

A Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA in General Congress assembled

SLAVERY

AND THE

FOUNDERS

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed.

That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, & to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such Principles & organizing it in such Form, as shall seem most likely to promote their Happiness & secure to them the Blessings of Liberty.

IN THE AGE OF

JEFFERSON

It is the duty of the People to throw off every Government inconsistent with the Principles of the Declaration, & to provide new Guards for their future security. Right to the People to alter or to abolish it, & to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such Principles & organizing it in such Form, as shall seem most likely to promote their Happiness & secure to them the Blessings of Liberty.
