Social Services In Nigeria An Introduction:

Social Services in Nigeria Andrew G. Onokerhoraye, 1984 The Humanitarian Engagement of the Church in Nigeria Emmanuel Ayeboame, 2019-05 Human dignity decent life and human rights are effects of extensive humanitarian struggles by a people to achieve reasonable life for all The possibility of such El Dorado was stalled in the past by unforeseen circumstances and other man made tribulations in global history However these struggles will remain incomplete without a global perspective Thus taking the responsibility to understand humanity and her shortfalls in other parts of the globe becomes necessary This quest consequently triggers the thorough study on how where and why their plight is intrinsically tied to their social cultural religious and political background Such genuine consequent studies can uproot the causal effect and thus guarantee the success of that developmental slogan of helping people to help themselves This study attempts to provide a platform that could chart a path towards sustainable answers to basic social questions Global Encyclopedia of Public Administration, Public Policy, and Governance Ali Farazmand, 2023-04-05 This global encyclopedic work serves as a comprehensive collection of global scholarship regarding the vast fields of public administration public policy governance and management Written and edited by leading international scholars and practitioners this exhaustive resource covers all areas of the above fields and their numerous subfields of study In keeping with the multidisciplinary spirit of these fields and subfields the entries make use of various theoretical empirical analytical practical and methodological bases of knowledge Expanded and updated the second edition includes over a thousand of new entries representing the most current research in public administration public policy governance nonprofit and nongovernmental organizations and management covering such important sub areas as 1 organization theory behavior change and development 2 administrative theory and practice 3 Bureaucracy 4 public budgeting and financial management 5 public economy and public management 6 public personnel administration and labor management relations 7 crisis and emergency management 8 institutional theory and public administration 9 law and regulations 10 ethics and accountability 11 public governance and private governance 12 Nonprofit management and nongovernmental organizations 13 Social health and environmental policy areas 14 pandemic and crisis management 15 administrative and governance reforms 16 comparative public administration and governance 17 globalization and international issues 18 performance management 19 geographical areas of the world with country focused entries like Japan China Latin America Europe Asia Africa the Middle East Russia and Eastern Europe North America and 20 a lot more Relevant to professionals experts scholars general readers researchers policy makers and manger and students worldwide this work will serve as the most viable global reference source for those looking for an introduction and advance knowledge to the field Public Policy and Development in Developing Nations: Selected Cases Ola Abegunde, 2015-10-07 Public policy analysis has been an area of great interest in Political Science and Public Administration The contributions of scholars like Yehezkel Dror Thomas Dye Bruce Doern and others have helped to examine the style and approaches that have added to our understanding of public policies In this collection of fourteen essays public policy is examined in ranging environments Greece Zimbabwe Nigeria and South Africa The policies of these countries and some other issues relating to social security poverty welfare consumer rights are covered The first paper introduces us to the differences between public and private policies and shows the importance of giving the right place to the former in the orderly society Journal of the Historical Society of Nigeria ,2005 Aging Across Cultures Helaine Selin,2022-01-01 This volume brings together chapters about aging in many non Western cultures from Africa and Asia to South America from American Indians to Australian and Hawaii Aborigines It also includes articles on other issues of aging such as falling dementia and elder abuse It was thought that in Africa or Asia elders were revered and taken care of This certainly used to be the case But the Western way has moved into these places and we now find that elders are often left on their own or in institutions as younger people have migrated to other cities and even countries Grandparents often find themselves being parents to their grandchildren a far cry from the kind of life they believed they would have as they aged This book will explore all these issues and will be of use to students and researchers in this relatively new field The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1985 Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service,1921 The Federal Capital Territory of Nigeria Ola Balogun,Olayinka Y. Osirike,1984 Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm Jerome Schiele,Jerome H Schiele,2013-09-13 Discover how human services professionals can help to eliminate cultural oppression Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm presents a new way of understanding human behavior attacking social problems and exploring social issues This excellent guide shows that understanding the simultaneous forces of oppression and spiritual alienation in American society serves as a foundation for understanding the societal problems here The first book to offer a comprehensive exposition of how the Afrocentric paradigm can be used by human service professionals and community advocates Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm discusses why and how human service work is hampered by Eurocentric cultural values and will help you to offer fair and effective services to your clients Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm provides you with a concrete description of how the Afrocentric model can be applied in human services to help people of all races and ethnicities You will expand and diversify your knowledge base in human services by understanding the cultural values traditions and experiences of people of African ancestry Some of the issues and concepts in the Afrocentric paradigm that you will explore are defining the Afrocentric worldview complete with a discussion of its philosophical assumptions and its shortcomings understanding traditional helping assumptions and methods of West

African societies and how these have influenced the helping strategies of African Americans exploring the strengths and weaknesses of some early African American human service scholars with special concern placed on their rejection of traditional African methods in favor of Eurocentric ideas resolving youth violence and helping people with substance abuse problems examining Afrocentric assumptions about resource distribution morality and societal relationships identifying organizational and conceptual differences in Eurocentric and Afrocentric paradigms creating organizational empowerment and an enhanced work environment via the Afrocentric paradigm Human Services and the Afrocentric Paradigm will help you understand solve and prevent problems that are confronted by several races especially individuals of African descent This timely and relevant worldview is thoroughly explained to assist you in better serving people of color The Afrocentric paradigm will help human services practitioners administrators policy advocates analysts educators and black studies professors and students achieve educational and treatment objectives by showing you the importance of various cultural values and how to integrate them to make a difference Africana Journal, 1990

The Routledge International Handbook of Race, Culture and Mental Health Roy Moodley, Eunjung Lee, 2020-10-27 This handbook presents a thorough examination of the intricate interplay of race ethnicity and culture in mental health historical origins subsequent transformations and the discourses generated from past and present mental health and wellness practices The text demonstrates how socio cultural identities including race gender class sexual orientation disability religion and age intersect with clinical work in a range of settings Case vignettes and recommendations for best practice help ground each in a clinical focus guiding practitioners and educators to actively increase their understanding of non Western and indigenous healing techniques as well as their awareness of contemporary mental health theories as a product of Western culture with a particular historical and cultural perspective The international contributors also discuss ways in which global mental health practices transcend racial cultural ethnic linguistic and political boundaries The Routledge International Handbook of Race Culture and Mental Health is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals alike as it addresses the complexity of mental health issues from a critical global perspective The Routledge Handbook of Service User Involvement in Human Services Research and Education Hugh McLaughlin, Peter Beresford, Colin Cameron, Helen Casey, Joe Duffy, 2020-08-10 Worldwide there has been a growth in service user involvement in education and research in recent years This handbook is the first book which identifies what is happening in different regions of the world to provide different countries and client groups with the opportunity to learn from each other The book is divided into five sections Section One examines service user involvement in context exploring theoretical issues which underpin service user involvement In Section Two we focus on the state of service user involvement in human services education and research across the globe including examples of innovative practice but also identifying examples of where it is not happening and why Section Three offers more detailed examination of such involvement in a wide range of professional education learning settings Section

Four focuses on the involvement of service users in research involving a wide range of service user groups and situations. Lastly, Section Five explores future challenges for education and research to ensure involvement remains meaningful. The book includes forty-eight chapters, including seventeen case studies from all regions of the world. This is the first book to both highlight the subject's methodological and theoretical issues and give practical examples in education and research for those wishing to engage in this field. It will be of interest to all service users, scholars, and students of social work, nursing, occupational therapy, and other human service subjects.

Sustainable Ageing Nestor Asiamah, Hafiz T.A. Khan, Whitney Nesser, Frank Frimpong Opuni, Alex Siu Wing Chan, 2024-10-26. This book uniquely operationalizes sustainable ageing as a concept for reimagining ways by which 1) social and health threats (i.e. climate change events, extreme industrialization, infectious disease outbreak, and war) can constrain the implementation of healthy ageing campaigns or limit their outcomes, and 2) potential transdisciplinary strategies can be rolled out to optimize healthy ageing through the campaigns in contexts experiencing the threats. The United Nations Decade of Healthy Ageing 2021-2030 initiative drives major healthy ageing campaigns and encapsulates 10 initiatives for enabling people to maintain health as they age. Worsening social and health threats are, however, hindering the implementation of the campaigns. Consequently, healthy ageing may not be achieved or sustained even in age-friendly contexts experiencing crises. Scholars agree these threats will adversely impact public health, and an inclusive multidisciplinary approach to healthy ageing is necessary amidst the threats. This book provides an understanding of how healthy ageing should be framed and approached through the campaigns in a world experiencing crises. Among the topics covered are: Psychology of Ageing in Place; Amidst Health and Social Threats; Perspectives on the Decade of Healthy Ageing; Climate Change Adaptation for Healthy Ageing; Research Practice Gap; Impact on Campaigns and Mitigation Strategies; Human Development Pathways for Empowering Older Adults; A Decade of Healthy Ageing Perspective; Initiatives to Fight Ageism; Neglect and Elderly Abuse During Crises; A Healthy Ageing Perspective; Sustainable Ageing; Reimagining Healthy Ageing Through the Lens of Flagship Campaigns. This is a timely publication with broad appeal. Each chapter provides empirical evidence or models for improving stakeholders' understanding of campaign-related healthy ageing programmes, how the programmes are affected by the threats, and what can be done to achieve the core goals in contexts experiencing threats. Students, lecturers, and researchers can use the book as a research guide, whereas public health professionals and organizations can use it to develop or alter policies. Researchers in a wide range of disciplines can design studies based on models and insights from the book.
