Teaching The Art Of Literature

Bruce E. Miller

Teaching The Art Of Literature:

Teaching the Art of Literature Bruce E. Miller, 1980 Working on the assumptions that literature should be presented to students in ways that will help them to experience the literary work rather than merely to think about it and that the teaching of literature ought to grow out of the teacher's and student's reading of it this book is divided into two sections The first section describes the nature of literary experience and the kinds of approaches that different readers take to literature in order to attain that experience and the second section applies this background to the teaching of specific works Chapters in the first section examine literature as an event an object and a message what constitutes good reading and teaching methods that should be used to present literature aesthetically Specific works discussed in the second section include Keats's To Autumn Cather's Paul's Case Twain's Huckleberry Finn and Shakespeare's Othello HOD Teaching Art with Books Kids Love Darcie Clark Frohardt, 1999 Easy to use art lessons with award winning books Literature-Based Teaching in the Content Areas Carole Cox, 2011-01-12 Forty classroom tested classroom ready literature based strategies for teaching in the K-8 content areas Grounded in theory and best practices research this practical text provides teachers with 40 strategies for using fiction and non-fiction trade books to teach in five key content areas language arts and reading social studies mathematics science and the arts Each strategy provides everything a teacher needs to get started a classroom example that models the strategy a research based rationale relevant content standards suggested books reader response questions and prompts assessment ideas examples of how to adapt the strategy for different grade levels K-2, 3-5 and 6-8 and ideas for differentiating instruction for English language learners and struggling students Throughout the book student work samples and classroom vignettes bring the content to life The Teaching of Literature as a Form of Art Through Its Relations to Painting Florence L. Gens, 1961 Teaching Literature Through Art Sharon Jeffus, 2014-02-25 Teaching Literature Through Art Crossing Boundaries: The Journey from Teacher to Teaching Artist Purnima Ruanglertbutr, 2012-11-01 Crossing Boundaries The Journey from Teacher to Teaching Artist is an exhibition curated by Purnima Ruanglertbutr Crossing Boundaries displays more than sixty works of art by twenty seven secondary school Visual Art teachers who have recently graduated from the Master of Teaching Secondary Art program at the University of Melbourne In addition to a wide range of eclectic artworks across multiple mediums this catalogue comprises succinct and informative commentaries on the role that art making plays in the graduates teaching These are special insights Visual Art teachers are educators who carry the expectation that to be good in the classroom they should have a vibrant private practice that in order to teach it they also have to prove that they can do it But through their works of art and artist statements the participants in this exhibition question their practice and expose themselves to continued examination and critique The commentaries reveal the graduates exhibit professional identities that amalgamate both the roles of an artist and a teacher through a re-framing of the teacher of art as an artist teacher or a teaching artist The foreword by Art

Education Australia Art Education Victoria and the introduction by the curator explores the term teaching artist within the context of the exhibition that teaching artists boast a hybrid identity fusing the roles of teacher and artist an identity that conflates two distinct professions and is successful because the artist teacher brings practitioner skills in both professions
