Reforms and Issues in School Mathematics in East Asia, 2010-01-01 Worldwide efforts to improve students learning of mathematics have turned educational researchers attention to some high achieving education systems especially those in East Asia including Chinese Mainland Hong Kong Japan Singapore South Korea and Taiwan However there is much less sharing and learning of educational policy and practices that goes beyond one or two such high achieving education systems At this time when educational changes and reforms for improving students learning of mathematics are also underway within these high achieving education systems in East Asia it becomes timely and important for the world to learn why and how relevant changes take place across these selected education systems This book has put together a set of papers that individually presents issues on the changing mathematics curriculum and teacher education in the six high achieving education systems in East Asia Collectively the book extends beyond what we can learn about exemplary practices in individual education systems in East Asia It helps us develop a better understanding of the interplay between various measures for the pursuit of excellence in mathematics curriculum and teacher education on the one hand and the different system contexts on the other The intended readers of the book include education policy makers curriculum developers researchers teachers teacher educators and anyone else interested in school mathematics curriculum and teacher education

International Handbook of School Effectiveness and Improvement Tony Townsend, 2007-08-01 This book reviews of the development implementation and practice of the disciplines of school effectiveness and school improvement Seven main topics are addressed History of the school effectiveness movement over the last 25 years Changes in accountability and standards Leadership in school effectiveness Changes in teacher education Impact of Diverse Populations Education Funding and its Impact and Best Practice Case Studies The contributors are active in school effectiveness research worldwide     The Changing Role of Schools in Asian Societies John Chi-Kin Lee,2007-12-05 As Asia faces the challenges posed by the knowledge economy its schools take on a new and different importance This book outlines the policy contexts in which these transformations are taking place and the practical strategies that are needed

The International Handbook of Educational Research in the Asia-Pacific Region J.P. Keeves,Ryo Watanabe,2013-11-11 The aim of the Handbook is to present readily accessible but scholarly sources of information about educational research in the Asia Pacific region The scale and scope of the Handbook is such that the articles included in it provide substantive contributions to knowledge and understanding of education in the Asia region In so doing the articles present the problems and issues facing education in the region and the findings of research conducted within the region that contribute to the resolution of these problems and issues Moreover since new problems and issues are constantly arising the articles in the Handbook also indicate the likely directions of future developments The different articles within the Handbook seek to conceptualize the problems in each specific content area under review provide an integration of the research conducted within that area the theoretical basis of the research the practical implications of the research and the contribution of the research towards the resolution of the problems identified Thus the articles do not involve the reporting of newly conducted research but rather require a synthesis of the research undertaken in a particular area with reference to the research methods employed and the theoretical frameworks on which the research is based In general the articles do not advocate a single point of view but rather present alternative points of view and comment on the debate and disagreements associated with the conduct and findings of the research Furthermore it should be noted that the Handbook is not concerned with research methodology and only considers the methods employed in inquiry in so far as the particular methods of research contribute to the effective investigation of problems and issues that have arisen in the conduct and provision of education at different levels within the region     New Paradigm for Re-engineering Education Yin Cheong

Cheng,2006-01-17 In response to the challenges of globalization and local development educational reforms are inevitably becoming one of the major trends in the Asia Pacific Region or other parts of the world Based on the most recent research and international observations this book aims to present a new paradigm including various new concepts frameworks and theories for reengineering education This book has 21 chapters in three sections Section I New Paradigm of Educational Reform containing eight chapters illustrates the new paradigm and frameworks of reengineering education fostering human development and analysing reform policies and also discusses the trends and challenges of educational reforms in the Asia Pacific Region Section II New Paradigm of Educational Leadership with five chapters aims to elaborate how the nature role and practice of school leadership can be transformed towards a new paradigm and respond to the three waves of education reforms Section III Reengineering School Management for Effectiveness with eight chapters aims to provide various practical frameworks for reengineering school management processes and implementing changes in school practices Conference proceedings. ICT for language learning. 9th edition Pixel,2016 Teacher Education for Inclusion Chris Forlin,2010-06-10 How teachers might best be prepared to work in schools with an increasingly diverse pupil population is of concern to educational academics professionals and governments around the world Changes that have taken place in legislation and practice often fail to taken into account how practitioners can ensure that all children and young people are able to achieve The focus of this international text is on innovative practices for preparing teachers to work in inclusive classrooms and schools Drawing on both pre and in service training methods the expert contributors to this book follow three major themes social and political challenges regarding teacher education providing an historical perspective on the training of teachers tensions in preparing teachers for inclusion cultural issues the relationship between educational funding and practices and collaborative measures to support a whole school approach innovative approaches in pre service teacher preparation discussing a range of innovative models and approaches used in pre service teacher education courses engaging professional development for inservice teachers reviewing a range of approaches employed to engage working teachers and help them establish curricula and pedagogy that meets the needs of all students in their classes Each chapter will include a list of proposed learning outcomes a theoretical or conceptual framework to help readers develop the proposed innovation an overview of recent research discussion of the research data available and a discussion of the international implications and challenges summarising in suggestions for a positive way forward Teacher Education for Inclusion Changing Paradigms and Innovative Approaches is essential reading for practising teacher educators school leaders university lecturers in education and post graduate students Ad Veritatem ,2005 Confirmatory Feedback in Teacher Education Nur Kurtoglu-Hooton,2016-08-24 This book examines the intricacies of the discourse of post observation feedback that student teachers receive following group teaching practice In particular the author explores confirmatory feedback as an instigator of student teacher learning and examines the potential links between feedback and change The book will be of specific interest to researchers teacher educators and other professionals involved in feedback giving settings Cambridge Guide to Second Language Teacher Education Anne Burns,Jack C.  In a complex and multi layered world the conventional idea of great leadership being the result of the efforts of a single individual is rapidly becoming redundant This book takes up the challenge of finding an alternative method of leadership in educational contexts and looks at how this can help achieve sustained improvement in schools The authors acknowledge that there are no simple solutions to school improvement They argue that the effective leaders of the future will be those who are able to share responsibility build positive relationships and offer stakeholders teachers parents and students an opportunity to work together to improve their schools The book is based around four key areas of concern the changing context of leadership leadership and school improvement building leadership capacity and future direction and implications In each section the authors discuss current theories and issues and put forward alternative ideas and perspectives This important book will make valuable reading for headteachers principles deputies and other senior teachers particularly those undertaking leadership qualifications and training It will also be of interest to postgraduate students and school governors
