Social Science Theories In Adult Education Research:

Social Science Theories in Adult Education Research Agnieszka Bron, Michael Schemmann, 2002 The relationship between adult education research and theory is one of tension On the one hand there are several empirical studies carried out without any theoretical guidance On the other hand there is theorizing and theory building taking place without any empirical support Social Science Theories in Adult Education Research the third volume of the Bochum Studies in International Adult Education series pleads for the importance of the combination of empirical and theoretical work in a symbiotic way Good empirical studies need theoretical guidance and good theory building needs a solid empirical basis thus the book explores and displays the most often used theories and theoretical perspectives in adult education research in the last decade within the European discourse and analyzes their potentials for adult education research The chapters presented in this volume have a more or less similar underlying structure They display the most important contours of the theory or perspective in question they analyze and discuss the relation to adult education research focusing on examples of other researcher s work and they give an outlook on what can be expected of the respective paradigm s in the future Social Science Theories in Adult Education Research Christian Anderson, 2018 Arts Therapy Line Kossolapow, Sarah Scoble, 2003 The series Arts Creativity Therapies is intended to help to satisfy the increasing demand for non fiction books concerning interventions with artistic creative media on the basis of gaining social scientific educational scientific insight Experience and field research examples are in the foreground here In other words the intention is to speak about practice governed by theory but also to communicate the fundamentals of art and creativity which make it possible for the experts to keep up close contacts with newer developments in science and art The function of the word Therapy is to express the relation to application in a professionalisation which covers the pre school school university clinical advisory as well as the rehabilitatory sector It is a response to the necessity for an all encompassing professional orientation with a helping instructing informing supporting purpose Teachers and educators social workers and social educators arts and creative therapists music and exercise therapists formative and occupational therapists as well as arts and museum educators remedial and special educators should all be able to benefit from this series The involvement of artistic creative media serves to improve healing chances as well as increase the quality of life and acquire strategies which help to cope with particular pressures of life Socio-Cultural Impacts of Workplace E-Learning: Epistemology, Ontology and Pedagogy Remtulla, Karim A., 2010-05-31 This book is about using socio culturally based research in the study of technology learning and workers for the purposes of a better workplace adult education and training from workplace e learning Provided by publisher Interpretive Social Research Gabriele Rosenthal, 2018 This volume is a clear introduction to methods of data collection and analysis in the social sciences with a special focus on interpretive methods based on a logic of discovering hypotheses and grounded theories The chief methods presented are participant observation open interviews and biographical case reconstruction The special advantages of interpretive methods as against other qualitative methods are revealed by comparing them to content analysis Empirical examples show how the methods presented can be implemented in practice and concrete problems connected with conducting empirical research are discussed By presenting individual case studies the author shows how to apply the principle of openness when collecting empirical data whether through interviews or observations and she offers rules for analysis based on the principles of reconstruction and sequentiality

Life and Learning of Korean Artists and Craftsmen Dae Joong Kang, 2015-04-17 This book brings out the need for lifelong learning theory and explores how it is possible from a postmodern perspective The book uses life history that has gained its popularity in social science research to overcome the dichotomy between individual and society or between agency and structure Life history also reflects the postmodern or late modern conditions of social life In this book the author uses a collection of published oral history narratives of famous Korean artists and craftsmen The author maps out life and learning of five such artists and craftsmen with figurations of escaping creating controlling and formalizing These figurations are images of Rhizoactivity that the author proposes as a new conceptual tool to navigate lifelong learning from a postmodern perspective This book signalises a new way of theory building in the field of adult and lifelong education The Life and Learning of Korean Artists and Craftsmen Rhizoactivity conceptualises Adult learning in terms of postmodern and lifelong learning conditions Life histories as a method of researching lifelong learning The four facets of artistic journeys escaping creating controlling and formalizing This book will interest researchers focusing on lifelong and adult education Its use of social theories in its study of lifelong learning amongst Korean artists will also interest sociologists and educators concerned with the sociology of education

Social capital and lifelong learning John Field, 2005-06-01 Social capital and lifelong learning are central to current policy concerns both in the UK and internationally This book confirms the significance of social capital as an analytical tool while challenging the basis on which current policy is being developed It offers a wealth of evidence on a topic that has become central to contemporary government provides a detailed empirical investigation of the relationship between social capital knowledge creation and lifelong learning relates the findings to wider policy debates questions the dominant theoretical models of social capital and confronts the assumption of many policy makers that the obvious solution to social problems is to invest in social capital
