Six Contemporary Chinese Women Artists:

Six Contemporary Chinese Women Artists Lucy Lim, 1991 The Art of Women in Contemporary China Patricia Eichenbaum Karetzky, 2020-01-08 This book presents in eight chapters the work of over 75 Chinese female artists both pictorial and poetic Their art is viewed within a framework of eight themes The broad topics explored include the body life the representation of the experience of being a woman home and the world a view of children and other women clothes social conscience fantasy and abstraction nonfigurative work and its viability as a medium to express the spiritual These themes provide several lenses through which to enjoy and compare these artists approaches and outputs The volume is unique in its inclusion of poetry by contemporary women whose voices articulate so many of the same concerns as the visual artists In China poetry has always been the prime form of artistic expression and it remains so today Looking at this poetry affords us a different means of appreciating the art of women in contemporary society Modern Chinese Artists Michael

Sullivan, 2006-04-03 An important reference source for scholars and students of modern Chinese art collectors museums and libraries dealers and auction houses It includes biographical entries for approximately 800 Chinese artists who grew up or were trained in China and who are likely to be represented in collections exhibitions and auctions within and outside China

Women's Studies Linda Krikos, Cindy Ingold, 2004-08-30 This truly monumental work maps the literature of women s studies covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts This definitive guide to the literature of women s studies is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and it is a useful addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field A team of subject specialists has taken on the immense task of documenting publications in the area of women s studies in the last decades of the 20th century The result is this truly monumental work which maps the field covering thousands of titles and Web sites in 19 subject areas published between 1985 and 1999 Intended as a reference and collection development tool this bibliography provides a guide for women s studies information for each title along with a detailed often evaluative review The annotations summarize each work s content its importance or contribution to women s studies and its relationship to other titles on the subject Most reviews cite and describe similar and contrasting titles substantially extending the coverage Core titles and titles that are out of print are noted and reviews indicate which titles are appropriate as texts or supplemental texts Taking up where the previous volume by Loeb Searing and Stineman left off this is the definitive guide to the literature of women s studies It is a must purchase for academic libraries that support women s studies programs and a welcome addition to any academic or public library that endeavors to represent the field Asian Women Artists Dinah Dysart, Hannah Fink, 1996 The many feminisms of the Asian world are introduced in this series of essays on contemporary women artists Prominent women painters sculptors installation artists and printmakers are profiled with over 100 colour illustrations Contemporary Chinese Fiction Writers Laifong Leung, 2016-07-28 In the years since the death of Mao Zedong interest in Chinese writers and Chinese literature has risen significantly in the West In 2000 Gao Xingjian became the first Chinese writer to receive the Nobel Prize for Literature followed by Mo Yan in 2012 and writers such as Ha Jin and Da Sijie have also become well known in the West Despite this progress the vast majority of Chinese writers remain largely unknown outside of China This book introduces the lives and works of eighty contemporary Chinese writers and focuses on writers from the Rightist generation Bai Hua Gao Xiaosheng Liu Shaotang writers of the Red Guard generation Li Rui Wang Anyi Post Cultural Revolution Writers as well as others Unlike earlier works it provides detailed often first hand biographical information on this wide range of writers including their career trajectories major themes and artistic characteristics In addition to this each entry includes a critical presentation and evaluation of the writer s major works a selected bibliography of publications that includes works in Chinese works translated into English and critical articles and books available in English Offering a valuable contribution to the field of contemporary Chinese literature by making detailed information about Chinese writers more accessible this book will be of interest to students and scholars Chinese Literature Contemporary Literature and Chinese Studies The Reckoning Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2014-05-12 The authors of After the Revolution return with an incisive study of the work of contemporary women artists In After the Revolution the authors concluded that The battles may not all have been won but barricades are gradually coming down and work proceeds on all fronts in glorious profusion Now with The Reckoning authors Heartney Posner Princenthal and Scott bring into focus the accomplishments of 24 acclaimed international women artists born since 1960 who have benefited from the groundbreaking efforts of their predecessors The book is organized in four thematic sections Bad Girls profiles artists whose work represents an assault on conventional notions of gender and racial difference History Lessons offers reflections on the self in the context of history and globalization Spellbound focuses on women s embrace of the irrational subjective and surreal while Domestic Disturbances takes on women s conflicted relationship to home family and security Written in lively prose and fully illustrated throughout this book gives an informed account of the wonderful diversity of recent contemporary art by women An indispensable contribution to the literature on contemporary art by women Whitney Chadwick author of Women Art and Society In the 2007 book After the Revolution Women Who Transformed Contemporary Art the authors set a new standard in documenting and evaluating the work of a dozen key women artists spanning generations between the 1960s to the 2000s The beat goes on with the appearance of The Reckoning written by the same authors in the same accessible scholarly style but reflecting important historical changes over the past decade and more In line with the increased presence of women in mainstream art

the book includes twice as many artists as its predecessor And its global reach has expanded vastly stretching from Europe and the Americas to Africa and China Holland Cotter The New York Times Women Artists News ,1994 After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney,Helaine Posner,Nancy Princenthal,Sue Scott,2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement Women Artists in History Wendy Slatkin,2001 A chronologically organized overview of female artists through the centuries with 110 illustrations
