Chapter to Finance Watch and the World Business Academy Foreword by Dennis Meadows co author of the 1972 Club of Rome report The Limits to Growth Social Exclusion Amartya Sen, 2000 This paper is being issued to promote discussion of social development issues that influence development and poverty reduction It is generally recognized that poverty has both material and non material dimensions Because of their obvious tangibility many development practitioners find it easier to understand and address the material dimensions of poverty Development of the enterprises' competitiveness in the context of demographic challenges Marzena Grzesiak, Baltic Sea Academy, Max Hogeforster, 2013-12-30 This publication relates to the subject of shaping and maintaining high competitiveness and innovation by businesses with particular emphasis on the SME sector in the Baltic Sea Region It is divided into three parts The first part includes the discussion of women s economic activity and their participation in the creation and strengthening of the competitive position of companies The second part is devoted to problems related to the ageing of population in the Baltic Sea Region countries and the potential socio economic impact of this fast growing process The deliberations contained in the second part refer also to the possibilities and conditions for realizing the potential of seniors in the development of competitiveness and innovation of enterprises The third part is a fragmentary overview of achievements related to the factors of competitiveness and innovation of modern enterprises The papers that were presented at a international conference 2013 at the Gdansk University of Technology are printed in English Socially Responsive Organizations & the Challenge of Poverty Milenko Gudić, Al Rosenbloom, Carole Parkes, 2017-09-08 This book provides a combination of case studies and current action research describing how businesses and civil society organizations are working to alleviate poverty in local and global communities It intends to provide conceptual and research rationales for why management education and management institutions must address the issue of poverty The book responds to one of the major findings from the research of the PRME Working Group on Poverty that the topic of poverty still lacks a strong business case for management educators and program institutional administrators The distinctive features of this book are that it 1 includes examples of small and medium sized SME businesses 2 deals with the issue of poverty as a human rights violation 3 explores the issue of absolute versus relative poverty 4 deals with leadership challenges in organizations committed to poverty alleviation and 5 discusses the issues in terms of management education s responsibility for setting new management research institutional and intellectual agendas The first of two books to be produced by the PRME Working Group on Poverty Socially Responsive Organizations and The Challenge of Poverty aims to provide both researchers and practitioners with the most wide ranging coverage yet published on how business can be a positive force in alleviating poverty and how management education needs to adapt to this increasingly crucial prerogative Coping with Homelessness Dragana Avramov, 2018-12-17 First published in 1999 The phenomenon of homelessness is not new but it has only recently been perceived as a social problem in European Member States Even in the early 1990s little was known about the paths in and out of homelessness This volume presents the papers arising from EUROHOME Emergency and Transitory Housing for Homeless people Needs and Best Practices This project enabled a review of the state of knowledge in the field an analysis of recent trends and a discussion of the prospects for improvement in the prevention of homelessness and the public response to housing in Europe EUROHOME and this collection thus bring together experts in the study of

Multidimensional Poverty Measurement Udaya Wagle, 2009-04-05 Conceptualization and measurement of poverty have traditionally relied on purely economic approaches with income or consumption as the only indicator Multidimensional approaches have increasingly been used to understand poverty but have yet to be fully operationalized This book uses factor analysis and structural equations modelling to develop a multidimensional framework that integrates capability and social inclusion as additional poverty indicators The empirical relevance of this methodological contribution is demonstrated through its application in the United States and Nepal The proposed approach not only helps to identify different categories of the poor but also to more accurately target resources and policies of poverty alleviation The book will therefore be an important reference for professionals in development agencies as well as for poverty and policy researchers Evaluating Family Support Ilan Katz, John Pinkerton, 2003-08-01 The delivery of effective family support is a key global child welfare issue yet there is little consensus on what constitutes family support or what the best ways are to evaluate it Evaluating Family Support Thinking Internationally Thinking Critically offers a full review of the conceptual and operational problems involved in this complex and topical field Ilan Katz and John Pinkerton have brought together a team of experienced child care policy analysts and evaluators to present the current state of critical thinking alongside detailed international case studies The chapters offer revealing glimpses into the nature of family support across the world as well as an overview of the challenges facing both practitioners and researchers Comparative Literature: Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity - Volume III Lisa Block de Behar, Paola Mildonian, Jean-Michel Djian, Djelal Kadir, Alfons Knauth, Dolores Romero Lopez and Marcio Seligmann Silva, 2009-10-29 Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledges for Preserving Cultural Diversity theme is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme on Comparative Literature Sharing Knowledge s for Preserving Cultural Diversity provides six different topics 1 Language literature and human sustainability 2 Relationships among literature and other artistic activities and discourses 3 Comparative literature and other fields of knowledge 4 Comparative literature criticism and media 5 Comparative literature in the age of global change 6 Translatio studii and cross cultural movements or Weltverkehr These three volumes are aimed at a wide spectrum of audiences University and College Students Educators and Research Personnel The Contract of Employment Alan Bogg, Mark Freedland, 2016 The contract of employment is the central legal institution of modern English employment law It provides the foundation upon which most statutory employment rights are constructed it provides a conduit for the implementation of norms negotiated in collective bargaining and it continues to provide a contractual structure for the terms and conditions of employment for a significant proportion of the working population The Contract of Employment provides the most ambitious and comprehensive treatise on the theoretical and doctrinal aspects of the English contract of employment in the common law world Under the general editorship of Professor Mark Freedland the text has been produced by a team of world leading experts in employment law Part I examines the theoretical context to the contract of employment studying its structure and development from a wide variety of theoretical and comparative perspectives Part II provides an exposition and analysis of the doctrinal aspects of the contract of employment The coverage of The Contract of Employment is unrivalled in its depth detail and sophistication The legal analysis is always informed by a keen sense of the modern labour market context of the contract of employment and it is sensitive to contemporary challenges such as precariousness the interaction with migration law the role of legislation in the contract of employment and the decline of collective bargaining It will be the principal reference point for the practitioners judges and academics concerned with the contract of employment as a legal category both nationally and internationally

Conversations and Transformations Ananta Kumar Giri, 2002-01-01 In this intriguing new book Indian social theorist Ananta Kumar Giri issues a stirring call for scholars of contemporary social theory and practice to grapple with late modernity's most pressing social and political issues Giri counterposes Western thought with Indian social theory in a work that ranges across an array of Indian texts and ideas hitherto ignored by Western scholarship Included along with the mainstays of Indian intellectual thought like Gandhi and Sri Aurobindo are lesser known Indian social theorists economists sociologists and essayists who argue for transcendence of self interest social responsibility and political renewal Thoughtfully argued and lucidly written this work offers the reader a genuine transdisciplinary learning experience going beyond European ethnocentrism to make social theory a truly global conversation

Handbook of Equality of Opportunity, 2024-07-12 This Handbook provides an authoritative exposition of equality of opportunity It presents the different concepts most commonly associated with equality of opportunity and discusses the many problems dominating the controversies on equality of opportunity at the theoretical policy or practical level The chapters give a concise exposition of the different conceptions and basic concepts of equal opportunities They clarify variables that are part of the algorithm of equal opportunities e g opportunity equality non discrimination fairness responsibility chance and choice excellence qualifications effort talent merit desert inequality and risk The idea of equality of opportunity has traditionally been associated with a set of largely unquestioned ideals and over the last 50 years it has been at the very centre of the major progressive social changes and firmly entrenched in political rhetoric Yet the idea of equality of opportunity is far from unquestionable or unproblematic as the only solid assumption different conceptions have in common is their rejection of fixed social relations but not hierarchy itself Disagreements over the fundamental principles criticism over the inefficiency of policies aiming to ensure equal opportunities and objections to their unfairness all pose questions that current conceptions answer in different ways This Handbook examines a wide variety of questions about issues of motivation procedures genealogy taxonomy and compensation Homelessness Kennett, Patricia, Marsh, Alex, 1999-09-15 The issue of homelessness has become extremely important in policy debates during the 1990s Yet analysis that links the phenomenon of homelessness to wider debates about the changing social and economic environment remains relatively underdeveloped This important new book brings together contemporary theoretical debates and original empirical research in order to explore the nature experience and impact of social change in the new landscape of precariousness in which new sets of risks and uncertainties have emerged It adopts a multi disciplinary approach which is essential in developing a more subtle understanding of both the complex processes leading to and the experience of homelessness Central to contemporary theory and practice is the enhancement of our understanding of how homelessness disadvantage and social exclusion impact differently on various social groups Homelessness provides a strong contribution to the academic debate and is essential reading for students and researchers in a range of subject areas including housing studies social policy socio legal studies and public administration
