Proactive Marketing for the New and Experienced Library Director Melissa U.D. Goldsmith, Anthony J. Fonseca, 2014-08-26 Academic libraries have continually looked for technological solutions to low circulation statistics under usage by students and faculty and what is perceived as a crisis in relevance seeing themselves in competition with Google and Wikipedia Academic libraries however are as relevant as they have been historically as their primary functions within their university missions have not changed but merely evolved Going beyond the Gate Count argues that the problem is not relevance but marketing and articulation This book offers theoretical reasoning and practical advice to directors on how to better market the function of the library within and beyond the home institution The aim of this text is to help directors and ultimately their librarians and staff get students and faculty back into the library as a result of better articulation of the library's importance The first chapter explores the promotion of academic libraries and their function as educational systems The next two chapters focus on the importance of the role social media and virtual presence in the academic library and engaging and encouraging students to use the library through a variety of methods such as visually oriented special collections Remaining chapters discuss collaboration and collegiality formalized reporting and marketing Offers clear concise writing with thoughtful discussions of the problems facing academic libraries Demonstrates comprehensive and thoughtful research that informs theoretical approaches to realistic outcomes that address these problems Provides helpful tables illustrations and photographs that evidence the collaborative nature of contemporary academic libraries Provides practical examples from actual experiences that can be adapted by readers

Standards-Based Lesson Plans for the Busy Elementary School Librarian Joyce Keeling, 2017-04-17 This helpful resource provides all new tested standard based lessons accompanied by reproducible handouts and easy to follow directions A new book by Joyce Keeling an elementary librarian and teacher with more than two decades experience Standards Based Lesson Plans for the Busy Elementary School Librarian presents many integrated lesson plans for students in each of the elementary grades kindergarten through 5th grade All lessons have been tested and refined in a school setting and they are specifically written to match the AASL Information Literacy Standards the McREL Compendium of Standards and Benchmarks and the Common Core State Standards In addition to the reproducible lesson plan worksheets the book offers in depth discussion of how best to collaborate to teach information literacy within the scope of common elementary school curricula

Library User Education Barbara I. Dewey, 2002-05-09 Material presented here is replete with concrete new ideas not only for collaboration but also for funding training personal involvement Web based instruction and other concepts too numerous to mention And the best thing about these ideas is that they are not the usual endlessly discussed theories these are ideas that have worked and some which have failed in the real world Despite the myriad new works available today related to library instruction in general and information literacy in particular none is devoted solely to collaborative efforts between teaching faculty and librarians This is where Library User Education Powerful Learning Powerful Partnerships shines just as in the real world it s all about collaboration Angela Weiler Portal Library Services Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Education and Labor,1962 Considers legislation to expand Library Services Act programs to include public and elementary schools certain colleges and universities and neighborhoods with inadequate public library facilities
