Peacebuilding, Memory and Reconciliation Bruno Charbonneau, Genevieve Parent, 2013-06-17 This book aims to bridge the gap between what are generally referred to as top down and bottom up approaches to peacebuilding After the experience of a physical and psychological trauma the period of individual healing and recovery is intertwined with political and social reconciliation The prospects for social and political reconciliation are undermined when a top down approach is favoured over the bottom up strategy the prioritization of structural stability over societal well being Peacebuilding Memory and Reconciliation explores the inextricable link between psychological recovery and socio political reconciliation and the political issues that dominate this relationship Through an examination of the construction of social narratives about or for peace the text offers a new perspective on peacebuilding which challenges and questions the very nature of the dichotomy between top down and bottom up approaches This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies social psychology political science and IR in general

The Voice of Israel, 1845 The Voice of Israel, ed. by R.H. Herschell Ridley Haim Herschell, 1845 Aljadid, 2003 Holy Tears Kimberley Christine Patton, John Stratton Hawley, 2018-06-26 What religion does not serve as a theater of tears Holy Tears addresses this all but universal phenomenon with passion and precision ranging from Mycenaean Greece up through the tragedy of 9 11 Sixteen authors including many leading voices in the study of religion offer essays on specific topics in religious weeping while also considering broader issues such as gender memory physiology and spontaneity A comprehensive elegantly written introduction offers a key to these topics Given the pervasiveness of its theme it is remarkable that this book is the first of its kind and it is long overdue The essays ask such questions as Is religious weeping primal or culturally constructed Is it universal Is it spontaneous Does God ever cry Is religious weeping altered by sexual or social roles Is it perhaps at once scripted and spontaneous private and communal Is it indeed divine The grief occasioned by 9 11 and violence in Afghanistan Iraq Israel and elsewhere offers a poignant context for this fascinating and richly detailed book Holy Tears concludes with a compelling meditation on the theology of weeping that emerged from pastoral responses to 9 11 as described in the editors interview with Reverend Betsee Parker who became head chaplain for the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner of New York City and leader of the multifaith chaplaincy team at Ground Zero The contributors are Diane Apostolos Cappeladona Amy Bard Herbert Bassor Santha Bhattacharji William Chittick Gary Ebersole M David Eckel John Hawley Gay Lynch Jacob Ol pqn with Sol Aj b d Betsee Parker Kimberley Patton Nehemia Polen Kay Read and Kallistos Ware
