Mílada Bazant,2018-03-27 Laura Méndez de Cuenca poet teacher editor writer and feminist dared to bypass the cultural traditions of her time In the early 1870s when conservative religious thought permeated all aspects of Mexican life she was one of very few women to gain admission to an extraordinary constellation of male poets playwrights and novelists who were also the publicists and statesmen of the time She entered this world through her poetry intellect curiosity assertiveness but her personal life was fraught with tragedy she had a child out of wedlock by poet Manuel Acuña who killed himself shortly thereafter She later married another poet Agustín Fidencia Cuenca and had seven other children All but two of her children died as did Agustín As a penniless young widow facing social rejection Laura became a teacher and an important force in Mexico's burgeoning educational reform program She moved abroad first to San Francisco then St Louis then Berlin In these places where she was not known and women had begun to move confidently in the public sphere she could walk freely observe mingle make friends across many circles learn think and express her opinions She wrote primarily for a Mexican public and always returned to Mexico because it was her country's future that she strove to create Now for the first time in
