Teaching Mainstreamed Students:

Mainstream or Special? Josephine Jenkinson, 2012-10-02 There remains some controversy about how best to meet the needs of pupils with special educational needs Should they be educated in mainstream schools alongside their peers or does this mean that specialist help and resources are denied to them This book explores in depth the ways in which this problem has been tackled in Australia the UK and Canada It looks at the major issues which have been raised and the types of provisions and resourcing which have been offered and then goes on to provide a vision of how future education provision might look for pupils with special educational needs Mainstreaming ESL John Clegg, 1996-01-01 In this book ESL and mainstream teachers from primary and secondary schools in Australia Canada the USA and the United Kingdom describe how they go about mainstreaming Well supplied with examples of teaching materials and pupils work their narratives are practical and detailed At the same time they raise vital questions of school policy which the whole school community must address when launching initiatives of this kind The book will be of very practical use to ESL and mainstream teachers as well as to principals advisers and those at all levels of the education service who work in multilingual communities It will also serve as a handbook for teacher educators and student teachers of any subject who are preparing to work in linguistically diverse classrooms BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

Mainstreaming in the Secondary School Cynthia L. Warger, Loviah E. Aldinger, Kathy A. Okun, Phi Delta Kappa. Educational Foundation, 1983-01-01 Because the issues of time numbers curriculum and evaluation seem to confound effective mainstreaming at the secondary school level they are the primary areas teachers must reassess in their own classrooms Suggestions are made in this monograph about ways in which regular classroom teachers may cope effectively with handicapped students A description is given of the characteristics of handicapped students frequently mainstreamed at the secondary level including the educable mentally retarded emotionally disturbed learning disabled sensory handicapped and physically disabled The teachers responsibilities in planning appropriate daily instruction and as members of the team that develops the Individualized Educational Plan are outlined Ways in which curriculum may be adapted for mainstreamed students are also suggested The problem of grading handicapped students is discussed with emphasis on ways in which evaluation criteria may be modified to fairly assess achievements It is pointed out that cooperation between the regular classroom teacher and the special education teacher is vital to successful mainstreaming JD Teaching Special Students in the Mainstream Rena B.
