Resources for change, a guide to projects Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education,1976 Resources for Change Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education,1977 Resources for Change ,1978 Teaching the Literature of Today's Middle East Allen Webb,2012-03-15 Providing a gateway into the real literature emerging from the Middle East this book shows teachers how to make the topic authentic powerful and relevant Teaching the Literature of Today s Middle East Introduces teachers to this literature and how to teach it Brings to the reader a tremendous diversity of teachable texts and materials by Middle Eastern writers Takes a thematic approach that allows students to understand and engage with the region and address key issues Includes stories from the author s own classroom and shares student insight and reactions Utilizes contemporary teaching methods including cultural studies literary circles blogs YouTube class speakers and film analysis Directly and powerfully models how to address controversial issues in the region Written in an open personal and engaging style theoretically informed and academically smart highly relevant across the field of literacy education this text offers teachers and teacher educators a much needed resource for helping students to think deeply and critically about the politics and culture of the Middle East through literary engagements A Companion to American Literature and Culture Paul Lauter,2020-09-21 This expansive Companion offers a set of fresh perspectives on the wealth of texts produced in and around what is now the United States Highlights the diverse voices that constitute American literature embracing oral traditions slave narratives regional writing literature of the environment and more Demonstrates that American literature was multicultural before Europeans arrived on the continent and even more so thereafter Offers three distinct paradigms for thinking about American literature focusing on genealogies of American literary study writers and issues and contemporary theories and practices Enables students and researchers to generate richer more varied and more comprehensive readings of American literature From a Race of Storytellers Kimberley M. Holloway,2003 From a Race of Storytellers will also be attractive to the general reader who wants to read more about the characters who inhabit McCrumb s fictional Hamelin Tennessee and to better understand the events that occur there Through essays written by fourteen different scholars of McCrumb s fiction and one by McCrumb herself readers will gain a deeper understanding of the real southern Appalachian mountains not just the popular image BOOK JACKET Folk Roots and Mythic Wings in Sarah Orne Jewett and Toni Morrison Marilyn Sanders Mobley,1994-08-01 As women of different eras cultural backgrounds racial identities and places of origin Sarah Orne Jewett and Toni Morrison would appear to have little in common But in her study of these two seemingly dissimilar writers Marilyn Sanders Mobley finds elements that unite their fictional concerns Mobley argues that a folk aesthetic gives structure and meaning to Jewett s and Morrison s work and that a mythic impulse informs their ability to depict people and values that the dominant American culture has traditionally neglected Through close readings of Jewett s Deephaven A White Heron and The Country of Pointed Firs and of Morrison s Song of Solomon Tar

Baby and Beloved she demonstrates that the fiction of both writers attempts to preserve and affirm cultural difference cultural knowledge and cultural memory Mobley s carefully argued study simultaneously offers important new insights into the works of two significant women writers and points out ways in which narrative may be used as a catalyst for cultural and social change American Women's Fiction, 1790-1870 Barbara A. White,2013-05-07 An annotated bibliography on women who wrote fiction in the US during the period 1790 1870 The first part is an annotated list of sources that discuss women s fiction in the period and women authors born before 1840 who published before 1870 The second part is an alphabetical list of the approximately 325 19th century writers who meet those criteria There are indexes by pseudonym editor and subject The sources provide information not only about the individual authors but also about the history of criticism and literary politics especially women s place in the American literary canon Lone Star Chapters Betty Holland Wiesepape,2004 As Texas entered the 20th century it was opening a new chapter in its cultural and social life This text examines the contributions of literary societies and writers clubs to the cultural and literary development that took place in Texas between the close of the frontier and the beginning of World War II Awakenings Bernard Koloski,2009-12 No other American book was so maligned neglected for so long and then embraced so quickly and with such enthusiasm as Kate Chopin s 1899 novel The Awakening For the twelve scholars whose essays make up this collection reading the novel was a life changing event Awakenings explains how as graduate students and young college instructors they carried out some of the basic research thought through some of the critical approaches and developed some of the present directions for reading studying and teaching Kate Chopin a foundation narrative that focuses on what happened a generation ago and why The Manuscript Inventories and the Catalogs of Manuscripts, Books, and Periodicals: Book catalog, State M-Z. Corporate subjects and authors Arthur and Elizabeth Schlesinger Library on the History of Women in America,1984 Sounds of Silence Breaking Janet L. Miller,2005 This book contains a broad range of Millers writings and intertwines interpretations of educational theories events and practices throughout private and public dimensions of Miller s life Together by Accident Stephanie C. Palmer,2008-12-16 This fascinating account of the regional travel accident motif within American local color literature offers a reassessment of the cultural work done by authors writing during the Gilded Age Stephanie C Palmer shows how events like broken carriage wheels and missed trains were used by local color authors to bring together bourgeois and lower class characters thus giving readers the opportunity to see modernity coming into contact with both rural and urban life Using the works of Sarah Orne Jewett Bret Harte William Dean Howells Elizabeth Stuart Phelps and others Palmer traces the use of the regional travel accident motif and how local color writers employed it to give critiques on class society and modern life Exploring the themes of regional identity modernity and interpersonal relationships Together by Accident offers an intriguing evaluation of the innovations and inconveniences associated with life during the industrializing Gilded Age in America Resources in Education ,2000 Educating the Germans David Phillips,2018-06-28 Educating the Germans examines the role of the British in the reconstruction of education in occupied Germany from 1945 to 1949 It covers war time planning for a future role in overseeing education at all levels in Germany looks at policy and its implementation describes the British personnel involved and their interaction with German authorities and assesses the lasting effects of the British effort in securing the future development of education from Kindergarten to university in the emerging Federal Republic Thoroughly researched and employing a wide range of sources in Britain and Germany this is an important study for anyone looking to further their understanding of Germany and Britain s relationship with Germany in the immediate post war era Asian Journal of Women's Studies ,2002 Resources in Women's Educational Equity ,1980 Preferred List of Books for Township, High School and District Libraries in the State of Michigan Michigan. Department of Public Instruction,1917 Teaching Women's Literature from a Regional Perspective Leonore Hoffmann,Deborah Silverton Rosenfelt,1982 This collection of essays and materials aims to help teachers design courses in which students use out of print books autobiographies letters diaries memoirs and oral testimonies by the women of their region Teaching Women's History Kelsie Brook Eckert,2024-07-04 Teaching Women s History Breaking Barriers and Undoing Male Centrism in K 12 Social Studies challenges and guides K 12 history teachers to incorporate comprehensive and diverse women s history into every region and era of their history curriculum Providing a wealth of practical examples ideas and lesson plans all backed by scholarly research for secondary and middle school classes this book demonstrates how teachers can weave women s history into their curriculum today It breaks down how history is taught currently how teachers are prepared and what expectations are set in state standards and textbooks and then shows how teachers can use pedagogical approaches to better incorporate women s voices into each of these realms Each chapter explores a major barrier to teaching an inclusive history and how to overcome it and every chapter ends with an inquiry based lesson plan on women or using women s sources which stands counter to the way curriculum is traditionally taught a case in point that tasks readers to realize how women have been integral to every period of history With expert guidance from an award winning social studies teacher this guidebook will be important reading for middle and high school history educators It will also be beneficial to preservice teachers particularly within Social Studies Education and Gender Studies Additional resources for educators are available to view at www.remedialherstory.com
