Aspects of Nursing Care and Teaching

Nursing care and teaching are two aspects that significantly vary in nursing practice. The problem statement in this article is to identify how theories taught in class influence nurses' provision of care concerning evidence and experience. The article identifies those nurses use different approaches when providing nursing care. Some nurses use experience-based approaches, and others utilize evidence-based models in care provision. The effectiveness of each model is questioned, especially in how they relate to the nursing curriculum, which is theory-based, as discussed in Martinez-Linares et al. (2019) article titled "Assessment of Nursing Care an...
