This Teaching Life T. J. McElligott, 1986 Curriculum and the Cultural Body Stephanie Springgay, Debra Freedman, 2007 Textbook School Days in Thailand Larry Welch, 2012-06-05 In 2008 I was new to Thailand and new to the amazingly wonderful world of teaching English as a second language It was bewildering invigorating and life changing No days passed that I didn't marvel at the interaction with students and teachers At the end of two years in Thai public education I was both exhausted and exhilarated with the experience At that time my sense of personal history persuaded me to tell this story I hope it is one that you will enjoy Larry Welch What People Are Saying Larry writes with humor honesty and incredible detail His book is full of descriptions that in some cases whet your appetite to visit the places Larry is describing Cheryl Keane Randwick New South Wales Australia Sprinkled with humor and lightness along the way Larry touches the heart of readers with his enlightening experiences Highly recommended Marcia Bolog Milan Michigan USA This is an important book for those interested in Thailand or secondary education in a foreign country April Zhang Professor Daejeon University Daejeon South Korea Secondary School Education in Ireland Tom O'Donoghue, Judith Harford, 2015-10-12 Adopting a life story approach this book explores the memories of those who attended Irish secondary schools prior to 1967 It serves to initiate and enhance the practice of remembering secondary school education amongst those who attended secondary schools not just in Ireland but around the world Transnationalism, Gender and the History of Education Deirdre Raftery, Marie Clarke, 2018-10-03 In the past decade historians have begun to make use of the optic of transnationalism a perspective used traditionally by social anthropologists and sociologists in their study of the movement and flow of ideas between continents and countries Historical scholarship has adopted this tool and in this book historians of education use it to add nuance and depth to research on gender and education and particularly to the education experiences of women and girls The book brings together a group of internationally regarded scholars who are doing important research on transnationalism and the social construction of gender with particular reference to education environments such as schools and colleges The book is therefore very much at the cutting edge of theoretical and methodological advances in the history of education This book was originally published as a special issue of the History of Education Louis' School Days Edith J. May, 1854 My High School Days George Thornton Fleming, 1904 The Catholic Church and the Secondary School Curriculum in Ireland, 1922-1962 Tom A. O'Donoghue, 1999 Throughout the nineteenth century the Catholic Church expressed deep opposition to the great increase in state intervention in education internationally and it mounted resistance wherever possible However by the 1920s there was only a small number of countries where the Church was satisfied with the school system Ireland was one such country In Ireland successive governments between the 1920s and 1960s left management of the schools in the hands of the Church while accepting financial responsibility for their maintenance This book is concerned with how the Church operating within such parameters was able to influence the secondary school curriculum in order to meet its own interests namely the development of a loyal middle class and the production of priests brothers and nuns

A Pedagogist's Memoir Grant Rodwell, 2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied To meet emerging demands the memoir genre continually is evolving and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes time and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs Thus the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis For better or for worse childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles profoundly shaping who we are as teachers teaching styles and generally the things we consider important and not so important The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood It can affect our ability to trust be vulnerable and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally and also our general levels of motivation Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia s G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool Irish Publishing Record ,1987 The Invention of Marxism Christina Morina,2023 The Invention of Marxism shows how a theory of the capitalist system grew into a political philosophy that shaped the history of the twentieth century in extremely destructive as well as productive ways how an idea conquered the world The Correspondence of Myles Dillon, 1922-1925 Myles Dillon,1999 The letters however are of considerable interest far beyond the subjects of Celtic Studies and German university life Myles Dillon was an astute observer of political social and cultural developments in Germany a country which in the early 1920s experienced social and economic hardship His father a major figure in Irish politics since the days of Parnell and the last leader of the Irish Parliamentary Party before its demise in the elections of 1919 was an equally well informed critic he comments acidly on the progress of the new Irish Free State during this time of Civil War and postwar reconstruction The book also contains a selection of Myles Dillon s articles on Germany which appeared in Irish periodicals of the time Saothar ,1987 The Massachusetts Teacher ,1859 The Linen Hall Review ,1984 Irish Economic and Social History ,1987 The Power of Memoir Linda Myers,2010-01-26 A groundbreaking work for healing long term emotional problems The Power of Memoir is a pioneering how to book that provides a new step by step program to use memoir writing as a therapeutic process By going through these steps you ll learn how to choose the significant milestones and turning points that make up a coherent story leading to a life changing epiphany Help uncover the secret stories that are the keys to healing Explore the dynamics and roles of dysfunctional families Heal old wounds creating a better present and brighter future Using many examples from her students and clients the author shows how creative well planned and carefully researched memoir writing can offer a process for sorting out the truth from lies and family myths Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion ,1997 English Pedagogy Henry Barnard,1876
