Teaching the Arts in the Primary Curriculum Susan Ogier, Suzy Tutchell, 2021-05-12 Learning in the arts does not fit in with simple conventional methodologies for teaching and assessing in the traditional sense but it has an immense power to transform children's understanding of the world around them and their lives Many jobs currently and of the future will demand the skills that learning in the arts will develop This book brings Arts Education sharply into focus as a meaningful learning experience for children of pre school and primary age 3-11 years It reinforces the potential for the wide range of physical mental and emotional development through learning opportunities that engagement in arts practice facilitates Provides insight into how teachers can support children to consider contemporary challenges that face their generation Includes expert voices from the world of education to demonstrate an expansive and perhaps surprising view of where and how the Arts can be found Shows how we can bring the arts so easily into our curriculum and into our classrooms Art Teaching George Szekely, Julie Alsip roles of an artist and a teacher through a re framing of the teacher of art as an artist teacher or a teaching artist The foreword by Art Education Australia Art Education Victoria and the introduction by the curator explores the term teaching artist within the context of the exhibition that teaching artists boast a hybrid identity fusing the roles of teacher and artist an identity that conflates two distinct professions and is successful because the artist teacher brings practitioner skills in both professions

Why Art Cannot Be Taught James Elkins, 2001-05-17 He also addresses the phenomenon of art critiques as a microcosm for teaching art as a whole and dissects real life critiques highlighting presuppositions and dynamics that make them confusing and suggesting ways to make them more helpful Elkins s no nonsense approach clears away the assumptions about art instruction that are not borne out by classroom practice For example he notes that despite much talk about instilling visual acuity and teaching technique in practice neither teachers nor students behave as if those were their principal goals He addresses the absurdity of pretending that sexual issues are absent from life drawing classes and questions the practice of holding up great masters and masterpieces as models for students capable of producing only mediocre art He also discusses types of art including art that takes time to complete and art that isn t serious that cannot be learned in studio art classes
