Teaching The Conflicts Gerald Graff Curricular Reform And The Culture Wars:

Teaching the Conflicts William E. Cain, Gerald Graff, 1994-01 First published in 1993 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Christianity and Civil Society Robert Wuthnow, 1996-10-01 In this book well known author Robert Wuthnow considers three aspects of the relationship between Christianity and civil society whether civil society is in jeopardy and what effects Christianity's declining influence has on civil society whether Christians can be civil in the face of conflicts that have arisen among religious groups in the public arena and the so called culture wars that many in the media have been discussing and growing multiculturalism in the United States how Christians are responding to this new diversity and how Christianity can regain a critical voice for itself in these debates

On the Winds and Waves of Imagination Constance S. Richards, 2020-04-22 First published in 2000 This book takes a transnational feminist approach to the literature of three contemporary women authors Virginia Woolf Alice Walker and South African writer Zoe Wicomb The author draws from post colonial studies and considers how gender collides with race national origin and class in women's oppression

Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown, 2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies

Literature and the Internet Stephanie Browner, Stephen Pulsford, Richard Sears, 2013-12-02 Literature and the Internet A Guide for Students Teachers and Scholars is the only Internet guide written for those who love and study literature The book begins with a practical introduction for readers who want help finding navigating and using literary sites Later chapters focus on educational issues such as plagiarism citation website evaluation the use of Internet sites in literature courses as well as the technical scholarly and professional issues raised by the advent of the Internet Finally the book concludes with a chapter on the cultural implications of the Internet for literary studies In addition the book offers an annotated bibliography of Internet sources with URLs that introduces readers to hundreds of sites which they can explore on their own Readers need not have a B A or even a major in English and no special training in computer technology and software is necessary The book explains both the basics of the Internet and sophisticated scholarly issues in simple language Ultimately each Internet user must choose his or her own path through the Internet but with Literature and the Internet in hand surfing the net for things literary will be more efficient and satisfying and much less confusing and overwhelming

Going Global Amal Amireh, Lisa Suhair Majaj, 2014-05-01 This book explores the problematic of reading and writing about third world women and their texts in an increasingly global context of production and reception The ten essays contained in this volume examine the reception both academic and popular of women writers from India Bangladesh Palestine Egypt Algeria Ghana Brazil Bolivia Guatemala Iraq Israel and Australia The essays focus on what happens to these writers poetry fiction biography autobiography and even to the authors themselves as they move between the third and first worlds The essays raise general questions about the politics of reception and about the transnational character of cultural production and consumption This edition also provides analyses of the reception of specific texts and of their authors in their context of origin as well as the diverse locations in which they are read The essay participate in on going discussions about the politics of location about postcolonialism and its discontents and about the projects of feminism and multiculturalism in a global age

British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen, 2021-12-12 British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies introductory essays and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism

Texts and Textuality Philip G. Cohen, 2018-12-20 These essays deal with the scholarly study of the genesis transmission and editorial reconstitution of texts by exploring the connections between textual instability and textual theory interpretation and pedagogy What makes this collection unique is that each essay brings a different theoretical orientation New Historicism Poststructuralism or Feminism to bear upon a different text such as Whitman s Leaves of Grass Faulkner s The Sound and the Fury or hypertext fiction to explore the dialectical relationship between texts and textuality The essays bring some of the textual theories that compete with each other today into contact with a broad range of primarily literary textual histories That texts are intrinsically unstable frequently consisting of a series of determinate historical versions has consequences for all students of literature because different versions of a literary work frequently help shape different readings independently of the interpretations brought to bear upon them Textual instability of the works is relevant to our understanding of how the meanings of texts are generated The contributors build on the numerous challenges to the Anglo American editorial tradition mounted during the past decade by scholars as diverse as Jerome McGann D F McKenzie Peter Shillingsburg D C Greetham Hershel Parker and Hans Walter Gabler The volume contributes to the paradigm shift in textual scholarship inaugurated by these scholars

American Women Short Story Writers Julie Brown, 2014-05-01 This collection of original and classic essays examines the contributions that female authors have made to the short story The introductory chapter discusses why genre critics have ignored works by women and why feminist scholars have ignored the short story genre Subsequent chapters discuss early stories by such authors as Lydia Maria Child and Rose Terry Cooke

Others are devoted to the influences race class sexual orientation education that have shaped women s short fiction through the years Women s special stylistic formal and thematic concerns are also discussed in this study The final essay addresses the ways our contemporary creative writing classes are stifling the voices of emerging young female authors The collection includes an extensive five part bibliography

Race and the Production of Modern American Nationalism Reynolds J. Scott-Childress,2014-01-14 This important book addresses the ways race has both helped and hindered Americans in determining national identity Contributors consider race and American nationalism from a variety of historical and disciplinary vantage points Beginning with the aftermath of the Civil War and unfolding chronologically through to the present the essays examine a multitude of different groups Japanese Americans Chinese Americans Puerto Ricans African Americans whites Jews Irish Americans German Americans by examining race and nationalism represented in public memorials photography film classic and minor literature gender issues legal studies and more The book offers rereadings of some of the pivotal figures in American culture and politics including Herman Melville Frances Harper William James Frederic Remington Charles Francis Adams W E B DuBois George Creel Zora Neale Hurston Louis Chu and others In the course of these essays readers will learn how Americans in different periods and circumstances have grappled with the changing issues of defining race and of defining American as a race as a nationality or as both

Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference Damian Baca, Ellen Cushman, Jonathan Osborne,2024-11-01 Landmark Essays on Rhetorics of Difference challenges the Eurocentric perspective from which the field of rhetoric is traditionally viewed Taking a step beyond the creation of alternative rhetorics that maintain the centrality of the European and Greco Roman tradition this volume argues on behalf of pluriversal rhetorics that coexist as equally important on their own terms A timely addition to the respected Landmark Essays series it will be invaluable to students of history of rhetoric literacy composition and writing studies

Conflict and Difference in Nineteenth-Century Literature D. Birch, M. Llewellyn,2010-05-28 How should we understand Victorian conflict The Victorians were divided between multiple views of the political religious and social issues that motivated their changing aspirations Such debates are a fundamental aspect of the literature of the period and these essays propose new ways of understanding their significance

Lifelong Citizenship ,2017-01-01 As citizenship is lifelong and life wide the function of adult education is crucial to enable individual members of society to continue learning and improving their skills in the face of changing democratic societies In recognition of the need to adjust higher education to democratic societies needs this book focuses on examples of educational practices concerned with developing the necessary lifelong learning skills for democratic citizenship in the information era with an emphasis on teacher education The practices presented in this book primarily address the integration of lifelong learning skills with democratic citizenship skills encapsulated in the concept of lifelong citizenship This concept denotes the up to date skills required from a citizen in modern day democracies along four key dimensions 1 personal wellbeing 2 digital literacy 3 learning to learn by experience and practice and 4 social cohesion and justice This volume provides a valuable updated reference book for pedagogical and research purposes for a wide audience of students teachers policy makers curriculum designers and teacher educators who deal with promoting lifelong learning as well as for those who are interested in fostering capacity building initiatives in higher education to adapt teaching learning assessment processes to meet the lifelong citizenship dimensions Social Constructionist Identity Politics and Literary Studies S. Gupta,2007-01-10 This study presents a critique of social constructionist identity politics which is distinguished from specific identity based political positions from within and with social constructionist commitments Gupta examines the institutionalization of social constructionist identity politics in literary studies considering the notions of canonicity The Routledge Companion to Literature and Science Bruce Clarke,Manuela Rossini,2010-09-13 With forty four newly commissioned articles from an international cast of leading scholars The Routledge Companion to Literature and Science traces the network of connections among literature science technology mathematics and medicine Divided into three main sections this volume links diverse literatures to scientific disciplines from Artificial Intelligence to Thermodynamics surveys current theoretical and disciplinary approaches from Animal Studies to Semiotics traces the history and culture of literature and science from Greece and Rome to Postmodernism Ranging from classical origins and modern revolutions to current developments in cultural science studies and the posthumanities this indispensable volume offers a comprehensive resource for undergraduates postgraduates and researchers With authoritative accessible and succinct treatments of the sciences in their literary dimensions and cultural frameworks here is the essential guide to this vibrant area of study Reconceptualizing American Literary/Cultural Studies William E. Cain,2014-04-04 Three extensively revised essays by Mailloux an influential proponent of cultural studies describe his approach in depth Following are ten essays nine of them written specifically for this volume by scholars who offer various perspectives on Mailloux s ideas Each essayist weighs the strengths and limitations of the cultural studies movement in general and Mailloux s approach in particular Overcoming the Two Cultures Richard E Lee Jr,Immanuel Wallerstein,2015-12-03 This book tells the story of how the very idea of two cultures the so called divorce between science and the humanities was a creation of the modern world system The contributors working from a common research framework trace the divorce of facts and values as part of the transition from feudalism to capitalism This led to a polarization between universalist science and the particularist humanities and finally to the creation of the social sciences as an uneasy intermediary in this epistemological debate The book addresses the contemporary attempts to overcome the division between the two cultures that emerge from science feminism race and ethnic studies cultural studies and ecology ending with an analysis of the culture wars and the science wars Contributors Volkan Aytar Ay se Betul Celik Mauro Di Meglio Mark Frezzo Ho fung Hung Biray Kolloupglu K3 4rl3 4 Agustin Lao Montes Eric Mielants Boris Stremlin Sunaryo Norihisa Yamashita Deniz Yukeseker Literary Influence and African-American Writers Tracy Mishkin,2015-12-22 First published in 1996 This volume includes a collection of essays that were collected after the inspiration of finding positive interactions between African American and Irish Writers during the Harlem Renaissance a time when these two groups were hardly on good terms The essays look at theories and realities of literary influence that especially affect African American writers Words in the Wilderness Stephen Gilbert Brown,2000-01-06 Blends vivid personal accounts and sophisticated theoretical analysis to make a compelling book about one teacher's experience teaching on an Athabascan Indian Reservation in Alaska Blake, Politics, and History George A. Jr. Rosso Jr.,Christopher Z. Hobson,2013-05-13 This anthology of essays charts the work of William Blake combining traditional and current historicist methods with a plurality of other approaches While many essays here recuperate a radical Blake opposed to imperialism slavery and patriarchy differences emerge over the nature of Blake's radicalism and his stance on revolution violence and democratic pluralism Contributors may champion a Blake critical of patriarchal discourse and practice but they remain cautious about Blake's homocentric solutions In the Blake and women section authors seek to reorient discussions by connecting Blake to historical issues concerning women particularly domestic ideology and the idealised female of the conduct books
