

The path to team success

Most team activities require effective information sharing, which is impossible without a sense of how to communicate and collaborate with each member of the team.

Leaders must communicate effectively with every person in the team. The leader's ability to motivate the team shapes the results they achieve together.

Insights Transformational Leadership

Leaders are guided through an in-depth exploration of Insights' eight dimensions of leadership.

40% of workers worldwide feel inspired by their managers to do their best work.¹

Conflict is inevitable. It's how that conflict is handled that determines how much impact it will have on the team.

Navigator

Understand how you, your team, or your whole organisation is doing against key performance indicators.

Clearly communicating the goals and objectives, and the role each individual plays in the team is the best way to achieve real results.

More than 60% of performance problems result from strained relationships between employees.¹

If people think the same, they are going to have similar ideas and approaches, which can stifle innovation and creativity.

Return on equity is 13% higher for companies ranking in the top quartile of executive board diversity.¹

80% of peers cite lack of collaboration or ineffective communications as workplace failures.¹

Discovery

Understand your unique personality and create better personal and professional relationships.

Understanding yourself influences how you interact with others, rationalise and manage your emotions.
