Acting Together I: Performance and the Creative Transformation of Conflict Cynthia Cohen, Roberto Gutiérrez Varea, Polly O. Walker, 2011-07-22 Courageous artists working in conflict regions describe exemplary peacebuilding performances and groundbreaking theory on performance for transformation of violence Acting Together Performance and the Creative Transformation of Conflict is a two volume work describing peacebuilding performances in regions beset by violence and internal conflicts Volume I Resistance and Reconciliation in Regions of Violence emphasizes the role theatre and ritual play both in the midst and in the aftermath of direct violence while Volume II Building Just and Inclusive Communities focuses on the transformative power of performance in regions fractured by subtler forms of structural violence and social exclusion Volume I Resistance and Reconciliation in Regions of Violence focuses on the role theatre and ritual play both in the midst and in the aftermath of violence The performances highlighted in this volume nourish and restore capacities for expression communication and transformative action and creatively support communities in grappling with conflicting moral imperatives surrounding questions of justice memory resistance and identity The individual chapters written by scholars conflict resolution practitioners and artists who work directly with the communities involved offer vivid firsthand accounts and analyses of traditional and nontraditional performances in Serbia Uganda Sri Lanka Palestine Israel Argentina Peru India Cambodia Australia and the United States Complemented by a website of related materials a documentary film Acting Together on the World Stage that features clips and interviews with the curators and artists and a toolkit or Tools for Continuing the Conversation that is included with the documentary as a second disc this book will inform and inspire socially engaged artists cultural workers peacebuilding scholars and practitioners human rights activists students of peace and justice studies and whoever wishes to better understand conflict and the power of art to bring about social change The Acting Together project is born of a collaboration between Theatre Without Borders and the Program in Peacebuilding and the Arts at the International Center for Ethics Justice and Public Life at Brandeis University The two volumes are edited by Cynthia E Cohen director of the aforementioned program and a leading figure in creative approaches to coexistence and reconciliation Roberto Gutierrez Varea an award winning director and associate professor at the University of San Francisco and Polly O Walker director of Partners in Peace an NGO based in Brisbane Australia Demon Matt Wesolowski, 2021-11-20 Scott King s podcast investigates the 1995 cold case of a demon possession in a rural Yorkshire village where a 12 year old boy was murdered in cold blood by two children Book six in the chilling award winning Six Stories series _____ In 1995 the picture perfect village of Ussalthwaite was the site of one of the most heinous crimes imaginable in a case that shocked the world Twelve year old Sidney Parsons was savagely murdered by two boys his own age No reason was ever given for this terrible crime and the Demonic Duo who killed him were imprisoned until their release in 2002 when they were given new identities and lifetime anonymity Elusive online journalist Scott King investigates the lead up and aftermath of the killing uncovering dark and fanciful stories of demonic possession and encountering a village torn apart by this unspeakable act And as episodes of his Six Stories podcast begin to air King himself becomes a target with dreadful secrets from his own past dredged up and threats escalating to a terrifying level It becomes clear that whatever drove those two boys to kill is still there lurking and the campaign of horror has just begun _____

Acting Together II: Performance and the Creative Transformation of Conflict Cynthia Cohen, Roberto Gutiérrez Varea, Polly O. Walker, 2011-12-01 Acting Together Volume II continues from where the first volume ends documenting exemplary peacebuilding performances in regions marked by social exclusion structural violence and dislocation Acting Together Performance and the Creative Transformation of Conflict is a two volume work describing peacebuilding performances in regions beset by violence and internal conflicts Volume I Resistance and Reconciliation in Regions of Violence emphasizes the role theatre and ritual play both in the midst and in the aftermath of direct violence while Volume II Building Just and Inclusive Communities focuses on the transformative power of performance in regions fractured by subtler forms of structural violence and social exclusion Volume I Resistance and Reconciliation in Regions of Violence focuses on the role theatre and ritual play both in the midst and in the aftermath of violence The performances highlighted in this volume nourish and restore capacities for expression communication and transformative action and creatively support communities in grappling with conflicting moral imperatives surrounding questions of justice memory resistance and identity The individual chapters written by scholars conflict resolution practitioners and artists who work directly with the communities involved offer vivid firsthand accounts and analyses of traditional and nontraditional performances in Serbia Uganda Sri Lanka Palestine Israel Argentina Peru India Cambodia Australia and the United States Complemented by a website of related materials a documentary film Acting Together on the World Stage that features clips and interviews with the curators and artists and a toolkit or Tools for Continuing the Conversation that is included with the documentary as a second disc this book will inform and inspire socially engaged artists cultural workers peacebuilding scholars and practitioners human rights activists students of peace and justice studies and whoever wishes to better understand conflict and the power of art to bring about social change The Acting Together project is born of a collaboration between Theatre Without Borders and the Program in Peacebuilding and the Arts at the International Center for Ethics Justice and Public Life at Brandeis University The two volumes are edited by Cynthia E Cohen director of the aforementioned program and a leading figure in creative approaches to coexistence and reconciliation Roberto Gutierrez Varea an award winning director and associate professor at the University of San Francisco and Polly O Walker director of Partners in Peace an NGO based in Brisbane Australia Actors Organize Kerry Segrave, 2007-10-24 This work offers a detailed history of American actors attempts to unionize in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Actors unions of this period faced a staggering amount of struggles including a heavy industry reliance on the blacklist severe media attacks on individual actors and the frequent formation of illegitimate company unions This work focuses specifically on the two main unions of the time the White Rats Actors Union of America and the Actors Equity Association The author chronicles the formation of the unions along with their achievements in the following decades and outlines the roles of union leaders Harry Mountford and Francis Wilson

Ward No. 6 and Other Stories, 1892-1895 Anton Chekhov, 2002-05-30 These stories from the middle period of Chekhov's career show him exploring complex ambiguous and often extreme emotions Influenced by his own experiences as a doctor Ward No 6 set in a mental hospital is a savage indictment of the medical profession The Black Monk portraying an academic who has strange hallucinations explores ideas of genius and insanity in Murder religious fervour leads to violence while in The Student Chekhov's favourite story a young man recounts a tale from the gospels and undergoes a spiritual epiphany In all the stories collected here Chekhov's characters face madness alienation and frustration before they experience brief ephemeral moments of insight often earned at great cost where they confront the reality of their existence

Immersive Storytelling and Spectatorship in Theatre, Museums, and Video Games Kelly I. Aliano, 2025-02-07 Immersive Storytelling and Spectatorship in Theatre Museums and Video Games is the first volume to explore immersion as it is experienced in all three of these storytelling forms the theatre museums and historic sites and video games It theorizes what it means for a work to be called immersive and how immersion impacts audience experience in each of these modes The presentation of story is deepened when it involves the spectator in an immersive way Author Kelly I Aliano concentrates on the central idea that the use of immersion in each medium allows the story being told to feel present for the spectator It puts them at the center of the experience making its events for and about them Throughout the book discusses how immersion is employed to make narrative feel more resonant and relevant for the audience Analyzing the impact of offering a first hand experience of story events this book looks at how immersive storytelling can highlight the ways in which we can interact with and shape our understandings of ourselves and our society as well as our histories and identities Ideal for students scholars and researchers of immersive theatre spectatorship museum studies and video game studies this is an innovative study into the power of immersive storytelling across three interactive mediums A Touch of Drama Guy Cullingford,2015-11-14

Archie Wayne successful playwright could not say what impulse had made him return to the small town of his boyhood On impulse he called on his boyhood friend and the matter would have ended there had he not met and fallen for his friend s daughter the young and innocent Christine Their brief idyll is interrupted by a police enquiry Archie s wife Irma is missing leaving behind a disquieting message and he finds himself suspect number one in a possible murder case But Archie is convinced that Irma is alive and trying to ruin him and tragedy and violence will take their toll on both the guilty and innocent in the search for the truth Acting and Connecting Sonia Zyngier,Anna Chesnokova,2007 This fine collection of papers is the successful outcome of an international research project carried out by advanced undergraduate and graduate students from four different countries Exceptionally the papers do not rehash old ideas or themes but offer a fresh approach to a wide range of topics from language literature and culture This innovative attitude is the result of newly devised empirical methods of research which clearly show that these students are well on their way to becoming inventive and resourceful researchers The book connects three important themes and acts upon them First it provides empirical studies of literary texts and experiences once again proving the value of empirical studies of literature It thereby nicely forecasts the future of literary studies Secondly it highlights the connections between research groups in different continents showing the strength of international collaborations It thereby nicely forecasts the future of intercultural research Thirdly it presents work from students illustrating upcoming talent It thereby nicely forecasts the future of academia THE ENGLISH THEATRE IN EIGHT VOLUMES sir John Vanbrugh,Colley Cibber,George Farquhar,Susanna Centlivre,John Hoadly,Thomas Baker,1765

The Story of Manhattan Charles Hemstreet,2016-07-12 The long and narrow Island of Manhattan was a wild and beautiful spot in the year 1609 In this year a little ship sailed up the bay below the island took the river to the west and went on In these days there were no tall houses with white walls glistening in the sunlight no church spires no noisy hum of running trains no smoke to blot out the blue sky None of these things But in their place were beautiful trees with spreading branches stretches of sand hills and green patches of grass In the branches of the trees there were birds of varied colors and wandering through the tangled undergrowth were many wild animals The people of the island were men and women whose skins were quite red strong and healthy people who clothed themselves in the furs of animals and made their houses of the trees and vines The Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction John Sutherland,2014-10-13 With over 900

biographical entries more than 600 novels synopsized and a wealth of background material on the publishers reviewers and readers of the age the Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction is the fullest account of the period s fiction ever published Now in a second edition the book has been revised and a generous selection of images have been chosen to illustrate various aspects of Victorian publishing writing and reading life Organised alphabetically the information provided will be a boon to students researchers and all lovers of reading The entries though concise meet the high standards demanded by modern scholarship The writing marked by Sutherland s characteristic combination of flair clarity and erudition is of such a high standard that the book is a joy to read as well as a definitive work of reference My First Scene Book: Acting Out, Acting

Up, Acting Right -- 51 Scenes for Children Kristen Dabrowski,2017-08-17 In new and strange situations it can be hard to know what to do and how to act My First Scene Book can help And each of the 51 one minute scenes from the real to the downright silly is just right for five to nine year olds Like all books in My First Acting Series My First Scene Book is interactive featuring pictures and discussion questions It is easy to get your family and friends involved what do they think Do they agree or disagree Jump into other lives and let your imagination soar Parents and teachers this is an excellent way to facilitate critical thinking and character building Though the approach is sometimes zany and unconventional shh no one will know they re learning these scenes show real issues students may encounter provoking lively meaningful participation Use it for story time and drama reading writing ethics and art classes Be creative and have fun Focus On: 100 Most Popular
