Lenore Tawney Karen Patterson,2019-10-04 Recent years have seen an enormous surge of interest in fiber arts with works made of thread on display in art museums around the world But this art form only began to transcend its origins as a humble craft in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and it wasn t until the 1950s and 1960s that artists used the fiber arts to build critical practices that challenged the definitions of painting drawing and sculpture One of those artists was Lenore Tawney 1907 2007 Raised and trained in Chicago before she moved to New York Tawney had a storied career She was known for employing an ancient Peruvian gauze weave technique to create a painterly effect that appeared to float in space rather than cling to the wall as well as for being one of the first artists to blend sculptural techniques with weaving practices and in the process pioneered a new direction in fiber art Despite her prominence on the New York art scene however she has only recently begun to receive her due from the greater art world Accompanying a retrospective at the John Michael Kohler Arts Center this catalog features a comprehensive biography of Tawney additional essays on her work and two hundred full color illustrations making it of interest to contemporary artists art historians and the growing audience for fiber art Copublished with the John Michael Kohler Arts Center
