Teaching Values:

VALUES AND TEACHING: WORKING WITH VALUES IN THE CLASSROOM LOUIS E. RATHS,1966 Teaching Values and Citizenship Across the Curriculum Richard Bailey,2014-05-12 This text presents the issues and principles for teaching values and citizenship at both primary and secondary levels based on the Crick Report and DfEE TTA guidelines It covers the whole of the curriculum and is supported by examples and key stage activities throughout Teaching Values Ron Scapp,2021-04-29 In Teaching Values Ron Scapp wrests the discussion of values and values based education away from traditionalists who have long dominated educational debates While challenging the Right s domination of the discussion of values education Scapp examines some issues not typically raised by educators and critics on the Left including the positive role of citizenship and national identity in U S education and culture The Teaching Values of the New Testament J. M. Duncan,1918 Values in Higher Education Teaching Tony Harland,Neil Pickering,2010-10-18 Values in Higher Education Teaching explores the way in which teaching research learning and higher education are a values enterprise and that an exploration of values is necessary to work out the full purposes of a higher education to guide practices and help academics understand academic work Values inform thinking and actions and although this is well recognized values are seldom brought to the forefront of inquiries as practices in higher education are developed This book argues that by putting values firmly on the agenda of those who teach work and learn in higher education the academic profession can open up new spaces for value conversations and potentially transform the way in which they practice Values in Higher Education Teaching is key reading for university lecturers those with responsibility for leadership and management of higher education and postgraduates studying for higher degrees in higher education There are few books that directly address the broad and complex question of values in teaching in higher education yet at the same time values are widely recognised as permeating all our practices In this sense an accepted part of academic life remains in the realm of taken for granted rather than being consciously and explicitly explored and practiced The book deals with the idea of values in both a philosophical and practical manner It is based on original research and uses both empirical data and theory to address teaching values in higher education and the current values of the higher education system It explores what academics have valued historically in teaching and also addresses the major reforms of the last 20 years Reforms have essentially changed the nature of western higher education but have made little real difference to the outcomes for student learning and society whereas teaching with values in all subjects has the potential to radically alter student experiences Teaching Design For Values Roberto Rocco,Amy Thomas,María Novas-Ferradás,2022-12-08 The process of identifying interpreting and implementing societal values in university education is an essential part of responsible innovation and designing for equitable inclusive and sustainable societies While there is now a well defined and growing body of research on the theory and application of designing for values or value sensitive design at present the pedagogical dimension remains underexplored Teaching Design for Values A Companion is a resource for teachers of design based disciplines who wish to foreground values more explicitly in their classes With fourteen chapters written by both TU Delft educators and international contributors the book aims to examine the concepts methods and experiences of teaching design for values within a variety of fields including urbanism engineering architecture artificial intelligence and industrial design Through its multi disciplinarity Teaching Design for Values proposes an expanded definition of design to encompass a broad range of disciplines and processes that deal generally with future imagining and future building including process management In doing so it explores the ways that values may be expressed and analysed in a variety of different pedagogical contexts

Education for Values: Morals, Ethics and Citizenship in Contemporary Teaching Jo Cairns,Roy Gardner,Denis Lawton,2013-05-13 Values in education in terms of both how they are taught and of the ethics of teaching itself are an area of lively debate This text provides a resource of ideas issues and practice for all those with an interest in this area of education

The Values Book Pamela Byrne Schiller,Tamera Bryant,1998 Here are activities discussion ideas and more that adults can use to help children practice these character building qualities Cover

Values Education and Quality Teaching Terence Lovat,Ron Toomey,2009-04-07 Some revision of public schooling history is necessary to challenge the dominant mythology that public schools were established on the grounds of values neutrality In fact those responsible for the foundations of public education in Australia were sufficiently pragmatic to know that its success relied on its charter being in accord with public sentiment Part of the pragmatism was in convincing those whose main experience of education had been through some form of church based education that state based education was capable of meeting the same ends Hence the documents of the 1870s and 1880s that contained the charters of the various state and territory systems witness to a breadth of vision about the scope of education Beyond the standard goals of literacy and numeracy education was said to be capable of assuring personal morality for each individual and a suitable citizenry for the soon to be new nation As an instance the NSW Public Instr tion Act of 1880 cf NSW 1912 under the rubric of religious teaching stressed the need for students to be inculcated into the values of their society including understanding the role that religious values had played in forming that society s legal codes and social ethics The notion therefore that public education is part of a deep and ancient heritage around values neutrality is mistaken and in need of se ous revision The evidence suggests that public education s initial conception was of being the complete educator not only of young people s minds but of their inner character as well

Teaching Values Gary A. Davis,1996-01-01

Values in Education Graham Haydon,2007-02-15 What are the fundamental aims and values underlying education What values should education try to promote in a world of value pluralism What is morality and should schools teach it In a secular society how should schools treat the links between morality and religion How should values enter into professional education and educational leadership This book an updated edition of Teaching about Values will help the reader to think about these questions and many others concerning values in education Drawing on philosophy without assuming knowledge of the subject it is for teachers students of education and anyone who recognises the importance of values in education

Value Education N. Venkataiah,1998

Becoming a Teacher:

Knowledge, Skills and Issues Maggie Clarke, Sharon Pittaway, 2014-04-23 Marsh's Becoming a Teacher 6e continues to offer pre service teachers a practical and user friendly guide to learning to teach that students find invaluable throughout their entire degree Marsh covers a comprehensive introduction to teaching methodology preparing pre service teachers for the challenges they face in a 21st century classroom All chapters in this new edition have been updated with new approaches and current references by the two new authors Maggie Clarke and Sharon Pittaway The approach in this 6th edition is more reflective and gives readers an even greater opportunity to interact with issues raised in the text Value Pattern, Job Satisfaction and Teaching Effectiveness of School Teachers (An Empirical study) Dr. Radhika Kulkarni, 2024-07-23 Survival of people in a progressive society is value based Human and social values have sustained the humanity ever since advances in civilization gave rise to organized social structures However individual and sectarian motives in the progressively rampant complexities of the society have taken the precedence over the humanitarian concerns and a rapid erosion of human and social values has become the order of the day Value education has become an answer to the challenge of strengthening moral and social fabric of the societies The need to devise educational methods and approaches which are dynamic reflective and would help to restore values and transform social forces into creative and constructive channels has for long been recognized
