representations themselves but on the marketing of the films production histories and in particular their use of Asian locations Roan demonstrates this point in relation to a wide range of productions offering an engaging and useful survey of a largely neglected body of film Not only that by focusing on the material practices involved in shooting films on location that is the actual travels negotiations and labor of making a film she moves beyond formal analysis to produce a richly detailed history of American interests attitudes and cultural practices during the first half of the twentieth century Jeanette Roan is Adjunct Professor of Visual Studies at California College of the Arts and author of Exotic Explorations Travels to Asia and the Pacific in Early Cinema in Re collecting Early Asian America Essays in Cultural History 2002 Cover art Publicity still Tokyo File 212 Dorrell McGowan and Stuart McGowan 1951 The accompanying text reads Hundreds of spectators gather on the sidelines as technicians prepare to photograph a parade scene in Tokyo File 212 a Breakston McGowan Production filmed in Japan for RKO Radio distribution Courtesy of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences
