Tears In The Snow A True Story Of Love Courage And Danger:

Tears in the Snow Arnie Wilson, 1996 To ski the world was the dream of Arnie Wilson and his French girlfriend Lucy Dicker. Their journey began in Jackson Hole Wyoming on January 1st 1994 and took them across five continents to 240 resorts and earned them a place in the Guinness Book of Records. Fighting the clock and the elements Arnie and Lucy took on the Rockies the Alps the Himalayas and the Andes ever knowing what was in store for them but found their love and trust. On New Year's Eve 1994 the couple arrived back at Summit County Colorado in triumph. Amidst the celebrations they talked of marriage and the children they would share. Then on a clear sunny day in the Alps tragedy struck. In a treacherous couloir above La Grave Lucy slipped. She slid hundreds of feet on the pitiless ice to die with Arnie's arms wrapped around her. This is a story of love and magic of a couple who made the world theirs and then in one calamitous moment lost it all.

International Sport: A Bibliography, 1995-1999 Richard William Cox, 2004-04-22 There has been an explosion in the quantity of sports history literature published in recent years making it increasingly difficult to keep abreast of developments. The annual number of publications has increased from around 250 to 1 000 a year over the last decade. This is due in part to the fact that during the late 1980s and 90s many clubs leagues and governing bodies of sport have celebrated their centenaries and produced histories to mark this occasion and commemorate their achievements. It is also the result of the growing popularity and realisation of the importance of sport history research within academe. This international bibliography of books articles conference proceedings and essays in the English language is a one stop for the sports historian to know what is new.
