Teaching Fiction In The Primary School Classroom Approaches To Narratives:

Teaching Fiction in the Primary School Dennis Carter, 2013-12-19 Designed for practising and student teachers working with a wide range of narrative fiction in infant and junior classrooms this text highlights the creative and expressive aspects of children's engagement with literature and provides Literacy Hour projects for each age group Adventure Stories for Reading, Learning and Literacy Mal Leicester, Roger Twelvetees, 2010-07-09 This book takes a unique approach to cross curricular teaching in the primary classroom Providing eight original adventure stories the authors build up a suite of resources and activities for teachers to use in the classroom Teaching Short Stories Bettina Vázquez García, 2010-03 Seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject English Pedagogy Didactics Literature Studies grade 1.7 University of Münster Englisches Seminar language English abstract The use of literature in the second language classroom can be legitimated in different ways Today's methods of second language acquisition SLA put emphasis on working with literature which offers a great range of opportunities to familiarize a learner with a foreign language However it is not just the aspect of learning or acquiring a second language when dealing with literature Furthermore the work with literature includes social and cultural as well as empathetic aspects Thus dealing with literature whatever genre of literature is touched is highly manifold and undoubtedly of a high value According to Wolfgang Gehring the short story besides the novel is one of the genres which is used most frequently in school The short story has many uses concerning the field of didactics it can be used for introducing different topics and for accustoming the learner to different methods of interpretation In addition working with literary texts especially with short stories offers the possibility for the examination of several problems e.g. problems of youths or the topic of life and death In the framework of the term paper at hand the focus lies on working with literary texts namely teaching short stories as one component of the narrative genre besides the novel For this purpose there will first be a short discussion about the significance of literary texts in language teaching according to Ansgar Ninning who claims that literature forms an essential part when learning a foreign language FL In addition to that the emphasis in the following chapters lies on working techniques for dealing effectively with short stories in language teaching For this purpose different methods for the work with short stories are presented and critically examined The presented methods are Children's Literature in Primary Schools David Waugh, Sally Neaum, Rosemary Waugh, 2016-07-15 How can you help children to develop a love of reading and books Which books are the best ones to use in primary teaching How do you make the most of children's literature in teaching across the curriculum Trainee and experienced primary school teachers need an advanced knowledge of children's literature This is your guide to the range of and scope of children's literature for the primary classroom Through the exploration of different genres it covers a wide range of literature and helps you to consider what we mean by literature Case studies that model good practice are included with suggestions for practical activities using literature to enhance teaching across the curriculum Throughout book recommendations show how specific texts can be used for teaching in exciting and innovative ways What's new to this edition updated in line with the new Primary National Curriculum includes new content on supporting children for whom English is an Additional Language an extensive list of book recommendations for primary teaching how to get more out of classic texts introduces new texts and new children's authors

Approaches to Narrative Fiction, 1983 Children's Literature in Primary Schools David Waugh, Sally Neaum, Rosemary Waugh, 2013-05-13 How can you help children to develop a love of reading and books Trainee and experienced primary school teachers need an advanced knowledge of children's literature for effective teaching If you are training to be a teacher this is your guide to the range of and scope of children's literature for the primary classroom Through the exploration of different genres it covers a wide range of literature and helps you to consider what we mean by literature Case studies that model good practice are included with suggestions for practical activities using literature to enhance teaching across the curriculum Throughout book recommendations show how specific texts can be used for teaching in exciting and innovative ways About the Transforming QTS Series This series reflects the new creative way schools are beginning to teach taking a fresh approach to supporting trainees as they work towards primary QTS Titles provide fully up to date resources focused on teaching a more integrated and inclusive curriculum and texts draw out meaningful and explicit cross curricular links

Approaches to Narrative Fiction, 1983 Storytelling across the Primary Curriculum Alastair K Daniel, 2013-06-17 Starting from the question what is a story Storytelling Across the Primary Curriculum leads the reader through the theory and practise of storytelling as an educational method a method taught by the author over the last ten years through Primary English teaching programmes This practical book gives teachers the skills and confidence to use storytelling and the spoken word in new and exciting ways in the classroom It will also give teachers the confidence to put down the book and trust themselves to tell rather than read a story It provides a wealth of examples of cross curricular teaching opportunities including a section on the ways in which the teaching of phonics can be embedded in the real language of story Storytelling Across the Primary Curriculum is ideal for trainee and practicing primary school teachers who want to develop their classroom practice within the field of storytelling Students on BA Primary BEd and PGCE courses particularly those specialising in English will also benefit from this book's stimulating and intuitive approach to teaching English language and literacy

Teaching Children's Literature in the Primary School Geoff Fenwick, 1990

Storytelling in Early Childhood Teresa Cremin, Rosie Flewitt, Ben Mardell, Joan Swann, 2016-12-08 Storytelling in Early Childhood is a captivating book which explores the multiple dimensions of storytelling and story acting and shows how they enrich language and literacy learning in the early years Foregrounding the power of children's own stories in the early and primary years it provides evidence that storytelling and story acting a pedagogic approach first developed by Vivian Gussin Paley affords rich opportunities to foster learning within a play based and language rich curriculum The book explores a number of themes and topics including the role of imaginary play and its dynamic relationship to narrative how socially situated symbolic actions enrich the emotional cognitive and social development of children how the interrelated practices of storytelling and dramatisation enhance language and literacy learning and contribute to an inclusive classroom culture the challenges practitioners face in aligning their understanding of child literacy and learning with a narrow mandated curriculum which focuses on measurable outcomes Driven by an international approach and based on new empirical studies this volume further advances the field offering new theoretical and practical analyses of storytelling and story acting from complementary disciplinary perspectives This book is a potent and engaging read for anyone intrigued by Paley s storytelling and story acting curriculum as well as those practitioners and students with a vested interest in early years literacy and language learning With contributions from Vivian Gussin Paley Patricia Patsy Cooper Dorothy Faulkner Natalia Kucirkova Gillian Dowley McNamee and Ageliki Nicolopoulou
