Henry James: Novels 1901-1902 (LOA #162) Henry James, 2018-08-14 This Library of America volume brings together one of Henry James's most unusual experiments and one of his most beloved masterpieces Writing to his friend William Dean Howells Henry James characterized his experimental novel The Sacred Fount as the only one of his novels to be told in the first person as a fine flight into the high fantastic While traveling to the country house of Newmarch for a weekend party the nameless narrator becomes obsessed with the idea that a person may become younger or cleverer by tapping the sacred fount of another person. Convinced that Grace Brissenden has become younger by drawing upon her husband Guy, the narrator seeks to discover the source of the newfound wit of Gilbert Long, previously a fine piece of human furniture. His perplexing and ambiguous quest and the varying reactions it provokes from the other guests call into question the imaginative inquiry central to James's art. Of the novel, James described the essential idea of The Wings of the Dove as a young person conscious of a great capacity for life but early stricken and doomed, condemned to die under short respite while also enamoured of the world. The heroine, a wealthy young American heiress Milly Theale, inspired by James's beloved cousin Minny Temple, is slowly drawn into a trap set for her by the English adventuress Kate Croy and her lover, the journalist Morton Densher. The unexpected outcome of their mercenary scheme provides the resolution to a tragic story of love and betrayal, innocence and experience that has long been acknowledged as one of James's supreme achievements as a novelist. This volume prints the New York Edition text of The Wings of the Dove and includes the illuminating preface James wrote for that edition.

John Muir: Nature Writings (LOA #92) John Muir, 1897-04-22 Known as the Father of the National Parks, John Muir wrote about the American West with unmatched passion and eloquence as seen in this stunning one-volume collection. In a lifetime of exploration, writing, and passionate political activism, John Muir became America's most eloquent spokesman for the mystery and majesty of the wilderness. A crucial figure in the creation of our national parks system and a far-seeing prophet of environmental awareness who founded the Sierra Club in 1892, he was also a master of natural description who evoked with unique power and intimacy the untrammeled landscapes of the American West. Nature Writings collects Muir's most significant and best-loved works in a single volume, including The Story of My Boyhood and Youth (1913), My First Summer in the Sierra (1911), The Mountains of California (1894), and Stickeen (1909). Rounding out the volume is a rich selection of essays, including Yosemite, Glaciers, God's First Temples, Snow Storm on Mount Shasta, The American Forests, and Save the Redwoods, that highlight various aspects of his career: his exploration of the Grand Canyon and of what became Yosemite and Yellowstone national parks; his successful crusades to preserve the wilderness; his early walking tour to Florida and the Alaska journey of 1879.
