Social Movements, Political Violence, and the State Donatella della Porta, 1995-09-29 This book presents empirical research on the nature and structure of political violence While most studies of social movements focus on single nation studies Donatella della Porta uses a comparative research design to analyze movements in two countries Italy and Germany from the 1960s to the 1990s Through extensive use of official documents and in depth interviews della Porta is able to explain the actors construction of external political reality and to build a theory on political violence that synthesizes the various interactions among political actors Social Movements, Political Violence, and the State: A Comparative Analysis of Italy and Germany Donatella Della Porta (1956), 2006 This book presents empirical research on the nature and structure of political violence While most studies of social movements focus on single nations Donatella della Porta uses a comparative research design to analyse movements in two countries Italy and Germany from the 1960s to the 1990s

Mobilization for Violent Politicized Islam Hawa Noor, 2024-08-05 This book focuses on the involvement of some Kenyans in al Shabaab an affiliate of Al Qaeda based in Somalia despite their country s relative stability compared to Somalia It discusses the origin of the Kenyan state and how colonization created social stratification that benefited elites closer to the center while excluding marginalized groups at the periphery The argument is that this pattern still prevails despite attempts to enhance equality such as the adoption of a new constitution in 2010 promoting the devolution of power and resources The persistence of this condition it is argued is what initially handed al Qaeda and later al Shabaab opportunities for mobilization enabled by its creative politicization of religion The heavy handed tactics employed by security forces under the auspices of the War on Terror further catalyzed this process resulting in more Kenyan individuals joining the group Using an historical and political process approach the book shows how the interplay of structural conditions and al Shabaab s mobilization strategy linked with individuals motivations for joining the group Based on individuals own narratives about their participation the latter is empirically demonstrated to be non linear incorporating motivations beyond rational ones contrary to the overemphasis on ideology in the literature on participation in groups similar to al Shabaab This book will of much interest to students of political violence African politics Islamic studies and International Relations

The Future of Social Movement Research Jacqueliën van Stekelenburg, Conny Roggeband, Bert Klandermans, 2013-07-01 Are the dynamics of contention changing This is the question confronted by the contributors of this volume among the most influential scholars in the field of social movements The answers arriving at a time of extraordinary worldwide turmoil not only provide a wide ranging and varied understanding of how social movements arise and persist but also engender unanswered questions pointing to new theoretical strands and fields of research The Future of Social Movement Research asks How are the dynamics of contention shaped by globalization By societies that are becoming increasingly more individualized and diverse By the spread of new communication technologies such as social media cell phones and the Internet Why do some movements survive while others dissipate Do local and global networks differ in nature The authors essays explore such questions with reference to changes in three domains of contention the demand of protest changes in grievances and identities the supply of protest changes in organizations and networks and how these changes affect the dynamics of mobilization In doing so they theorize and make empirically insightful how globalization individualization and virtualization create new grievances new venues for action new action forms and new structures of contention The resulting work brought together through engaging discussions and debates between the contributors is interdisciplinary and unusually broad in scope constituting the most comprehensive overview of the dynamics of social movements available today Contributors Marije Boekkooi VU U Amsterdam Pang Ching Bobby Chen U of California Merced Donatella della Porta European U Institute Mario Diani U of Trento Italy Jan Willem Duyvendak U of Amsterdam Myra Marx Ferree U of Wisconsin Madison Beth Garrity Gardner Ashley Gromis Swen Hutter U of Munich Ruud Koopmans WZB Berlin Hanspeter Kriesi U of Zurich Nonna Mayer National Centre for European Studies Doug McAdam Stanford U John D McCarthy Pennsylvania State U Debra Minkoff Barnard College Columbia U Alice Motes Pamela E Oliver U of Wisconsin Madison Francesca Polletta U of California Irvine Jacomijne Prins VU U Amsterdam Patrick Rafail Tulane U Christopher Rootes U of Kent Canterbury Dieter Rucht Free U of Berlin David A Snow U of California Irvine Sarah A Soule Stanford U Suzanne Staggenborg U of Pittsburgh Sidney Tarrow Cornell U Verta Taylor U of California Santa Barbara Marjoka van Doorn Martijn van Zomeren U of Groningen Stefaan Walgrave U of Antwerp Saskia Welschen

Methodological Practices in Social Movement Research Donatella Della Porta, 2014 Social movement studies have grown enormously in the last few decades spreading from sociology and political science to other fields of knowledge as varied as geography history anthropology psychology economics law and others With the growing interest in the field there has been also an increasing need for methodological guidance for empirical research This volume aims at addressing this need by introducing main methods of data collection and dataanalysis as they have been used in past research on social movements The book emphasises a practical approach presenting in each chapter specific discussions on the main steps of research using a certain method from research design to data collection and the use of information In doing so dilemmas and choices are presented and illustrated within chapters following the same systemic approach Political Islam at the Crossroads Ayfer Erdogan, Shaimaa Magued, 2025-07-24 A comparative analysis of Islamist groups ideological positioning toward nation state secularism and democracy across different countries in the MENA region Authoritarian reassertion following the Arab uprisings in the Middle East has restrained Islamists political participation and challenged their survival as both opposition groups and rulers In light of national sociopolitical variations across the region this book explores Islamists means of adaptation and resilience in the face of this political exclusion unpacking Islamists sociopolitical persistence and ideological sustainability In doing so this book sheds light on the following questions How did Islamists adapt to contextual restrictions in terms of repression and stigmatization How did the Arab uprisings impact their internal debates ideological revisions and reconsideration of tools of action Individual chapters explore similarities and divergences among Islamist groups and parties in terms of ideological affiliations means of survival and political participation strategies drawing on comparative cases from across the MENA region Examples include the Muslim Brotherhood in Egypt Al Nahda in Tunisia the AKP Justice and Development Party in Turkey Hezbollah in Lebanon Hamas in Palestine and the Islamic State in Syria and Iraq These studies engage critically with conceptual debates related to Islamism post Islamism Jihadist Islam and the Islamic nation community ummah to determine the trajectory of political Islam in the MENA
