Team 10 Primer Alison Smithson, 1968 A collection of essays articles and diagrams representing the vision of the Team 10 architects younger European architects who broke away from Le Corbusier Gropius and Oud because they felt tha tthe older modern architects were too rigid and doctrinaire in their approach to design especially in the area of housing Team 10 Primer Alison Margaret Smithson, 1968 10 Primer Alison Margaret Smithson, 1962 Team 10 Primer Team Team 10 Primer with Additional Reprints from ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN. Alison Margaret Smithson.ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN [PERIODICAL]... Team 10 Primer Alison Margaret Smithson, 1965 Architecture Annual 2005-2006. Delft University of Technology, 2007 The CIAM Discourse on Urbanism, 1928-1960 Eric Paul Mumford, 2002 The first history of the Congres Internationaux d Architecture Moderne traces the development and promotion of its influential concept of the Functional City Team 10 Primer ,1966 Aldo Van Evck Robert McCarter, 2015-01-01 Robert McCarter provides a comprehensive study of Aldo van Eyck s 50 year career guiding readers through the architect's buildings and unrealised projects with a focus on the interior spatial experience as well as the design and construction processes He investigates how van Eyck's writings and lectures convey the importance of architecture in the everyday lives of people around the world and throughout history and by presenting the architect's design work together with the principles on which it was founded illuminates van Eyck's ethical interpretation of architecture's place in the world

The Politics of Making Mark Swenarton, Igea Troiani, Helena Webster, 2013-04-15 A unique collection of contemporary writings this book explores the politics involved in the making and experiencing of architecture and cities from a cross cultural and global perspective Taking a broad view of the word politics the essays address a range of guestions including What is the relationship between politics and the making of space What role has theory played in reinforcing or resisting political power What are the political difficulties associated with working relationships Do the products of our making construct our identity or liberate us A timely volume focusing on an interdisciplinary debate on the politics of making this is valuable reading for all students professionals and academics interested or working in architectural theory Team 10 Primer with Additional Reprints from Various Issues of Architectural Design Alison Margaret Smithson, 1965 The Life and Work of Jerzy Soltan Szymon Ruszczewski, 2023-12-11 This book is the first comprehensive monograph on Polish modern architect Jerzy So tan's work including his designs theory and teachings in Poland and America based on extensive archival research and oral history interviews with former students The Life and Work of Jerzy So tan takes the reader on a journey to both sides of the iron curtain the communist Poland and the capitalist United States contributing to the existing scholarship on modernism in post socialist counties on CIAM and on Team 10 It pictures So tan as a central player in the history of modernism building on his own contribution and on close relationships with Le Corbusier and Team 10 This book illustrates not only So tan's work but also his life and how it influenced twentieth century architecture Looking in detail at his designs and texts enables the reader to discover how modern architecture tendencies can fit into a larger geopolitical context and how designs can be true manifestos to an architect s theory. The reader will be immersed in a series of different contexts from communist Poland the vibrant academic atmosphere at Harvard to lively discussions on the future of modern architecture This publication will be of particular interest for those studying modern architecture in Central Europe and in post socialist countries in particular Poland Architects designers architectural and design students and modern architecture enthusiasts will find this publication on the last modernist architect revealing new perspectives thanks to the unpublished and unresearched sources Architectural Theory, Volume 2 Harry Francis Mallgrave, Christina Contandriopoulos, 2008-08-11 This second volume of the landmark Architectural Theory anthology surveys the development of architectural theory from the Franco Prussian war of 1871 until the end of the twentieth century The entire two volume anthology follows the full range of architectural literature from classical times to present transformations An ambitious anthology bringing together over 300 classic and contemporary essays that survey the key developments and trends in architecture Spans the period from 1871 to 2005 from John Ruskin and the arts and crafts movement in Great Britain through to the development of Lingang New City and the creation of a metropolis in the East China sea Organized thematically featuring general and section introductions and headnotes to each essay written by a renowned expert on architectural theory Places the work of starchitects like Koolhaas Eisenman and Lyn alongside the work of prominent architectural critics offering a balanced perspective on current debates Includes many hard to find texts and works never previously translated into English Alongside Volume I An Anthology from Vitruvius to 1870 creates a stunning overview of architectural theory from early antiquity to the twenty first century Architecture and Collective Life Penny Lewis, Lorens Holm, Sandra Costa Santos, 2021-10-28 This book addresses the complex relationship between architecture and public life It's a study of architecture and urbanism as cultural activity that both reflects and gives shape to our social relations public institutions and political processes Written by an international range of contributors the chapters address the intersection of public life and the built environment around the themes of authority and planning the welfare state place and identity and autonomy The book covers a diverse range of material from Foucault's evolving thoughts on space to land scraping leisure centres in inter war Belgium It unpacks concepts such as community and collectivity alongside themes of self organisation and authorship Architecture and Collective Life reflects on urban and architectural practice and historical political and social change As such this book will be of great interest to students and academics in architecture and urbanism The Practice of Modernism John R. Gold, 2007-06-13 In this sequel to his widely acclaimed as well as practicing architects book The Experience of Modernism 1997 John Gold continues his detailed enquiry into the Modern Movement s involvement in urban planning and city design Making extensive use of information gained from hours of in depth interviews with architects of the time this new book examines the complex relationship between vision and subsequent practice in the saga of postwar urban reconstruction The Practice of Modernism traces the personal institutional and professional backgrounds of the architects involved in schemes for reconstruction and replanning deals directly with the progress of urban transformation focusing on the contribution that modern architects and architectural principles made to town centre renewal and social housing highlights how the exuberance of the 1960s gave way to the profound reappraisal that emerged by the early 1970s Written by an expert this is a key book on the planning aspects of the modernist movement for architectural historians urban geographers planners and all concerned with understanding the recent history of the contemporary city Alexander Clement, 2018-06-25 The term Brutalism is used to describe a form of architecture that appeared mainly in Europe from around 1945 75 Uncomprimisingly modern this trend in architecture was both striking and arresting and perhaps like no other style before or since aroused extremes of emotion and debate Some regarded Brutalist buildings as monstrous soulless structures of concrete steel and glass whereas others saw the genre as a logical progression having its own grace and balance In this revised second edition Alexander Clement continues the debate of Brutalism in post war Britain to the modern day studying a number of key buildings and developments in the fields of civic educational commercial leisure private and ecclesiastical architecture With new and improved illustrations fresh case studies and profiles of the most influential architects this new edition affords greater attention to iconic buildings and structures Now that the age of Brutalism is a generation behind us it is possible to view the movement with a degree of rational reappraisal study how the style evolved and gauge its effect on Britain's urban landscape This book will be of interest to architecture students design students and anyone interested in post war architecture Fully illustrated with 160 colour and 4 black white photographs

Modern Architecture: A Critical History (Fifth) (World of Art) Kenneth Frampton, 2020-09-08 An extensively revised and updated edition of a bestselling classic on modern architecture and its origins by Kenneth Frampton Kenneth Frampton's highly acclaimed survey of modern architecture and its origins has been a classic since it first appeared in 1980 Starting with the cultural developments since 1750 that drove the modern movement moving through the creation of modern architecture and exploring the effects of globalization and the phenomenon of international celebrity architects this book is the definitive history of modern architecture For this extensively revised and updated fifth edition of Modern Architecture Frampton added new chapters exploring the ongoing modernist tradition in architecture while also examining the varied responses to the urgent need to build more sustainably and create structures that will withstand changing climates This new edition features completely redesigned interiors and an updated and expanded bibliography making this volume more indispensable than ever

Architecture, Democracy and Emotions Till Großmann, Philipp Nielsen, 2018-11-06 After 1945 it was not just Europe's parliamentary buildings that promised to house democracy hotels in Turkey and Dutch shopping malls proposed new democratic attitudes and feelings Housing programs in the United Kingdom the United States and the Soviet Union were designed with the aim of creating new social relations among citizens and thus better more equal societies

Architecture Democracy and Emotions focuses on these competing promises of consumer democracy welfare democracy and socialist democracy Spanning from Turkey across Eastern and Western Europe to the United States the chapters investigate the emotional politics of housing and representation during the height of the Cold War as well as its aftermath post 1989 The book assembles detailed research on how the claims and aspirations of being democratic influenced the affects of architecture and how these claims politicized space Architecture Democracy and Emotions contributes to the study of Europe s democratic age beyond Cold War divisions without diminishing political differences The combination of an emotional history of democracy with an architectural history of emotions distinguishes the book s approach from other recent investigations into the interconnection of mind body and space Recoding Architecture Pedagogy Nathaniel Coleman, 2025-03-25 Disabled by chasing curricular criteria required for accreditation and professional registration architecture schools are mostly compliance and reproduction machines serving the building industry As a corrective Recoding Architecture Pedagogy Insurgency and Invention asserts disciplinary knowledge over professional skills as the proper aim and focus of architecture education The insurgent pedagogy introduced subverts architecture and its teaching s capture by capitalism's dominant modes of production and consumption to reveal unexpected tactics for enlarging possibilities Grounded in architecture histories and theories philosophy and anarchism's emphasis on use and dissensus combined with PUNK's DIY ethos design studio emphasis on technicity is upended to reveal the subversive aim of intensifying tensions between doomed desires for artistic autonomy and intrinsic burdens of use constituting architecture as a discipline instead of seeking resolution some neutral middle ground or escape into banal practice or paper palaces By concentrating on what architecture education suppresses tensions disavows its capture within the building industry or affirms commercial practice over disciplinary knowledge Recoding Architecture Pedagogy Insurgency and Invention cracks open horizons of possibility by showing how intensifying agonistic relationships between the myriad binaries that characterize architecture and its teaching is generative in ways conciliatory synthesis cathartic resolution and uncritical affirmation are not
