representing different academic and professional fields are included These chapters cover topics ranging from philosophical perspectives historical sociological political and educational analyses case studies from practical and research settings as well as several provocative classics originally published in other settings Routledge International Companion to Education Miriam Ben-Peretz, Sally Brown, Bob Moon, 2004-04-28 The Routledge International Companion to Education aims to address the key issues underpinning the rethinking and restructuring of education at the beginning of the new millennium The Language Question in Europe and Diverse Societies Dario Castiglione, Christopher Longman, 2007-03-12 Recent developments in the European integration process have raised amongst many other things the issue of linguistic diversity for some a stumbling block to the creation of a European democratic polity and its legal and social institutions The solution to the question of language involves an understanding of the role played by natural languages and the consequent design of policies and institutional mechanisms to facilitate inter linguistic and intercultural communication This is not an exclusively European problem and nor is it entirely new for it is also the problem of linguistic majorities and minorities within unitary nation states However the effects of globalization and the diffusion of multiculturalism within nation states have given renewed emphasis to the question of language in diverse societies Facing the question anew involves reconsidering traditional ideas about social communication and the public sphere about opinion formation and diffusion about the protection of cultural and linguistic minorities and about the role that language plays in the process of formation of political and legal cultures This volume is intended as a multidisciplinary contribution towards studying and assessing the range of problems that form the language question in Europe and diverse societies Parliamentary Assembly Official Report of Debates 1998 Ordinary session (Fourth part, volume IV), 2125 September 1998 Council of Europe, Multilingual Europe Guus Extra, Durk Gorter, 2008-12-10 This book offers an inclusive perspective on the constellation of languages in Europe by taking into account official state languages regional minority languages and immigrant minority languages Although celebrating linguistic diversity is one of the key propositions in the European discourse on multilingualism and language policies this device holds for these three types of languages in a decreasing order All three types of languages however are constituent parts of a multilingual European identity and should be taken into account in any type of language policy Both facts and policies on multilingualism and plurilingual education are addressed in case studies at the national and European level The selection of case studies is based on a careful weighing of geographical spread of countries and languages across Europe on the one hand and availability of established expert knowledge on the other After an Introduction to the theme of the book Guus Extra and Durk Gorter Part I deals with official state languages with a focus on the spread of English as lingua franca across Europe Juliane House on French and France Dennis Ager on Polish in Poland and abroad Justyna Lesniew ka and on language constellations in the Baltic States Gabrielle Hogan Brun Part II deals with regional minority languages with a focus on Catalan in Spain Francesc Xavier Vila i Moreno Frisian in the Netherlands Durk Gorter et al Hungarian as a minority language in Central Europe Susan Gal and Saami in the Nordic countries Mikael Svonni Part III

deals with immigrant minority languages in the United Kingdom Viv Edwards Sweden Lilian Nygren Junkin Italy Monica Barni and Carla Bagna and Europe at large Guus Extra and Kutlay Ya mur Schools for the Future Europe John Sayer, Lynn Erler, 2012-03-08 Schools for the Future Europe brings together a team of leading academics policy makers and education professionals to explore the emergence development and application of European education policy up to the 2009 Lisbon Treaty and beyond The book charts the historical development of a Europe wide education policy and examines how that policy has sought to address such issues as European citizenship human rights and bilingual schooling Taking as examples the intended future extension of the European Schools and the European Baccalaureate and a case study of work towards the first British European Academy or Free School at Culham UK the book critically explores the interplay of EU action programmes policy and rhetoric on secondary education In the final section the editors draw on the insights of the previous chapters to outline an achievable programme for the future development of education policy structures and practice in schools for Europe

Guide for the linguistic inclusion of migrants Lorna Carson, 2022-06-01 Designed to create tangible materials which support the demands of this context the INCLUDEED Erasmus project aims to integrate migrants and refugees through one of Europe s greatest assets their languages This guide aims to become an ally of both those who wish to deepen their knowledge of the migration phenomenon and those who wish to facilitate the integration process of these groups Developed from the experience that the Universities of the consortium have in this field University of Salamanca University of Bologna University of Coimbra University of Heidelberg University of Poitiers and Trinity College Dublin this document emanates from a common effort as well as from the will to form an egalitarian society in terms of integration However this would not have been possible without the support of various non governmental organisations Red Cross ACCEM CEPAIM Foundation and Sierra Pambley Foundation which dedicated to the reception and integration of migrants and refugees throughout Europe have facilitated the identification of difficulties and enabled bridges to be built between different perspectives and joint efforts to converge in the same direction This guide addresses the various challenges that emerge during the integration period of these groups and proposes solutions that can help this complex process to be successful Designed as a useful vade mecum for the performance of the tasks of the various groups language teaching professionals or volunteers non governmental organisations and national and supranational public institutions it is a support tool that guides the actions of those involved in the process of linguistic integration of newly arrived people It provides them with a better understanding of the situation in which these groups find themselves and of the tools available to achieve this In short it is a document that seeks to bring together through informative but rigorous text the theoretical advances in this field and to offer various resources that can be put into practice in real life Finally we would like to emphasise that the contents of this guide should be understood as suggestions arising from the experience and commitment of those who have worked on its development and as a tool that will help to answer some of the questions that arise in the process of integration of migrant groups These questions are currently being answered thanks to the committed engagement of all those who are participating in this project In addition information from all the countries in the consortium can be found throughout these pages which broadens the perspective of most of the tools created so far making this guide truly an international reference work
