Dementia Together Pati Bielak-Smith, 2020-01-01 Winner of two 2021 IBPA Gold Benjamin Franklin Awards for Self Help and for Psychology Dementia is an illness that causes no physical pain But just ask anyone who cares about someone with Alzheimer's or another dementia if their heart isn't aching. The pain in dementia comes from feeling hopeless, alone, or disconnected from loved ones, but a broken relationship can be healed. This book is for family members and friends, for spouses, caregivers, and those who simply care. It outlines a path to a life with dementia that includes more life and less illness. With imagination, compassion, empathy, and quiet humor, the real-life stories in Dementia Together show you how to build a healthy dementia relationship. Because there are ways to communicate that result in greater capacity to receive as well as to provide both warm connection and practical collaboration. Living with dementia gives everyone an opportunity to grow their hearts bigger. This book shows you how.

Raising Children Compassionately Marshall B. Rosenberg, 2003
Your search for parenting tips that actually improve your family dynamics is over. While other parenting resources offer communication models or discipline techniques, this powerful practical booklet offers the unique skills and perspective of the Nonviolent Communication (NVC) process. NVC stresses the importance of putting compassionate connection first to create a mutually respectful, enriching family dynamic filled with clear, heartfelt communication. An exceptional resource for parents, parent educators, families, and anyone else who works with children. For over forty years, Dr. Marshall Rosenberg has taught NVC to parents, families, children, and teachers. Parents around the world have used his advice to deepen family connections, move past conflicts, and improve communication. His revolutionary approach helps parents motivate children to cooperate without either the threat of punishment or the promise of reward. Learn how to model compassionate communication in the home to help your children successfully resolve conflicts and express themselves clearly.

Respectful Parents, Respectful Kids Sura Hart, Victoria Kindle Hodson, 2006-10-28
More than a tool to correct bad behavior, this handbook urges parents to move beyond typical discipline techniques by creating an environment based on mutual respect, emotional safety, and positive, open communication. The seven outlined principles redefine the parent-dominated family by teaching parents how to achieve mutual parent-child respect without being submissive, set firm limits without using demands or coercion, and empower children to open up, cooperate, and realize their own innate potential. Based on Marshall Rosenberg's Nonviolent Communication process, the framework helps parents break down the barriers to outstanding relationships with their kids by avoiding destructive language and habits that keep parents and children from understanding one another. Activities, stories, and resources help parents immediately apply the seven keys to any parenting situation.

The Healing Power of Empathy
Mary Goyer, 2019-05-01
Empathy is an essential leadership skill and a cornerstone of good relationships, but it can be hard to access when it's most needed. Luckily, empathy is also a learnable skill with the power to move conversations out of gridlock and pain. With mindfulness, empathy has deescalated conflicts, combated loneliness, and built human connections in the most unlikely places. With this book, readers will learn how anger and blame get translated and productive dialogues made possible, how to repair arguments before they cause damage, and how self-empathy transforms relationships. With more than 70 stories collected from Nonviolent Communication trainers and practitioners around the world, readers will encounter new ways to talk to the people in their lives and learn techniques for empathizing with one's self and with others at home at work and in the community The No-fault Classroom Sura Hart, Victoria Kindle Hodson, 2008 Positioning a radically new understanding of the root of conflict unmet needs this analysis boldly directs students and teachers to recognize feelings as important messengers of those needs Refocusing attention from feelings to the needs behind the feelings addresses the underlying problem rather than the symptom with this objective the concept of the No Fault Zone is introduced It is a place in the classroom free from criticism or blame where students learn trust and respect for one another develop successful conflict resolution skills and the responsibility for resolution shifts from teacher to students The complete conflict resolution curriculum is included providing step by step guidance and making this classroom kit a time saver for busy teachers

Troublemakers Carla Shalaby, 2017-03-07 A radical educator's paradigm shifting inquiry into the accepted normal demands of school as illuminated by moving portraits of four young problem children In this dazzling debut Carla Shalaby a former elementary school teacher explores the everyday lives of four young troublemakers challenging the ways we identify and understand so called problem children Time and again we make seemingly endless efforts to moderate punish and even medicate our children when we should instead be concerned with transforming the very nature of our institutions systems and structures large and small Through delicately crafted portraits of these memorable children Zora Lucas Sean and Marcus Troublemakers allows us to see school through the eyes of those who know firsthand what it means to be labeled a problem From Zora's proud individuality to Marcus's open willfulness from Sean's struggle with authority to Lucas's tenacious imagination comes profound insight for educators and parents alike into how schools engender exclude and then try to erase trouble right along with the young people accused of making it And although the harsh disciplining of adolescent behavior has been called out as part of a school to prison pipeline the children we meet in these pages demonstrate how a child's path to excessive punishment and exclusion in fact begins at a much younger age Shalaby's empathetic discerning and elegant prose gives us a deeply textured look at what noncompliance signals about the environments we require students to adapt to in our schools Both urgent and timely this paradigm shifting book challenges our typical expectations for young children and with principled affection reveals how these demands despite good intentions work to undermine the pursuit of a free and just society

Being Genuine Thomas D'Ansembourg, 2007 In this English translation of the French bestseller readers will learn simple practical skills to step outside of their emotional masks to live a genuine authentic life Teaching everyday communication skills to respectfully express true feelings and the power of requesting wants without demands or force readers learn how to tackle life's difficult situations and conversations with ease and even excitement Topics include ideas and advice on how to identify feelings and needs without blaming others honest and respectful self expression facing conflict with ease and finding balance by staying connected to basic needs Being Me, Loving You Marshall B.

Rosenberg, 2005 Many of us think of love as a strong emotion a feeling we have for another person Marshall Rosenberg's helps us take a wholly different and life enriching approach to love Love is something you do something you give freely from the heart Using the Nonviolent Communication NVC process learn how to express yourself nakedly and honestly to your partner friends or family for no other purpose than to reveal what s present or alive in you Discover what thousands of people around the world already know A heart to heart connection strengthened by joyfully giving and receiving is the love you long to experience Discover how to Free yourself from the burden of proving your love and requiring proof in return Avoid doing anything out of guilt resentment shame or obligation Learn to effectively express how you are and what you need

Practical Spirituality Marshall B. Rosenberg,2005-04-01 According to Marshall B Rosenberg Ph D our most basic spiritual need is to contribute to the well being of others and ourselves His brief unscripted reflections on the spiritual basis of Nonviolent Communication NVC will inspire you not only to connect with the Divine in yourself and others but to begin to create a world of empathy and compassion where the language we use is the key to enriching life Discover an intensely satisfying and joyful spiritual experience that begins with you In these rich pages learn how NVC can help you achieve a more practical applied spirituality Discover how to Strengthen the connection between your actions and your spiritual values Let go of enemy images and moralistic judgments and experience our common humanity Connect with others from a place of compassionate energy

The Surprising Purpose of Anger Marshall B. Rosenberg,2005-04-01 You can feel it when it hits you Your face flushes and your vision narrows Your heartbeat increases as judgmental thoughts flood your mind Your anger has been triggered and you re about to say or do something that will likely make it worse You have an alternative By practicing the Nonviolent Communication NVC process you can use that anger to serve a specific life enriching purpose It tells you that you re disconnected from what you value and that your needs are not being met Rather than managing your anger by suppressing your feelings or blasting someone with your judgments Marshall Rosenberg shows you how to use anger to discover what you need and then how to meet your needs in constructive ways This booklet will help you apply these four key truths People or events may spark your anger but your own judgments are its cause Judging others as wrong prevents you from connecting with your unmet needs Getting clear about your needs helps you identify solutions satisfying to everyone Creating strategies focused on meeting your needs transforms anger into positive actions
