take on educator characters in popular culture and also includes important essays about media texts that have not been addressed adequately in the literature previously. The 15 chapters cover diverse forms from literary classics to iconic teacher movies to popular television to rock n roll. Topics explored include pedagogy through the lenses of gender, sexuality, race, disability, politics, narrative archetypes, curriculum, teaching strategies, and liberatory praxis. The various perspectives represented in this volume come from scholars and practitioners of education at all levels of schooling. This book is especially timely in an era when public education in the United States is under assault from conservative political forces and undervalued by the general public. Contributors are Steve Benton, Naeemah Clark, Kristy Liles, Crawley, Elizabeth Currin, Mary M Dalton, Jill Ewing, Flynn, Chad E Harris, Gary Kenton, Mark A Lewis, Ian Parker, Renga, Stephanie Schroeder, Roslin Smith, Jeff Spanke, and Andrew Wirth.

The Female Teacher on Television Andrew L. Grunzke, Rebecca Z. Grunzke, 2025-06-12. This edited volume examines the ways in which the representation of female teachers on television has developed from the advent of the medium up to the present day. Despite the widely feminized nature of the teaching profession, the first depictions of female teachers on television did not occur until over a century later. Contributors analyze a variety of programs spanning time periods, audiences, and genre to provide insight into the past, present, and future trajectory of increasingly multidimensional portrayals of female teachers. Scholars of television, media, gender, women's, and cultural studies will find this book of particular interest.
