The Music Professor Online Judith Bowman, 2022. The Music Professor Online is a practical volume that provides a window into online music instruction in higher education. Author Judith Bowman highlights commonalities between online and face-to-face teaching, presents a theoretical framework for online learning and provides practical models and techniques based on interviews with professors teaching online in various music disciplines. This book offers keys for thinking about music education in a post-COVID world when the importance and interest of online education is of central concern. Part I reviews the growth and significance of online learning and online learning in music, identifies similarities and differences between face-to-face and online teaching and presents standards and principles for online instruction. It explores development of an online teaching persona, explains teaching presence and emphasizes the central role of the instructor as director of learning, always in relation to specific disciplines and their signature pedagogies. Part II focuses on the lived online curriculum featuring online teaching experiences in key fields by professors teaching them online. Bowman explores specific disciplines and their signature pedagogies together with practitioner profiles that provide insights into the thinking and techniques of excellent online music instructors together with recommendations for prospective online instructors and lessons drawn from the field. Part III summarizes recommendations and lessons from online practitioners, presents an action plan for moving forward with online music instruction and looks to the future of online instruction in music. Educators will find great use in this comprehensive, thoughtful compendium of reflections from a leading, longtime online music educator.

Signature Pedagogies for Professions in Arts and Design Rebecca Y. P. Kan, Christopher S. G. Khoo, 2025-03-14. This open access book surveys the dynamic landscape of professional arts and design education research, examining salient concepts and issues through the lens of signature pedagogies as an analytical framework. The arts and design professions covered in this book are music, dance, theatre, fashion, design, design and media, and fine art. Chapters in the book present a combination of reflective accounts, in-depth analyses and empirical research findings, shedding light on the education of students for productive and meaningful careers in the arts and design. They examine how concepts, issues, methods and practices relate to habits of the mind, hand and heart. Pedagogical insights on creative uncertainty, designerly formations, evocative ambiguity, generative apprenticeship, reflexivity, transition, truth and artistic tradition and heritage are explored with nuance and depth. The book constitutes a collective effort of artist educators at the Nanyang Academy of Fine Arts, University of the Arts, Singapore, in documenting a shared institutional heritage which is continually rejuvenated through critical engagement with contemporary challenges. They examine the tensions embedded in the signature pedagogies and possible solutions to address them at the micro e.g. classroom or practicum meso e.g. program and macro e.g. institution levels In the process the book highlights research issues and directions for arts education researchers while also offering ideas that artist educators can explore and incorporate into their teaching
