Children's Thinking and Understanding brings together commissioned pieces by a range of hand-picked influential international authors from a variety of disciplines who share a high public profile for their specific developments in the theories of children's thinking, learning and understanding. The handbook is organised into four complementary parts: How can we think about young children's thinking? Concepts and contexts; Knowing about the brain and knowing about the mind; Making sense of the world; Documenting and developing children's thinking. Supported throughout with relevant research and case studies, this handbook is an international insight into the many ways there are to understand children and childhood, paired with the knowledge that young children have a strong vital and creative ability to think and to understand and to create and contend with the world around them.

Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts Diane Lapp, Douglas Fisher, 2011-01-18. Now in its third edition, the Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts, sponsored by the International Reading Association and the National Council of Teachers of English, offers an integrated perspective on the teaching of the English language arts and a comprehensive overview of research in the field. Prominent scholars, researchers, and professional leaders provide historical and theoretical perspectives about teaching the language arts, focus on bodies of research that influence decision making within the teaching of the language arts, explore the environments for language arts teaching, reflect on methods and materials for instruction. Reflecting important recent developments in the field, the Third Edition is restructured, updated, and includes many new contributors. More emphasis is given in this edition to the learner, multiple texts, learning and sharing one's knowledge. A Companion Website new for this edition provides PowerPoint slides highlighting the main points of each chapter.
