Faith, Health, and Healing in African American Life Stephanie Y. Mitchem, Emilie M. Townes, 2008-08-30 Black Americans are more likely than Whites to die of cancer and heart disease more likely to get diabetes and asthma and less likely to get preventive care and screening Some of this greater morbidity results from education income level and environment as well as access to health care But the traditional medical model does not always allow for a more holistic approach that takes into account the body the mind the spirit the family and the community This book offers a better understanding of the varieties of religiously based approaches to healing and alternative models of healing and health found in Black communities in the United States Contributors address the communal aspects of faith and health and explore the contexts in which individuals make choices about their health the roles that institutions play in shaping these decisions and the practices individuals engage in seeking better health or coping with the health they have By paying attention to the role of faith spirit and health this book offers a fuller sense of the varieties of ways Black health and health care are perceived and addressed from an inter religious perspective Community and religion based initiatives have emerged as one key way to address the health challenges found in the African American community In cities such as Atlanta Baltimore Dallas and Oakland residents organize exercise groups teach one another how to cook with healthy ingredients and encourage neighbors to get regular checkups Churches have become key sites for health education screening and testing Another set of responses to the challenge of Black health and healthcare in the United States comes from those who emphasize the body as a whole body mind soul and spirit often drawing on religious traditions such as Islam and African based religions such as Spiritism Santeria Vodun aka Voodoo Candombl and others Understanding the issues and the various approaches is essential to combating the problems and this unique volume sheds light on areas often overlooked when considering the issues

Prophet from the South Prince Dibeela, Puleng Lenka-Bula, Vuyani Vellem, 2014-08-01 Allan Boesak was one of the foremost leaders in the struggle against apartheid His role in the church in South Africa internationally and in the United Democratic Front contributed significantly to the demise of apartheid He championed the rights of the oppressed and became the representative voice of the poor and disadvantaged Allan is a gifted preacher teacher theologian writer and an orator blessed with poetic tendencies and a flourishing vocabulary He has the natural ability to inspire motivate and stimulate critical and analytical thinking and responses where globalisation threatens to be a new form of colonisation He has eloquently championed the cause of economic justice justice for the earth gender justice and the struggle against homophobia in the church His voice is a voice we urgently need to hear again in this era The Black Church and Hip Hop Culture Emmett G. Price III, 2011-11-10 Throughout the 1950s and 1960s the Black Church stood as the stronghold of the Black Community fighting for equality and economic self sufficiency and challenging its body to be self determined and self aware Hip Hop Culture grew from disenfranchised urban youth who felt that they had no support system or resources Impassioned with the same urgent desires for survival and hope that their parents and grandparents had carried these youth forged their way from the bottom of America's belly one rhyme at a time For many young people Hip Hop Culture is a supplement or even an alternative to the weekly dose of Sunday morning faith In this collection of provocative essays leading thinkers preachers and scholars from around the country confront both the Black Church and the Hip Hop Generation to realize their shared responsibilities to one another and the greater society Arranged into three sections this volume addresses key issues in the debate between two of the most significant institutions of Black Culture The first part From Civil Rights to Hip Hop explores the transition from one generation to another through the transmission or lack thereof of legacy and heritage Part II Hip Hop Culture and the Black Church in Dialogue explores the numerous ways in which the conversation is already occurring from sermons to theoretical examinations and spiritual ponderings Part III Gospel Rap Holy Hip Hop and the Hip Hop Matrix clarifies the perspectives and insights of practitioners scholars and activists who explore various expressions of faith and the diversity of locations where these expressions take place In The Black Church and Hip Hop Culture pastors ministers theologians educators and laypersons wrestle with the duties of providing timely commentary critical analysis and in some cases practical strategies toward forgiveness healing restoration and reconciliation With inspiring reflections and empowering discourse this collection demonstrates why and how the Black Church must re engage in the lives of those who comprise the Hip Hop Generation Spirituals Kathleen A. Abromeit, 2015-01-01 Spirituals originated among enslaved Africans in America during the colonial era They resonate throughout African American history from that time to the civil rights movement from the cotton fields to the concert stage and influenced everything from gospel music to blues and rap They have offered solace in times of suffering served as clandestine signals on the Underground Railroad and been a source of celebration and religious inspiration Spirituals are born from the womb of African American experience yet they transcend national disciplinary and linguistic boundaries as they connect music theology literature and poetry history society and education In doing so they reach every aspect of human experience To make sense of the immense impact spirituals have made on music culture and society this bibliography cites writings from a multidisciplinary perspective This annotated bibliography documents articles books and dissertations published since 1902 Of those 150 are books 80 are chapters within books 615 are journal articles and 150 are dissertations along with a selection of highly significant items published before 1920 The most recent publications included date from early 2014 Disciplines researched include music literature and poetry American history religion and African American Studies Items included in the annotated bibliography are limited to English language sources that were published in the United States and focus on African American spirituals in the United States but there are a few select citations that focus on spirituals outside of the United States Of the one thousand annotations they are divided roughly evenly between general studies and geographical studies information about early spirituals use of spirituals in art music church music and popular music composers who based music on spirituals performers of spirituals ensembles and individuals Bible theology and religious education literature and poetry pedagogical considerations including the teaching of spirituals as well as prominent educators reference works and a list of resources that were unavailable for review but are potentially useful This book also offers considerable depth on particular topics such as the Fisk Jubilee Singers and William Grant Still with over thirty citations devoted to each At the same time materials included are quite diverse with topics such as spirituals in Zora Neale Hurston's novels bible studies based on spirituals enriching the teaching of geography through spirituals Marian Anderson's historic concert at the Lincoln Memorial spiritual roots of rap teaching dialect to singers expressing African American religion in spirituals Samuel Coleridge Taylor's music slave tradition of singing among the Gullah The book contains indices by author subject and spiritual title Additionally an appendix of spirituals by biblical reference listing both spiritual title to scriptural reference as well as scripture to spiritual title is included T L Collins Christian educator compiled the appendix Black Theology--Essays on Global Perspectives Dwight N. Hopkins, 2017-06-15 Since its start in 1966 black liberation theology in the United States has continually engaged international developments with Africa and the entire world But after Nelson Mandela was released from prison in February 1990 there has been an almost twenty year break in books on black theology and international affairs Black Theology Essays on Global Perspectives bridges that post 1990 gap and makes a vital contact with Africa again This book conceptualizes black theology to take on the global reconfigurations and opportunities brought about by the rapidly shrinking earth of fast paced worldwide contacts In other words in the specificity of the genealogy of black theology we need to reforge ties with Africa This claim is based on tradition And in the generality of the larger worldwide intertwining of technologies and economics we need a new type of black theological leadership for the twenty first century This claim is based on today s international challenges The essays in this book draw on tradition and point forward in the midst of today s worldwide challenges and favorable possibilities given the closeness of all nations and the varieties of cultures

Guidance: An Adult Study For The Lenten Season Edwin Aponte, The Africana Bible, Second Edition Valerie Bridgeman, Stacy Davis, Cheryl A. Kirk-Duggan, Madipoane Masenya (Ngwanjira Mphahlele), Rodney S. Sadler Jr., 2024-10-22 A landmark volume The Africana Bible gathers multicultural and interdisciplinary perspectives on the Hebrew Bible It opens a critical window into the world of interpretation on the African continent and in the multiple diasporas of African peoples including the African American experience with attention to Africana histories literatures cultures and backgrounds for understanding biblical literature The Africana Bible Second Edition features an updated critical commentary on each book of the Hebrew Bible the Apocrypha and the Pseudepigrapha that is authoritative for many in African and African diaspora communities worldwide It highlights issues of concern to the global Black community such as globalization and the colonial legacy and the distinctive norms of interpretation in African and African diaspora settings

Black Women and Breast Cancer Elizabeth A. Williams, 2018-11-16 Christian theology at its core is a story about someone being in trouble In response to this trouble the triune God intervenes God identifies with those in trouble walking with them through the experience Yet the God of Christian theology goes a step further God prevails over trouble God is an overcomer Black women with breast cancer identify with this God They also see themselves in this theological narrative They see themselves in the midst of troubles troubles like racism poverty and environmental exposures that create the disease affecting their bodies They see the troubles of breast cancer their biological disposition towards more aggressive cancers later stage diagnoses poorer prognoses diminished quality of care and worse outcomes Black women also palpably feel the troubles breast cancer brings like fear physical disfigurement social isolation being stereotyped for treatment decisions abandonment and even death Black women feel the myriad troubles breast cancer brings But Black women also know God in their troubles They know an active God who identifies with and prioritizes their needs They know this God through scripture and experience as God who puts them front and center And because they know God as an overcomer and creative force they know themselves as overcomers For with God their troubles do not last always Black women with breast cancer construct a cultural theology of breast cancer out of knowing God Borne out of experiences of the Black Church womanist theology and their intersectional identities of race class and gender this theological investigation informed by anthropology examines how Black women construct an ontology of who God is and how God operates and gain a God consciousness that shapes their response to the disease Using pain faith and testimony as tools to struggle against breast cancer Black survivors theology transforms them from victims of breast cancer to change agents Out of their lives as survivors comes a theology of complex hope one cognizant of Black women s breast cancer disparities yet oriented towards Black women s achievement of health in the present and the future a sufficient hope to sustain Black women through it all The African Diaspora and the Study of Religion T. Trost, 2007-12-25 This book focuses on the location of the religious heritage of Africa within the academic study of religion including indigenous African religions African Christianities African American forms of Islam the religions of African Americans Afro Caribbean religions and Afro Brazilian religions Holy Hip Hop in the City of Angels Christina Zanfagna, 2017-08-29 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press s Open Access publishing program for monographs Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more In the 1990s Los Angeles was home to numerous radical social and environmental eruptions In the face of several major earthquakes and floods riots and economic insecurity police brutality and mass incarceration some young black Angelenos turned to holy hip hop a movement merging Christianity and hip hop culture to save themselves and the city Converting street corners to open air churches and gangsta rap beats into anthems of praise holy hip hoppers used gospel rap to navigate complicated social and spiritual realities and to transform the Southland s fractured terrains into musical Zions Armed with beats rhymes and bibles they journeyed through black Lutheran congregations prison ministries African churches reggae dancehalls hip hop clubs Nation of Islam meetings and Black Lives Matter marches Zanfagna s fascinating ethnography provides a contemporary and unique view of black LA offering a much needed perspective on how music and religion intertwine in people s everyday experiences Religion in the Kitchen Elizabeth Pérez, 2016-02-16 Honorable Mention 2019 Barbara T Christian Literary Award given by the Caribbean Studies Association Winner 2017 Clifford Geertz Prize in the Anthropology of Religion presented by the Society for the Anthropology of Religion section of the American Anthropological Association Finalist 2017 Albert J Raboteau Prize for the Best Book in Africana Religions presented by the Journal of Africana Religions An examination of the religious importance of food among Caribbean and Latin American communities Before honey can be offered to the Afro Cuban deity Och n it must be tasted to prove to her that it is good In African inspired religions throughout the Caribbean Latin America and the United States such gestures instill the attitudes that turn participants into practitioners Acquiring deep knowledge of the diets of the gods and ancestors constructs adherents identities to learn to fix the gods favorite dishes is to be seasoned into their service In this innovative work Elizabeth P rez reveals how seemingly trivial micropractices such as the preparation of sacred foods are complex rituals in their own right Drawing on years of ethnographic research in Chicago among practitioners of Lucum the transnational tradition popularly known as Santería a P rez focuses on the behind the scenes work of the primarily women and gay men responsible for feeding the gods She reveals how cooking and talking around the kitchen table have played vital socializing roles in Black Atlantic religions Entering the world of divine desires and the varied flavors that speak to them this volume takes a fresh approach to the anthropology of religion Its richly textured portrait of a predominantly African American Lucum community reconceptualizes race gender sexuality and affect in the formation of religious identity proposing that every religion coalesces and sustains itself through its own secret recipe of micropractices Being Black, Teaching Black Nancy Lynne Westfield,2010-10-01 In this volume a group of eminent African American scholars of religious and theological studies examine the problems and prospects of black scholarship in the theological academy They assess the role that prominent black scholars have played in transforming the study and teaching of religion and theology the need for a more thorough going incorporation of the fruits of black scholarship into the mainstream of the academic study of religion and the challenges and opportunities of bringing black art black intellectual thought and black culture into predominantly white classrooms and institutions Teaching Critical Religious Studies Jenna Gray-Hildenbrand,Beverley McGuire,Hussein Rashid,2022-08-11 Are you teaching religious studies in the best way possible Do you inadvertently offer simplistic understandings of religion to undergraduate students only to then unpick them at advanced levels This book presents case studies of teaching methods that integrate student learning classroom experiences and disciplinary critiques It shows how critiques of the scholarship of religious studies including but not limited to the World Religions paradigm Christian normativity Orientalism colonialism race gender sexuality and class can be effectively integrated into all courses especially at an introductory level Integrating advanced critiques from religious studies into actual pedagogical practices this book offers ways for scholars to rethink their courses to be more reflective of the state of the field This is essential reading for all scholars in religious studies The Trickster Comes West Babacar M'baye,2010-02-11 In the past scholars have looked at narratives of the African diaspora only to discover how these memoirs poems and fictions related to the West The Trickster Comes West Pan African Influence in Early Black Diasporan Narratives explores relationships among African American Afro Caribbean and Afro British narratives of slavery and of New World and British oppression and what African influences brought to these diasporic expressions Using an interdisciplinary method that combines history literary theory cultural studies anthropology folklore and philosophy the book examines the work of Pan African trickster icons such as Leuk Rabbit Golo Monkey Bouki Hyena Mbe Tortoise and Anancy Spider on the resistance strategies of early black writers who were exposing the evils of slavery racism sexism economic exploitation and other forms of oppression Works discussed in this book include Phillis Wheatley s Poems on Various Subjects Religious and Moral 1773 Quobna Ottobah Cugoano s Thoughts and Sentiments on the Evil of Slavery 1787 Olaudah Equiano s The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano 1795 Elizabeth Hart Thwaites s History of Methodism 1804 Anne Hart Gilbert s History of Methodism 1804 and Mary Prince s The History of Mary Prince A West Indian Slave Related By Herself 1831 Analyzing these writings in the context of the black

Atlantic struggle for freedom The Trickster Comes West relocates the beginnings of Pan Africanism and suggests the strong influence of its theories of communal resistance racial solidarity and economic development on pioneering black narratives
