Sleeping with Dionysus Kay Marie Porterfield, 1994 Poems and stories depict the experiences and emotions of women who are substance abusers and how physical passion plays a large role in their addictions Angel of Manslaughter Cindy Rosmus, 2020-02-07 Angel of Manslaughter comprises a reissue of Cindy Rosmus classic collection of short stories originally presented by Fossil Publications This master s gut wrenching presentation each a blow to the head strips the veneer off fiction her characters so vivid the reader swallows hard with every description She writes of reality with wide range while staying in the neighborhood she knows intimately Moms and pops and best buds their desperation irony sex and violence Rosmus writes stark truth better than any today The collection is illustrated by Coates Walker the Emeritus of digital collage and mixed media art form the perfect match for this author s fiction Each image convey a powerful connotation of emotion subversion technology and the world in which we live Words without Walls Sheryl St. Germain, Sarah Shotland, 2015-03-10 Writing programs in prisons and rehabilitation centers have proven time and again to be transformative and empowering for people in need Halfway houses hospitals and shelters are all fertile ground for healing through the imagination and can often mean the difference for inmates and patients between just simply surviving and truly thriving It is in these settings that teachers and their students need reading that nourishes the soul and challenges the spirit Words without Walls is a collection of more than seventy five poems essays stories and scripts by contemporary writers that provide models for successful writing offering voices and styles that will inspire students in alternative spaces on their own creative exploration Created by the founders of the award winning program of the same name based at Chatham University the anthology strives to challenge readers to reach beyond their own circumstances and begin to write from the heart Each selection expresses immediacy writing that captures the imagination and conveys intimacy on the page revealing the power of words to cut to the quick and unfold the truth Many of the pieces are brief allowing for reading and discussion in the classroom and provide a wide range of content and genre touching on themes common to communities in need addiction and alcoholism family love and sex pain and hope prison recovery and violence Included is work by writers dealing with shared issues such as Dorothy Alison and Jesmyn Ward who write about families for whom struggle is a way of life or Natalie Kenvin and Toi Derricotte whose pieces reveal violence against women Also included are writings by those who have spent time in prison themselves such as Jimmy Santiago Baca Dwayne Betts Ken Lamberton and Etheridge Knight Eric Boyd ennobles the day he was released from jail Stephon Hayes reflects on what he sees from his prison window Terra Lynn evokes the experience of being put in solitary confinement Because in 2011 almost half of all prisoners in federal facilities were in for drug related offenses there are pieces by James Brown Nick Flynn and Ann Marlowe who explore their own addiction and alcoholism and by Natalie Diaz Scott Russell Sanders and Christine Stroud who write of crippling drug abuse by family and friends These powerful excerpts act as models for beginning writers and offer a vehicle to examine their own painful experiences Words without Walls demonstrates the power of language to connect people to reflect on the past and reimagine the future to confront complicated truths and to gain solace from pain and regret For students in alternative spaces these writings together with their own expressions reveal the same intense desire to write and share one's writing found in the Russian poet Irina Ratushinskaya who scratched her poems on bars of soap in a Gulag shower or the Turkish poet Nazim Hikmet who smuggled bits of poetry out of jail in the clothing of visiting friends Wole Soyinka in solitary confinement forty years ago wrote that creation is admission of great loneliness In these communal spaces our loneliness is lessened our vulnerability exposed and our honesty tested and through these revelatory writings students receive the necessary encouragement to share the whispering corners of their minds
