Teaching Language And Literature In Elementary Classrooms:

Teaching Language and Literature in Elementary Classrooms Marcia S. Popp, 2006-04-21 This book is designed to help the beginning teacher create a classroom environment that integrates literacy development with learning in all areas of the curriculum. It provides fundamental information about language arts teaching and is meant to be used. Teaching Language and Literature in Elementary Classrooms Marcia Popp, 1996-01 Learning Journals in the K-8 Classroom Marcia S. Popp, 2012-11-12 Learning Journals in the K 8 Classroom is the first comprehensive presentation of how to use academic journals effectively for elementary level instruction. The text outlines the theoretical foundations for using learning journals and provides step by step suggestions for implementing them in every content area and at all levels of elementary instruction. Learning journals provide resources and support for reading aloud, independent reading, mini lessons, cooperative study, individual research workshops, and the portfolio system. The type of interactive writing students do in learning journals helps them explore complex ideas in the content areas using their own strengths of analysis and response. The journals then become resources for future learning group discussions, individual conferences, learning assessment reports, and progress. Four introductory chapters show teachers how to create their own journals, introduce journals to students, integrate them with cooperative study, and use them for assessment. Additional chapters focus on the individual curriculum areas of literature, writing, mathematics, science, and social studies. The text includes sample entries from student journals at all grade levels and in every content area, and appendices of annotated resources to support journaling and interviews with teachers who use journals in their classrooms. Teaching Global Literature in Elementary Classrooms Kelly K. Wissman, Maggie Naughton Burns, Krista Jampetti, Heather O'Leary, Simeen Tabatabai, 2016-07-15 Demonstrating the power of teaching global literature from a critical literacy perspective, this book explores the ways that K-6 educators can infuse diverse texts into their classrooms and find support for their endeavours in teacher inquiry communities. Through carefully analyzed ethnographically informed portraits of classroom life, alternating with teachers' own accounts of their teaching and learning experiences, it demonstrates how students are moved to question, debate, and take action in response to global texts. This multi-vocal work both emerges from and responds to tensions and debates related to the purpose and practice of literature education in a time of Common Core State Standards. Real Talk in Elementary Classrooms Maureen P. Boyd, Lee Galda, 2011-07-07 Describing effective creative strategies for talking with students in ways that enhance literacy learning, this book offers a window into the classrooms of four exemplary teachers. Principles of productive classroom discussions are illustrated with detailed case examples. The book shows how and explains why real talk can enhance student engagement, foster critical thinking, promote mastery of literacy concepts, and instill a lasting love of reading. It offers ideas for selecting children's literature and fitting a range of interactive literacy activities into the school day. The authors draw on current knowledge about the connections between oral language and literacy development across the elementary grades.
